ht Officers For ice Force Named

TTAGE GROVE—Dr. H. A. n, mayor of Cottage Grove, announced the appointment o new night officers for the police force. These two men H. L. Foust of Goshen and Northway of Cottage Grove, will assume their duties as as possible. The city council iously had selected Guy h as chief of police.

regular monthly meeting was by the Presbyterian Ladies society on Wednesday after- in the church parlors. Devo- were in charge of Mrs. Roy t. At the tea hour, refresh- s were served by Mrs. Georg et, Mrs. S. L. Godard, and Eva Hatch.

rs. Fred Anderson entertained Mercredi Pont club at her on Wednesday evening. Arlene Anderson was a The club will meet at the of Mrs. Earl Ballew on Jan- 24 for the next meeting.

uet Honors Choir

e choir of the Church of st and director, Mrs. Herbert n, were honored by a banquet ored by Rev. L. P. Nebelung e church on Wednesday eve- Mrs. John Van Nortwick toastmistress during the eve- and gave a talk of apprecia- to the honored guests. A re- se was given by Mrs. Moon. George Hardy sang a solo, mpanied by Mrs. Moon. A ing was presented by Mrs. Read Hemenway. Guests for occasion were Rev. and Mrs. rge Hardy, Marvin Harpole, est Wheeler, Helen Huff, le Huff, June Eastburn, Lu- Eastburn, Neva Shaw, Dixie nnell, Helen Smith, Patty rey, Jean Hosman, Ethel Mae n, Mary Decker, Eileen Har- Lorene Miller, Shirley hes, Elva Thies, Walta Cook, nie Gleason; Mrs. Herbert , the director; Mrs. John Van wick, Mrs. Ora Read Hemen- Those who assisted with the uet were Mrs. Joe Gleason, Sam Eastburn, Mrs. Arley uson, Mrs. R. E. Anderson, Marvin Harpole, Mrs. Ernest eeler.

t a recent meeting of the nsend club, W. E. Masters ided during theb usiness ses- Tom Short, outgoing presi- t, installed Mrs. Ethel Apple- ite, chairman on membership; M. Boyd, finance; O. E. Erwin, lic relations; Elmer J. Kent, licity. Mrs. Roy Ewing and k Hazen presented a program readings, and musical numbers. oup singing was also enjoyed. freshments were served at the e of the program. Members ed to celebrate Dr. Townsend's hday anniversary on Jan. 15, h special musical numbers and freshments.

Rev. Frank E. Brown, minister the Cottage Grove Methodist urch, announces as his topic for e Sunday morning service, "The t Place to Work for Christ." s Sara Biorset and Miss Joyce rk will sing a vocal duet.

Word has been received that Dr. d Mrs. Perry O. Hanson will be sent at the 5 o'clock vesper vice. Special accordion and cal music will be featured.

T MARCOLA

MARCOLA — Mrs. Doris Shew s returned from San Diego, lif., where she spent more than month with her husband, Lloyd ew, who is in the navy and is San Diego. While there Mrs. ew visited her brother, Thomas cCormack, and wife; Mr. and rs. Chet Lunceford, Dorothy mon, and Richard Mix, all rmer residents of this com- unity.

The grade school girls' volley- all team played a practice game th the high school girls Tues- ay evening at the high school. he score was 41 to 8 in favor of e high school girls.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Nielsen vis- ed his mother at Holton during e holiday vacation and also ith relatives and friends in ortland.

LKTON ITEMS

ELKTON—The recent ball game etween Elkton and Drain at rain resulted in wins for both lkton teams. Elkton's undefeat- d girls' volleyball team won with score of 28-19. The boys won heir game with a score of 28-26. he next game will be with Cam- a Valley, at the local gymnasium.

A volunteer committee of Ma- ons and Odd Fellows recently epaired the lower floor of the dge hall. Plans have been made o redecorate the rooms.

Royal and Loyal Bossen, who ave been visiting at the Carl inder home, have returned to heir stations at Sacramento, Calif., and Denver, Colo.

The local postoffice reports a otal of $20,800 bonds sold during he recent drive.

C. C. Jenson of Marshfield is doing carpentering at the Nor- wood Miller home.

Major Nelson Levi and bride, the former Val Schonsberg, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Randall. Major Levi, who holds the purple heart, is on fur- lough from overseas duty, and will return to combat duty soon. Mrs. Levi plans to remain here.

Private James Gates, Camp Roberts, Calif., is visiting his wife and mother, Mrs. Edith Gates.

The young adults of the Meth- odist church will hold their next meeting Monday evening, Jan. 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill.

Richard Otto, third petty offi- cer, who has finished training at the air school at Miami, Fla., re- cently spent a furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Otto. He has now report- ed for duty at San Diego.

A well-driller is at work at the high school grounds this week.

Work fast when making pastry. Too much handling is not good for pie crusts.

Committees For Grange Are Listed

SPENCER CREEK—The grange held its regular meeting the past week with the new officers in charge. Officers for the year are: Master, W. H. McBeth; overseer, Fred Knox; lecturer, Ruth Defoe; chaplain, Irene Albro; secretary, Ruth Schnorenberg; treasurer, Andrew Erickson; steward, Herman Erickson; assistant steward, Henry Schnorenberg; lady assistant, Gertrude Albro; gatekeeper, Dan Trupp; executive committee, William Schnorenberg, Ross Defoe, Harold Svarverud; musician, Dale Rumford.

Reports were given by the various committees. The master appointed the following committees for the new year: Agriculture, Harold Svarverud; legislative, Henry Schnorenberg, Fred Knox, William Schnorenberg, Andrew Erickson, Wendell Gross; finance, William Johnson, Haldor Torkelson, Ross Defoe; business-insurance agent, Martin Tengs; home economics, Agnes Johnson, Irene Albro, Gertrude Albro; sales slips, Ida Schnorenberg; relief, Johanna Torkelson, Nina McBeth, Clara Erickson.

The lecture hour was spent in group singing and drill practice. Sgt. J. N. Whittington also spoke a few words. Sgt. Whittington who is with the first tank battalion was home on a furlough after three years overseas.

The home economics club will meet at the home of Rachel Schnorenberg on Jan. 17. The refreshments committee for the next grange meeting, Jan. 19, is Irene and Gertrude Albro, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Svarverud.

At Harrisburg

HARRISBURG — The Christian church and the Methodist church held a potluck dinner at the city hall Monday evening. Those on the various committees for this dinner were: Mrs. C. M. Stone, Mrs. John Owens, Mrs. I. D. Yerian, Mrs. Ina Kirschman, Mrs. Tom Lowell, Mrs. A. L. Darling, Mrs. Merrill Rush, Mrs. Frank Lynch, Mrs. Roy Roland. Rev. William Siefke was the master of ceremonies. Mrs. Laura Spurlin and Mrs. Mildred Smith had charge of the games.

A surprise party was given for Ben Bowers on his 17th birthday recently. After a birthday supper at the J. C. Clay home, the group went to the show at Junction City. Those present were: Juanita Roland, Ruth Jensen, Bertie Tweedt, Madeline Clay, George Lynch, Cedric Brock, Donald Darling, Lester Griswald, Mrs. Cleona Hill, the guest of honor, Ben Bowers, and the hostess, Henrietta Clay.

The W.C.T.U. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. D. Yerian. The purpose of the W.C.T.U. was read. A sum of $41.00 was turned over to the treasurer at this meeting, part of which had been taken in a collection at the union service. The date of the meeting has been changed from the first Friday of the month to the second Friday of the month. The new officers took over their duties at this meeting. Refreshments were served.

Harold Darling has left for Portland after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Darling.

Auxiliary Meets

The Ladies auxiliary met last week at the city hall. The meeting was called to order by the new president, Mrs. Ada George. Mrs. J. C. Clay was appointed for the publicity committee. Mrs. M. Jensen has been appointed to have charge of the Red Cross work. Mrs. Rilla Owen has been appointed to visit the sick. New Girl Scout committees have been appointed. They are as follows: Senior scouts—Amber Jacobs, Irene Quinn, and Elfa Moore; intermediate scouts; Beulah Rush, Ann Roner, and Cecilia Stone; Brownie scouts, Nellie Vannice, Ouida Skirvin, and Ina Kirchman. The serving committee for February has been appointed, including Gladys Clay, Elaine Brown, and Verl Burkhart.

The men of the Christian church met at the E. W. Blehm home for a potluck dinner, on Sunday. They discussed plans for the evangilistic meeting which will begin Jan. 28. They also talked about some remodling to be done at the church. The women met at the Magic Cupboard.

The Mennonite quartet sang Sunday morning at the Christian church.

The Methodist and Christian churches held a joint prayer meeting before regular church on Sunday evening. This meeting was held at the Christian church and conducted by Mrs. John Owen and members of the W.T.C.U.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Emma Ingram for dinner Sunday were: Mrs. Emma Ingram, Mrs. Clarence Ingram and sons, Ronnie and Larry from Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Sietz, and daughter, Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Sietz and grandson, Keith, from Corvallis, Mrs. Frona Burright, of Harrisburg, and the guest of honor Mrs. John E. Palmer of Whittier, Calif. and the hostess, Mrs. Emma Ingram.

The young people of the First Church of God met recently and organized a young people's society to be called "Christian Crusaders." Officers were elected as President, Ethel Jayner; vice-president, George Bewley; secretary-treasurer, Rayma Sells; young peoples adviser, Mrs. Hazel Bewley; adult adviser, Chris Martig. A special invitation is extended to every young person in the community to attend these services.

Volunteer Fire Group Holds Annual Meeting

CRESWELL. — At the annual meeting of the Creswell volunteer fire department Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the new year: president, Carlisle Scarbrough, re-elected; vice-president, F. A. Everson; secretary-treasurer, J. O. Mortensen; chief, C. C. Hollemon, re-elected; assistant, V. W. Johnston, re-elected. Twenty-four calls were reported made during the year and donations toward the upkeep of equipment were made by several who had been served by members of the company. Following the meeting a duck dinner with all the trimmings was served by Mrs. Guy Calhoun in appreciation for services rendered at a fire at her place several miles west of town. The dinner was served at the E. O. Smith home and Mrs. Calhoun was assisted by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. W. L. Scott. Sixteen members were present, this being the total number in the department since so many have been called in to service. The attendance for the whole year at meetings averaged twelve.

Parents Meeting

The regular meeting of the Parents club of the high school will be held Thursday, Jan. 18 at the school building beginning at 1 p. m. Members will visit the various classes and will be served by members of the Home Economics class.

Arthur Harmoff of Grants Pass recently visited at the home of his niece, Mrs. C. L. Ellis, and family.

Erdine Jones, Nadine Jones and Nelda Syphers attended a special meeting of Stewart's junior roping and riding school at Springfield Monday evening. Several leaders were chosen at the meeting.

Staff Sergeant David Casper is home on leave from Farragut, Idaho, to care for his mother who is ill and who recently suffered a fall.

Mass Saturday

OAKRIDGE—A requiem mass for Stephen Palanuk, son of Alex Palanuk of Oakridge, will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. at St. Michael's Catholic church, Oakridge. Corporal Palanuk, 26, was killed in action Nov. 30 on Leyte, P. I. The funeral mass will be said by Father Louis Sohler of Cottage Grove. Music will be furnished by St. Mary's high school choir of Eugene.

Corporal Palanuk was born at Gorham, N. D., and lived there until his family moved to Oregon in 1937, settling at Oakridge. He entered the service in May, 1942 and had been overseas since February, 1943.

Three brothers and a sister also are in service: PFC Emil Palanuk, a prisoner in the Philippines; Cpl. John Palanuk, now in France, and Walter Palanuk, on Saipan; PFC Nellie Palanuk, in the marine corps. In addition to these four, four other brothers and a sister survive besides his father. They are George Palanuk of Roseburg, Paul, Adam and Joe Palanuk and Mrs. George Pokorny, all of Oakridge.

At Florence

FLORENCE. — The Townsend club gave a party honoring the anniversary of its founder, Dr. Frank Townsend, when it met recently. On the program giving readings were Mrs. Nora Brown Ed Peterson, Mrs. Carrie Prescott, Percy Peel, Mrs. Olive Lund, Mr. Ward, and Mrs. Edna Peterson. Several group songs were sung. Supper was served to a large attendance, with many being new members.

Siuslaw high school students are going to do something substantial toward securing a heating plant and sealing for the gymnasium-auditorium. Starting to work during free time this week are boys, 15 years of age and older, who will plant trees for the Siltcoos division of the Crown Zellerbach corporation in its reforestation project. Money earned on school days will go to the student body to be used for buying heating equipment.

Miss Zula Kickbusch, county health nurse, was here several days this week working at the schools of western Lane.

Four prominent members of the Reedsport-Gardiner Lions club were here this week interviewing prospective members and inviting them to attend their dinner planned for Tuesday night at Hotel Florence. It is hoped to organize a local Lions club in the very near future.

Darwin Woodworth, who has been serving with the famed 41st infantry division in the far Pacific for the past 33 months, spent several days this week visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Linnie Grimshaw, and with other local relatives.

Sam Hoage and Remus Herring have gone to Portland on business.

I. J. Rossman reports the sale of the Henry and Edna Riesenbuber residence property consisting of 20 lots to Homer S. and Eva Wood of Independence, who have taken possession.

Mrs. Emma Allen has returned from visiting at Long Beach, Riveride, and Pittsburg, Cal., the past three months. Visiting her recently were her son, Robert, son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harris of Depoe Bay, and grandson, Clifford Harris, Jr., a coxswain in the navy, home after 18 months service in the south Pacific.

JASPER GRANGE MEETS

JASPER.—Jasper grange met in regular session Tuesday. Regular committee reports were given by the legislative and agricultural committee. Grace Jones reported for the home economics club, reporting that serving at the next meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Jones, and Mrs. Gertrude Humphrey. Doris Wheeler made the Y. G. A. report, saying that the last meeting had been held at the home of Mrs. Rachel Chase. The chaplain announced that Sunday, Jan. 21, would be the annual grange church Sunday. After the meeting a program was presented by the Y. G. A.

Elmira Grangers Back Road Project

ELMIRA—Elmira grange met the past week, and there were about 80 members present. Several members gave discussions on the building and maintaining better roads. A project for post-war work they hope to see done is building of better roads, which will give employment to returning veterans and save tires, the reports said.

A committee on roads was appointed, which includes Myron Blackwell, John Schollie and Mr. Larson. Mr. Ainsworth gave a talk on getting a Red Cross first aid station at Elmira. A committee was appointed to see about the matter: Ethel M. Parker, William Ainsworth and Lillian Peterson.

The following standing committees were appointed: agriculture, Darwin Hale, Frank Diedon, Roy Christian, Leo Parker, I. M. Inman and Walter Whiting; legislative, Cecil Emory, Urban Touy, Carl Peterson, Martin Nelson, Ben Krells and LeRoy Scott; sales slips, Frank Diedon, Grant Buehler, Harry Doney, Gladys Edmiston, Grace Martin; reception, Ethel M. Parker, Oliver Shields, Bell Deedon, Al Martin and Reva Kayser; relief, Etta Baker, Grace Whiting, Francis Taylor, Rosa Worthen and Lloyd Bangs; finance, Austin Christopher, Doug Reed, Carl Edminston; resolutions, Myron Blackwell, William Ainsworth, Metta Blanchard; home economics, Bessie Christopher; reporter, Ethel M. Parker; executive, Frank Darwin Hale, and Walter Whiting.

Each family represented was asked to donate $5 for the dining room fund. The committee on material gave its report. The building fund committee includes Frank Deedon, Walter Whiting and Darwin Hale. The next supper committee is Mr. and Mrs. Urbin Touey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams.

Frank Deedon gave a talk on saving and preparing fruit buds for grafting. He also gave a talk on victory gardening, urging more people to prepare garden ground now in preparation for more and better victory gardens.

Mrs. Helen Parke, lecturer, presented a musical program and some grange reports; also a get-acquainted march.

4-H Club Leader Visits At Veneta

VENETA. — E. A. Danielson, county club leader, accompanied by Mrs. Danielson and Mary Olive Snarr, state assistant 4-H club leader, met with the 4-H club leaders of Veneta on Wednesday. The meeting was held in the eighth grade room and was attended by Mrs. Glidewell, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Standeford, Mrs. Stedman, and Mr. Craighill. After the meeting with the leaders, a meeting was held with all the children in attendance. Mrs. Snarr showed sample of club work and Mr. Danielson passed out 4-H club achievement certificates and pins to the following: First year—Robert Craighill, Ann Eppler, Alvin Craighill, Elijah Matthews and Dick Nicols; second year—Harry Spangler, Joan Smith, Larry Hanson, Edward Hanson, Mary Ella Conrad, and Betty Bowman; third year, Mary Stults; fourth year—June Smith, Maralyn Keeler, Audrey Johnson, Clarence Hanson and Billy George; fifth year—Courtland Fawven, Gladys Land. Mrs. Hanson received a one-year leader's pin.

A group of girls and boys gathered at the Standeford home Saturday afternoon for a surprise birthday party in honor of Anna Mae Standeford. The afternoon was spent playing games after which refreshments were served to the following: Muriel Adams, Eva Mae Settles, Rosa Lee Standeford, Maxine Jennings, Lavada Smith, Doris Ann Folsom, Blodwin Settles, Helen Fields, Maxine McCart, Leila Doolin, Pearl Fields, Patty Hockley, Gordon Stults, Lester Standeford, Dale Doolin, Norman Hockley, Mrs. Standeford and Carmen and the honor guest, Anna Mae Standeford.

The Pollyanna club met for all day at the home of Mrs. Buelah Woods, recently, with luncheon served at noon by the hostess. The occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Woods and she received a birthday cake and gift from her "Pollyanna."

Mr. and Mrs. Huselton and sons, Jack and Jim, from Grand Junction, Iowa, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hunter.

WILLAGELLISPIE ITEMS

WILLAGILLESPIE. — Charles Bolerjack returned home Saturday from the hospital, where he has been two weeks, resulting from a fall from a house he was working on.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Stogsdale moved to Corvallis where Mr. Stogsdal will be employed.

Miss Shirley Hammock returned home from Portland and Yachats Tuesday where she spent a week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knoles returned home recently from Fredonia, Kansas, where they visited with Mr. Knoles' parents. They also visited relatives at Witchita, Kansas, and Ponca City, Okla. They were gone three weeks.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

SERVICES SET

MONROE—Schedule of services at the Monroe and Alpine Methodist Community churches next Sunday, as announced by Rev. J. A. Roork, pastor, is as follows: Sunday school at both churches at 10 a.m.; preaching at Alpine at 11 a.m., and at Monroe at 8 p.m., topic "For Whom Shall We Pray," 1 Sam. 12:23. There will be Youth Fellowship at both churches in the early evening. The week of Jan. 7 to 14 is universal week of prayer. All Christians are asked to spend time in private and corporate prayer.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Roork spent Monday of this week at Springfield at a meeting of the south Salem district Parsonage club. The club was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Elsworth Tilton of the Springfield Methodist church.

Mrs. D. J. Smith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Roork, spent the week-end at Monroe and Eugene. W. A. Smith, father of Lt. Donald I. Smith, also Mrs. Harold Smith of Portland, accompanied Mrs. Smith on the trip. Mrs. Darrel Abercombe of Eugene returned to Monroe with Mrs. Smith and later went on to Portland for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Reiling and children, Betty, Marvin, and Richard, of this community, were guests recently at the home of Mrs. Reiling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Winkleman, near Cottage Grove.

Anton Gerold took over as driver of the Sunny Brook dairy milk truck, Monroe route, when Freddy Peters, former driver, left to join the armed forces. Anton will keep the job until his father returns home here. Mr. Gerold is in San Diego at this time for his health.

Mrs. George Horning has returned to Portland to resume her work. She is an employe of the Federal Reserve bank there. Mrs. Horning is the former Miss Eleanor Bailey of this community. Her husband, in training with the navy, has returned to school at Newport, R. I.