

CITY NEWS NOTES -

AT'S DOING—
 10 a.m.—Services in local churches.
 10 p.m.—Concert of Joseph S. Civic Music association, Mc-Court.
 10 p.m.—Services in local churches.
 10 p.m.—Kiwanis club meeting, Osburn hotel.
 County Clerk Walter B. Dillard and County Commissioner Allen P. were at Salem Friday afternoon in the interest of legislation pertaining to certain changes in election laws.
 Mrs. Millican of the Waltherville were Eugene visitors Friday.
 Mr. Charles V. Johnson has returned from Hayward, Calif., where he has been employed. Her husband, S. C. in the navy, was shipped out a few days before Christmas. She is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walther, 961 Almaden street.
 The county court has received petition for the construction of new road about a mile long on south side of Row river, leading from the bridge near Culp creek down stream.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farley of Eugene were in Eugene Saturday afternoon transacting business at the office of the county-owned land department at the courthouse.
 A 17-year-old youth living at 11 Springfield pleaded guilty

Orange Blossom

Lovely rings, matched to each other and to your personality. Their styling and craftsmanship are superb. Let us explain their superiority to you.

★ Budget terms at no extra cost.
 ★ S.&H. Green Stamps on cash purchases, fair trade items excepted.

SKEL'S Jewelry Store 927 Willamette Phone 411

Did he whistle at me?

Joan Miller JUNIORS

$9.95

You can let your best boss be JOAN MILLER JUNIORS

superb and skin of DUPLEX WHIPPET CLOTH (TBL finish).

The crazy skirt has three box pleats fore 'n' aft.

the skin beautifully man tailored. In yummy pastel.

Blue, Yellow, Pink, Pine, Cashmere White.

The BROADWAY
 wearing apparel—dry goods
 20 AND 30 EAST BROADWAY

visiting the sessions of the state legislature and from there went to Portland to attend an executive meeting of the state grange.
 Floyd E. Kelsay was here from his home in the Lowell area Friday.
 Here from his farm on the Crow stage route Friday was W. C. Whiting. He was at the courthouse on business.
 Frank M. Peebles was in the city Friday from his home in the Goshen area.
 Mrs. Stella Tilton of Dexter was a Eugene visitor Friday.
 Fred Hesel was in Eugene Friday from his farm on Junction City RFD 2.
 Mrs. Irene F. Blomquist of Walton was a Eugene visitor Friday.
 Donald Northey, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor boy, waived grand jury action and was arraigned before Judge G. F. Skipworth in circuit court Saturday. He will enter his plea Monday at 11 a.m.
 Lane county Saturday received from the state liquor commission $192.04 as its share of the quarterly distribution of liquor license fees.
 Miss Ruth Winchell, teacher in Lincoln high school, Portland, is here to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. Alan Wickham over the week-end.
 J. M. Bardwell of Springfield RFD 1 was a Eugene visitor Saturday.
 Here from Junction City RFD 1 Saturday was E. R. Dennison.
 Loney Johnson of the Alvadore community was in the city Saturday.
 Charles I. Zabriskie, A. J. McManus and Mrs. Glenn McKay of Eugene RFD 1; Leon A. Smith, Mattie L. Platt, and Charles K. Cornelius of Eugene RFD 2; Harold C. Svarverud and Daniel Becker of Eugene RFD 3 were at the courthouse Friday on tax business.
 Floyd Mouser of Springfield RFD 1 and Mrs. Elvin Stephens, Ray C. Baugh and Roe Chester Stephens of Springfield RFD 2 were in the city Saturday on business at the courthouse.
 Ira A. Vance of Creswell was a business visitor in Eugene Friday.
 A typewriter is needed badly for increased work at the Lane county chapter, American Red Cross, reports Mrs. Cora Pirtle, executive secretary. The office either would like to borrow one to keep up on the needed work, or would pay the ceiling price for one. Any one having a standard typewriter, either to donate for borrowed service or sell at ceiling price, is asked to call the Red Cross office, 63.
 Lt. Raymond E. Shumway and wife and daughter, who visited in Eugene at the holiday season, have arrived back in Kingman, Ariz. They were guests here of the officers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Shumway of Springfield, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom N. Shumway, in Eugene. Previously they had visited in Wheeler and Portland, enroute to Lane county.
 Frank Semon of Akron, Ohio, is visiting in Eugene with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodhouse, Osburn apartments.
 Mrs. M. E. Johnston and Mrs. Georgiana Dobbs, in partnership, have opened a health food center in the public market, and will handle special products such as soy-bean foods, veggiebeaks and other Loma Linda and Dr. Miller foods.
 Mrs. Robert Graham of Cottage Grove was a business visitor in Eugene, Saturday.
 Mrs. James H. Goodhue, Jr., Los Angeles, arrived the past week for a two weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. Donald Young.

Records
BUILDING PERMITS
 Alter office, 123 12th Avenue east, Manard Bros., 473.
MARRIAGE LICENSES
 John A. Plummer, Jr. of Eugene and Virginia Ann Tripp of Minneapolis, Minn.
 Eugene Fisher of Springfield and Evelyn Lois Imbach of Eugene.
 Nelson J. Samsel of Los Angeles and Jean Alice Carlin of Salem.
BUSINESS NAME
 Certificate of assumed business name, Plymouth Lunch, located at Springfield, has been filed by Victor P. Stowell and Clara Stowell.
BOUNTY
 Bounty has been collected by Robert Millican, Springfield RFD 2, on seven coyotes and two bobcats.
CIRCUIT COURT
 Vergie Rasmus is plaintiff in a suit against Albert Rasmus, seeking a divorce on the ground of desertion.
 David Joe Vadnais is plaintiff in a divorce action against Lena Vadnais, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment.
 Elaine Miller has filed divorce proceedings against Harold Miller, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. She seeks the restoration of her former name, Elaine Holmes.
 The city of Eugene is plaintiff in a suit against P. C. Stratton and others seeking to quiet title certain property.
PROBATE COURT
 Order of final settlement and discharge of administrator in the estate of Lloyd Hecathorn, deceased, has been filed.
 Geraldine Marx has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Johnnie Thomsen, deceased. V. M. Cameron, Rogers W. Kimberling and L. J. Temple are co-sponsors.
 Property of the estate of Jay Richard Butler, deceased, has been appraised at $1000 by Ray S. McInnis, D. B. McFadden and Irma Wingard.
WITNESS
 LUEDEMAN—At Sacred Heart general hospital, Friday, Jan. 12, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Luedeman, 293 Cherry Grove, Eugene, a son.
 TRASK—At Sacred Heart general hospital, Friday, Jan. 12, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Trask, Crow stage route, a daughter.
 BERGSTROM—At Sacred Heart general hospital, Friday, Jan. 12, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bergstrom, route 2, Springfield, a daughter.
 FREDRICKS—At the Walker clinic, Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. John Fredricks, route 3, Eugene, a daughter.
 JARVIS—At the Walker clinic, Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jarvis, 901 Twelfth Avenue west, a daughter.

CLOTHES HAMPERS

Regular . . . $7.95
 Special . . . $5.95

Garrett Appliance Co.
 Miner Bldg. Phone 2706

START THE YEAR RIGHT

READ A GOOD BOOK.
 Come in and obtain the outstanding books of the year. Keep up with the world of books.

OREGON BOOK EXCHANGE
 MINER BUILDING PHONE 2706

SENSATIONAL SALE of Wallpaper
 135 ATTRACTIVE PATTERNS

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES for QUICK CLEARANCE of Present Stock All Sales Final

Come In—See These Bargains

Brighter Homes
 858 Pearl Phone 1237

1550 1/2 Olive street. Mrs. Arvel A. Simola of Portland, sister-in-law of Mrs. Young, is here for the week-end to visit with her niece while visiting here.
 Lane County Market Milk Producers association Saturday received Eugene city licenses for 55 milk producers, according to records in city recorder's office.
 W. R. Faris, immediate past commander of the veterans' council at Grants Pass, underwent a surgery at Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene Thursday. He is reported to be getting along satisfactorily.
 Charles W. King, charged with raising a disturbance on a Southern Pacific train, pleaded guilty in Justice Howard M. Brownella court Saturday and was given a ten days' suspended sentence upon recommendation of T. W. Turel, S. P. officer, who made the arrest.
 Mrs. George H. Place of Fall Creek was a Eugene visitor Saturday.
 Stanley Ziolkowski and L. R. Currant of Springfield RFD 2 were in Eugene on business Saturday.
 Logan Bear was in Eugene Saturday from his home at Creswell.
 Among the visitors in Eugene Friday were H. S. Lower of Creswell, R. W. Hill of Saginaw, Jeff Pettit of Fall Creek, W. D. Bostick of Diston route, Cottage Grove, and S. A. Rhinevault of Springfield.
 Mrs. James Hollenbeck and daughter, Mary, have returned from a visit of three months with Mrs. Hollenbeck's husband, who was stationed at Camp Bowie, Brownwood, Tex. They are staying with Mrs. Hollenbeck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Welter, 981 Almaden street.
 A son, Gary Dean, was born in Portland Jan. 12 to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hildebrand, Jr. Mrs. Hildebrand was Elaine Lee, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Liddell.
 Dr. J. E. Richmond left Saturday evening for Seattle to attend a meeting of the Pacific Coast Orthodontia society. He will return on Wednesday.
 For the Kiwanis club meeting, Monday noon, Osburn hotel, Dr. E. D. Furrer will be guest speaker, his topic to be "Why the Pasteurization of Milk." W. P. Riddlesbarger has arranged the program. R. E. Lafferty is announced as the new director of the club, named to fill the vacancy left when Harry L. Chase resigned after being elected vice-president of the club. Presentation of a third place award in the better farming contest among Future Farmers of America, a project sponsored by Kiwanis clubs throughout the state, will be presented Monday. Joe Flynn being the recipient. He is now in the navy, the prize to be presented in absentia. Wendell Gross, instructor in vocational agriculture at Eugene high school and adviser to the FFA chapter there, will be at the meeting to award the prize.
 Miss Nancy Chipman, Portland, who is state head of the program for the mobile blood unit working out of the Portland blood center, will be here Monday to consult with local Red Cross officials regarding the schedule of the unit to Eugene. Next visitation of the mobile unit here will be Jan. 29, then, starting in February, the unit will come regularly on the second Monday morning of each month. Miss Chipman will confer with Mrs. Maylon E. Scott, chairman of the local blood committee of the Red Cross; Mrs. Cora Pirtle, executive Red Cross secretary here, and others.
 The Eugene Obidians club announces a social and program for next Thursday evening, Jan. 18, home of Mrs. May Cherry, 503 Pearl street. Mrs. Davis Campbell is to talk on her experiences in China. The meeting will be at 8 o'clock.
 The meeting scheduled for next Friday morning, Jan. 19, for the purpose of discussing planning and responsibilities of various organizations in times of natural disasters, has been canceled. It was announced from the local office of the Red Cross, Saturday. The similar meetings nearby, officials were called off because of fearing there would be too much confusion.

John Stewart McKay
 DORENA—John Stewart McKay, 85, of Dorena died Friday at the home of Jack Lemon near Dorena. He was a native of Tennessee, born at Parrottsville, Tenn., Feb. 17, 1859. He was married to Emma P. Davis at Wilbur, Ore. She died in 1908. In 1914 at Springfield he was married to Rosetta Haynes Harbit, who died four years ago.
 Before coming to Dorena four years ago, Mr. McKay had lived in Springfield, and previously at Salem and Wilbur. He was a member of the Baptist church.
 Surviving him are the following: sons and daughters, Mrs. Grace Blosser, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Alice Delemeter, Los Angeles; Mrs. Ona Petersdorf, Wendling; Mrs. Ruth Smith, Wilbur; John L. McKay, U. S. army; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Stella Lemon, Dorena; 12 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; two brothers, Robert McKay of Winlock, Wash.; David McKay, Wilbur.
 Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Wilbur Methodist church, the Mills mortuary of Cottage Grove in charge; interment in Wilbur cemetery.

START THE YEAR RIGHT

READ A GOOD BOOK.
 Come in and obtain the outstanding books of the year. Keep up with the world of books.

OREGON BOOK EXCHANGE
 MINER BUILDING PHONE 2706

SENSATIONAL SALE of Wallpaper
 135 ATTRACTIVE PATTERNS

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES for QUICK CLEARANCE of Present Stock All Sales Final

Come In—See These Bargains

Brighter Homes
 858 Pearl Phone 1237

SPRINGFIELD
STUDENTS TO GIVE PLAY
 SPRINGFIELD—Saturday evening will see the curtain raising on "Footloose," a play of Charles Q. Burdette produced by students of the Springfield high school, in the high school auditorium.
 The leads will be taken by Darrel Spores and Pauline Duggins, and the direction of the play is done by Miss Jeanette Jack.
FIRE DRILL TUESDAY
 SPRINGFIELD—A city fire drill meeting will be held in the city hall Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.
FINES
 SPRINGFIELD—Fines have been assessed in the recorder's court against R. D. Hollingsworth, $10, basic rule; and Harrison J. Thompson, $1, parking on sidewalk.
REGULAR CASCADE MEETING
 SPRINGFIELD—Cascade chapter, OES, will meet Tuesday for a regular meeting preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30, in the Masonic temple.
 Visiting members of the order and members new to the community are cordially invited to attend.
RE-ELECT OFFICERS
 SPRINGFIELD—At a meeting this week of circle 4, WSCS, members re-elected Mrs. Ethel Carson as president of the group. The remaining members of the cabinet of last term were also re-elected.
 Plans were made by the circle to serve luncheon at the next WS CS meeting in February.
NEEDLECRAFT CLUB
 SPRINGFIELD—The Needlecraft club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. L. Cooper, 656 D street, Mrs. W. N. Long will assist the hostess.
TO HAVE POTLUCK
 SPRINGFIELD—Members of the Arkansas club will meet Tuesday at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Bridges, 438 E street.
MISSION SOCIETY
 SPRINGFIELD—A meeting of the mission society of the Baptist church has been scheduled for Tuesday in the Sunday school annex. Mrs. Mel Rice will be the program leader, with the topic of "Baptist Preparing for Peace."
ORGANIZE BIBLE STUDY
 SPRINGFIELD—A Bible course will be organized this week as the mid-week service of the Methodist church in Springfield Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Study will be started on the Old Testament.
RETURNS TO HOME
 SPRINGFIELD—Mrs. Lily Wetters returned this week from Klamath Falls where she has spent the holidays visiting her daughter Mrs. William Burch.
INJURED IMPROVING
 SPRINGFIELD—Hubert Hill of Springfield, employee of the Arnold Powell Logging company who entered Sacred Heart hospital during the past week for treatment

Garden Club Sets Meeting On Tuesday
 The Eugene Garden club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the clubhouse Tuesday, Jan. 16, at 8 o'clock. Two speakers will be presented on the program. Gordon A. Clark, whose hobby is growing rare trees and shrubs in his yard, will talk to the club on native and rare trees and shrubs. Dr. W. M. Swangaard, local veterinarian and owner of the Small Animal hospital, will be the second speaker. He will discuss pets in the garden.
 An item of special interest, also, will be a complete report on the Christmas bazaar.
 The nature study group will meet at the clubhouse on the evening of Jan. 24, for its regular meeting, at which time several movies on native birds, trees, and flowers will be shown.

START THE YEAR RIGHT

READ A GOOD BOOK.
 Come in and obtain the outstanding books of the year. Keep up with the world of books.

OREGON BOOK EXCHANGE
 MINER BUILDING PHONE 2706

SENSATIONAL SALE of Wallpaper
 135 ATTRACTIVE PATTERNS

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES for QUICK CLEARANCE of Present Stock All Sales Final

Come In—See These Bargains

Brighter Homes
 858 Pearl Phone 1237

SPRINGFIELD

STUDENTS TO GIVE PLAY

SPRINGFIELD—Saturday evening will see the curtain raising on "Footloose," a play of Charles Q. Burdette produced by students of the Springfield high school, in the high school auditorium.

The leads will be taken by Darrel Spores and Pauline Duggins, and the direction of the play is done by Miss Jeanette Jack.

FIRE DRILL TUESDAY

SPRINGFIELD—A city fire drill meeting will be held in the city hall Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

FINES

SPRINGFIELD—Fines have been assessed in the recorder's court against R. D. Hollingsworth, $10, basic rule; and Harrison J. Thompson, $1, parking on sidewalk.

REGULAR CASCADE MEETING

SPRINGFIELD—Cascade chapter, OES, will meet Tuesday for a regular meeting preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30, in the Masonic temple.

Visiting members of the order and members new to the community are cordially invited to attend.

RE-ELECT OFFICERS

SPRINGFIELD—At a meeting this week of circle 4, WSCS, members re-elected Mrs. Ethel Carson as president of the group. The remaining members of the cabinet of last term were also re-elected.

Plans were made by the circle to serve luncheon at the next WS CS meeting in February.

NEEDLECRAFT CLUB

SPRINGFIELD—The Needlecraft club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. L. Cooper, 656 D street, Mrs. W. N. Long will assist the hostess.

TO HAVE POTLUCK

SPRINGFIELD—Members of the Arkansas club will meet Tuesday at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Bridges, 438 E street.

MISSION SOCIETY

SPRINGFIELD—A meeting of the mission society of the Baptist church has been scheduled for Tuesday in the Sunday school annex. Mrs. Mel Rice will be the program leader, with the topic of "Baptist Preparing for Peace."

ORGANIZE BIBLE STUDY

SPRINGFIELD—A Bible course will be organized this week as the mid-week service of the Methodist church in Springfield Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Study will be started on the Old Testament.

RETURNS TO HOME

SPRINGFIELD—Mrs. Lily Wetters returned this week from Klamath Falls where she has spent the holidays visiting her daughter Mrs. William Burch.

INJURED IMPROVING

SPRINGFIELD—Hubert Hill of Springfield, employee of the Arnold Powell Logging company who entered Sacred Heart hospital during the past week for treatment

In Full Bloom

Come in and see our exciting collection of "Together Again" hats... select one to keep your spirits high!

5.00 to 8.75

MILLINERY—SECOND FLOOR

MILLER'S

"IT'S OUR PLEASURE TO SERVE YOU"

Help Build the B-29 SUPERFORTRESS
 (THE BIG NEW BOEING BOMBER)

BOEING REPRESENTATIVE WILL INTERVIEW IN EUGENE JANUARY 15 THROUGH 20

★ Free transportation to Seattle, Washington.
 ★ Men especially needed.
 ★ Physically qualified women also eligible.
 ★ Good pay—Excellent working conditions.
 ★ You will be paid while training.
 ★ Help build America's most needed big bomber.

DON'T DELAY! APPLY AT THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT SERVICE OFFICE OF THE WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION, 1133 WILLAMETTE STREET

"Those now engaged in essential war work need not apply."

BOEING

HELP BUILD FOR VICTORY