Junction Church Events Numerous

JUNCTION CITY—The men of Junction City and Riverview Methodist churches will hold their third meeting in the Junction parlors Monday evening, Jan. 8. Feature of the meeting will be a debate between members of the group. Those participating include Alvin Baetz, Chris Wilde, Don Dunn, Henry Carlsen, Wilbur Reetz, and Virgil Kenyon. Refreshments are in charge of J. C. Jager, who is vice president of the group. The program is arranged by C. A. Pitney, program chairman. All interested men are invited to attend this meeting. It begins at 8 o'clock.

Members and friends of the Methodist youth fellowship gathered at the parsonage New Year's eve to meet the new year with both a party and worship. The early part of the evening was spent in lively games led by Gerald Edwards. Prizes were awarded to the most alert participants.

At 11 p. m. Wilma Lyon was the leader for a worship service, the climax of which was Holy Communion served to the youth by Carl B. Mason, pastor. The meeting closed with a fellowship circle.

Attending the function were the following: Melvin and Don Carlson, Lee and Elvin Zumwalt, Marge and June Kelso, Wilson and Wanda Stigleman, Wilmer, Wilma, and Brandon Elaine Lyon, Ruth and Dorothy Dieckhoff, Doris Bond, Bernard Jensen, Pat Hileman, Christine Domashofsky, Bill Hansen, Jr., Jim Copely, Gerald Edwards, Sylvia Wilde, Bill Ayres, Kathy Dobson, Don Barto, Mr. and Mrs. James Pitney, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mason, counselors.

Cub pack 305 of Junction City held its January potluck in the grade school cafeteria Wednesday, Jan. 3. During the dinner pep songs were led by Den Chiefs Bill Hansen, Jr., and Jack Wheeler. Fifty-five cubs and cubbers attended.

Cub achievements were displayed on a table set in the horseshoe of dinner tables. The program was brief but revealed good preparation by the boys and their den mothers. Den 2, under the leadership of Den Chief Hansen gave an exhibition of pantomime, thereby passing their tests in that achievement group. The wolves of den 1 sang and gave a yell, after which William Kennedy played a piano solo.

After a game in which the whole pack participated, it was announced by Cubmaster Mason that the February meeting would feature a basketball game between the boys of three dens and their respective dads. The following captains for the dads were appointed: Wolves, Dr. Pollard; Bears, Haven Potterf, and Lions, Dennis Lynch.

The Rebekah degree team will have a regular practice following the lodge meeting Thursday, Jan. 11. They will initiate on Jan. 25.
