

Church Christmas Programs Eugene Will Start Friday

Christmas programs will be held in churches as early as Saturday evening, in Eugene, and Sunday, Dec. 24, especially marked by church services. Other churches hold services on Christmas of the church, aided by Mrs. Wetzel, is in charge of production, with assistance from the program committee. Rev. V. T. Speece, pastor, extends the church's invitation to the public to attend.

"Best of Gifts" is a pageant given Saturday at 8 p.m. by more than 60 persons, at First Baptist church, as its annual presentation. In it the story is given a modern setting with an evangelistic action will take place on different stages, with music, background and interesting effects.

At Fairmount Presbyterian church, a play, "Christmas is a Miracle," will be presented Saturday at 7:30 p.m., the cast of players made up of young people of the church. In the setting of a deserted church, an old man and a crippled boy, who are its caretakers, see a vision of the first Christmas. A statue in the church comes to life, and a hidden choir carols of the coming of the Christ child.

The play is directed by Miss Jane Hall, assisted by Rev. Donald Dod, George Surdam, Ray Barlow and Mrs. E. H. Hall.

The Baptist chapel at Eleventh Avenue west and Chambers street is having a Christmas program given by the Sunday school Friday at 7:30 p.m. The theme will be "And His Name Shall be Called Wonderful." All friends are invited.

On Sunday evening, no service will be held at the chapel, in order that its members may attend services at First Baptist church.

Preschool children of St. Mary's Episcopal church will have their Sunday school Christmas party Friday from 3 to 5 p.m., with parents invited. Santa Claus will be present in person, and refreshments will be served.

At the Salvation Army headquarters, a program will be given Saturday at 7:30 p.m., as follows: Hymn, "O Come All Ye Faithful," congregation; prayer, Maj. I. J. Torgerson, local Army officer; hymn, "Hark 'he Herald Angels Sing," congregation; the Christmas story and scriptures, Rev. L. W. Strange of Eugene, retired; hymn, "Joy to the World," Sunday school group; reading, "Have You Heard the Christmas Message?," Dorothy Sullivan; recitation, "On Christmas Eve," George Campbell; solo, "Away in a Manger," Harvey Voss, accompanied by Mrs. William Voss; recitation, "A Merry Christmas to Mother," Jacqueline Gaubert; solo, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," Mrs. Charles LaPort; recitation, "Too Much Excitement," Richard Campbell; accordion solo, Miss Murine McCracken; hymn, "Silent Night," Sunday school group; reading, "Company for Christmas," Mrs. LaPort; hymn, "Jingle Bells," congregation, and appearance of Santa Claus with Christmas treats.

Thursday at Central Presbyterian church, there will be a Sunday school and church party at 7:30 p.m., in the Fellowship hall. Sunday at 11 a.m. the senior choir will present its Christmas concert and at 5 p.m. the junior and high school departments with the junior choir will sing a cantata. Monday at 6:45 a.m. there will be an hour's service of scripture and song.

Assembly of God church will hold its Christmas program Saturday evening, which mainly will be comprised of recitations. The church has not planned an elaborate program this year because of the large building program which it has been carrying on. The regular Christmas sermon will be Sunday.

"Christmas Scenes," a tableau in color and music, will be presented Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the Lighthouse Temple. This will be followed by a Christmas sermon, "Things That Count in Christmas."
