

More About Comet 1882—Local Woman Tells Her Observations

By J. HUGH PRUETT

Astronomer, General Extension Division, University of Oregon

The discussion in this column six weeks ago of the great comet of 1882, the brightest comet in the past 150 years, brought this splendid letter from Mrs. Anna E. Richards of Eugene, Oregon:

"I have for 75 years been intensely interested in the night skies. I have observed from many different locations; from the mountains, the desert, the deep woods and even from the ocean. I have witnessed many of the so-called 'strange phenomena,' but the glorious comet of the early 80's was by far the greatest of all."

"I was early taught, 'The heavens declare the glory of God and firmament showeth His handiwork.' So in the faith of a little child the wonders were only God showing the children of earth the splendors of a realm as real to us at that time as the one in which we lived. My impressions are vivid."

"I remember the first appearance of the comet was in the late summer or early fall, and it continued all the following winter. There was no radio and very few newspapers, but when I heard people talking about something 'new in the sky,' I was all interest. I looked for it daily, but it was some time before I could locate it because the brilliant Colorado sunshine kept it dim at first. But as the days grew shorter, the darkness of night brought the glorious vision nearer until its splendor filled the sky beyond any description of mine.

"We were high in the Rockies west of Denver. Our view was entirely unobstructed in that clear atmosphere. My work took me back and forth each night and morning while it was dark. When the deep snows of winter covered the earth, with the cliffs and dark evergreen trees to break the expanse of white, it was then the comet shone brightest. A luminous orb, sending out from one edge sprays—not shafts—of light, curving gracefully downward and separating at the end, its length seemed to reach over one-fourth of the sky.

"I saw it night after night for months. And was it that the comet grew older, the end took on the form of a mist, like water lifted by wind becomes mist? So I trusted my mile-long journey each day in its light—unafraid, for was God not up there with His wonderful light?

"The comet was visible so long we began to regard it a permanent fixture. And as the days grew longer and the Colorado sunshine again flooded the earth, I forgot the comet for a time. When again I remembered it, I scanned the sky—but in vain. It was gone!"

CRESWELL. The regular meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Harold. Mrs. E. H. Heaton was leader of the January praise service. Mrs. E. W. Hoagland presided at the business meeting. The devotion was conducted by Mrs. Harold. Mrs. Olive Parlin, chairman of the overseas sewing, presented a list of required articles for hospital supplies. Following a discussion it was voted to send $5, as materials cannot be secured for the articles. Mrs. Collier, by letter, invited delegates to attend a conference of Presbyterian executives at Corvallis Jan. 23 at the Westminster house. Future work of group was discussed. Articles on migrant workers in fields and mines were read. Mrs. Kelsie served lunch at Mrs. Harold. Mrs. K. Nelson, Mrs. Heaton, Mrs. David Francis, Mrs. Parlin, and Mrs. Hoagland.

Reginald Land, fireman 1-e, who is on leave from Farragut, Idaho, called on his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Land, this week. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Land of Cottage Grove, former Creswell residents.

Tech. Sergeant Johnny Gibson, recently from Italy, called on Creswell friends Thursday. He formerly lived here and is an alumna of the Creswell high school. Sgt. Gibson wears three oak leaf clusters, a president's citation and other medals for combat duty. He, with Miss Wilma Ransdell of Portland, also a former Creswell resident, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnston.

Joint installation of officers of Honor Rebekah lodge and Gifford lodge 1007 will be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 17, with the 1000, ending the entertaining group.

The regular meeting of the WSCS of the Methodist church will be held at the church annex Wednesday, Jan. 17. A potluck luncheon will be served at 12:30 with each member to bring her own table service.

As the regular meeting of the Service club last week work was done on USO scrap books. Mrs. Fred Trumbly resigned as president and Mrs. William Taylor was elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Wesley Chapman was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Taylor. A potluck dinner was served at 1 o'clock.

Unit Meets
JUNCTION CITY. Nineteen members and three visitors met at the home of Mrs. Alfred Nielsen recently for the regular meeting of the North Lane Unit. Visitors were Mrs. J. E. Lorang, Mrs. Brockamp, and Mrs. C. T. Starns.

Chairman, Mrs. J. T. Lorang, opened the meeting and then turned the time to Mrs. B. Glenn and Mrs. H. Gibson who discussed the importance of winter salads in the family diet and demonstrated the preparation of five salads and various salad dressings. At noon these salads were eaten as part of the luncheon prepared by the hostesses, Mrs. Alfred Nielsen, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Lorang, Mrs. Glenn, and Mrs. Gibson.

After luncheon games and songs were enjoyed followed by the business meeting. Reports were given by the chairman of each standing committee.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Zumwalt on the Prairie Road in Junction City with the Irving and Elvador Home Extension clubs. This will be an all-day meeting of "Landscaping." Those who wish to attend this meeting and wish rides are to meet at the homes of Mrs. A. Nielsen, Harmony, Mrs. J. T. Lorang, Oak Grove, or Mrs. W. L.
