Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS CELESTA ANN BOOTH

n January 27, Miss Celesta Ann Booth will be wed to Sergeant eth F. Perin at a ceremony at the Santa Maria air base in rnia.

s Booth To Wed 27 In South; ty On Saturday

By MARIAN LOWRY

mantic announcements are in the social spotlight, sev- betrothals and weddings be- old the past week.

eating interest among a large of friends is disclosure that Celesta Ann Booth, daugh- f R. Roy Booth of this city, next Wednesday for Cali- to be wed at Santa Maria ase to Sergeant Kenneth F. , stationed with the army force at Santa Maria army ase, and son of Mrs. Blanche erson of Port Angeles, Wash. ing south with the bride- will be her father and her r-in-law, Mrs. Robert Roy h, Jr. The wedding will be ary 27 at the airbase.

e bride-elect is a graduate Eugene public schools and k county high school at eville. She went for one year University of Oregon and a at Oregon State college, oring in home economics. She been active in the local USO the past two years. Miss h is a granddaughter of the Robert A. Booth, beloved ene pioneer.

ergeant Perin recently re- ed after one and one-half s in the Mediterranean area Italy. He will be re-assigned tly to duty in this country. was educated in Eugene ools and was graduated from versity high school in 1938, g prominent in athletics at school. He went into emer- cy service with the national rd in 1939-1940, and enlisted the service in 1941, going rseas in 1942.

wer Given

On Saturday afternoon, the de-elect's aunts, Mrs. Freder- K. Davis, and Mrs. Edith dert entertained at the Davis me with a shower and party. nvited guests besides Miss oth were Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Ella Macy, Mrs. Carol Miller, Miss Eloyce Oberg, Miss Marcella Oberg, Mrs. Frank Calkins, Mrs. Jamie McClain, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Emma Drain, Miss Mabel Simmons, Miss Mary Ida Miller, Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Mrs. Mark Hathaway, Mrs. Noel Thomas, Mrs. R. Roy Booth, Jr., Mrs. Frederick H. Booth, Mrs. Robert P. Booth, Mrs. H. L. Edmunds, Mrs. Mike Keating, Lt. Elsie Nedrow, Mrs. Herbert Ogden, Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Mrs. Robert G. Smith, Mrs. William Barker, Mrs. Dudley Miller, Mrs. Gordon Perlich, Mrs. Philip Tillman, Mrs. Thelma Perin, Mrs. Omar Fendall, Mrs. Clarence A. Elkins, Mrs. Charles Hoflein, Miss Nancy Cordz.

Miss Booth has been visiting in Prineville the past week. There she was honor guest at a dinner party and shower given by Miss Leatha Smith.

P.E.O. TEA GIVEN SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Members of Chapter AY, P.E.O. Sisterhood, were hostesses Saturday afternoon at a tea given in the parish hall of St. Mary's Episcopal church with members of Chapters H and AM, and unaffiliated members as guests.

Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed was general chairman for the tea, and Mrs. John Cordell and Mrs. Fred Flock headed other major committees. Mrs. Earl M. Pallett and Mrs. Theodore Kratt received guests at the door. Mrs. Percy W. Brown and Mrs. J. W. Silva were hostesses about the room. For the program, Mrs. J. D. Bryant and Mrs. Phil Nordling of Chapter H, the Chapter AM trio, Mrs. J. M. Gravenstein, Mrs. Harry G. Talbot, and Mrs. E. E. Gray, and Mrs. L. H. Johnson of Chapter AM assisted.

Mrs. E. A. Stacks, president of H, Mrs. H. A. Theda, president of AM, and Mrs. L. A. Wood, president of AY, poured. Mrs. J. O. Holt and Mrs. L. J. Temple poured. Mrs. Milo Glassman and Mrs. A. C. Stockstad had charge of the guest book.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS MARIE DEVOS

New president of the Theta Rho Girls group here is Miss Marie evos.

DOUBLE ENGAGEMENT TOLD IN FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Brown of Eugene announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Fay Jean Brown, U. S. cadet nurse corps, to David R. Moon, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Moon, retired missionaries of Eugene; and of their son Pvt. Douglas A. Brown, to Miss Virginia Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor of Durham, North Carolina.

Miss Brown graduated from Eugene high and the Bible Standard training school before entering nurses training at Sacred Heart hospital. Mr. Moon is attending Northwest Christian college. Miss Brown and Mr. Moon are preparing for medical missionary work.

Pvt. Brown attended Eugene schools, University of Oregon, Multnomah school of the Bible in Portland, and was in the ASTP, at Oregon State college. He is a radio code operator and was home on furlough for a few days recently before going overseas. Miss Taylor is completing her senior year in high school, and is also employed in the newspaper office on the Duke university campus.

No dates have been set for the weddings.

MOTHERS FUND FOR SCHOLARSHIPS GROWS

Mrs. George Hopkins and Mrs. Loy W. Rowling, co-chairmen for the project to raise money for the University of Oregon Mothers' club scholarship funds, report to date the group has one hundred and sixty dollars in.

This total does not include returns from the rummage sale held by the club on Saturday.

Donations are still being accepted, those interested to contact either Mrs. Hopkins or Mrs. Rowling. Late contributions listed are those from Mrs. G. S. Beardsley, Mrs. E. S. Sawyer, Mrs. Robert W. Prescott, Mrs. C. A. Huntington, Mrs. J. A. Wickham.

The mothers club held its meeting the past week, Wednesday.

At this meeting a sum of twenty-five dollars was set aside for scholarships in the fund in memoriam to Mrs. C. L. Schwering.

Mrs. Cogswell Campbell, Mrs. W. B. Hilton, and Mrs. Claude A. Potter were named as a nominating committee to report at the group's next business meeting, April 18.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving

SGT. AND MRS. JOHN A. PLUMMER, JR.

The wedding of Sergeant and Mrs. John A. (Jack) Plummer, Jr. (Virginia Ann Tripp) was an event of last Sunday evening.

Phi Beta Group Meeting Tuesday

Phi Beta Patronesses group is meeting Tuesday afternoon, dessert to be at one-fifteen o'clock in Gerlinger hall on the University of Oregon campus.

Mrs. John A. Warren is chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. Irvin F. Schulz, Mrs. Dan E. Clark, Mrs. Anson B. Cornell, Mrs. H. A. Bork.

The program will be in charge of the active members of Phi Beta, arranged by Mrs. Claire Kneeland from the patronesses.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD AT RECENT TEA

The engagement of Miss Doris Brown to Sgt. John Allan Clarke of Sunnyside, Wash., was announced at an informal tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. E. Stevens. At the door the guests were given nosegay corsages in which were the names of the couple. Mrs. Walter Fiscus stood with Miss Brown to receive the guests.

Mrs. Vernon Kullowatz and Mrs. Walter Naff poured. Miss Ethel Clarke sang "Always,' and Mrs. Naff played several piano selections.

Invited guests were: Mrs. John Fiscus, Mrs. Walter Fiscus, Mrs. Roxanna Clark, Mrs. G. E. Barton, Mrs. Roy Ewing, Mrs. Maude Skaggs Woodyard, Mrs. Vernon Kullowatz, Mrs. Walter Naff, Mrs. Ethel Kreiger, Mrs. Barbara Burke; Misses Jeanne Diehl, Mary Lou Harter, Verla Haskell, Carol Crozier, Ethel Clarke, Martha Weller, Mary Weller, Nona Greiner, Shirley Altig, Evelyn Foreman, Dolores Young, Ruth Harmon, Bernice Jellsett, Juanita Johnson, Rue Aaron Crooks, Ruth Rae Cox, Marie Wilks, and Patricia Colerick.

Miss Brown is a student at Northwest Christian college and Sgt. Clarke is an instructor with the marine detachment at Clarkesville, Arkansas.

No announcement has been made for the wedding.

LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Russell Yockey was hostess at a luncheon Wednesday, honoring her daughter, Miss Lois Yockey, HA 1-c, Waves, and two other Waves, Misses Marguerite Weigant and Hazel Wells, both HA 1-c. Besides the three honor guests, others attending were Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Madeline Weigant, Mrs. Wallace Dodge, Mrs. F. A. Macomber, and the hostess.

Service Wives To Form Group

A new organization is being established in Eugene, an informal group to be known as the Service Men's Wives club, its purpose to provide some social activity and opportunity to make new friendships among the large group of women whose husbands are non-commissioned men in the army, navy, and marines.

A preliminary meeting was held to promote the group, and a second meeting is arranged for the coming Tuesday evening as a dessert at eight o'clock in the Del Rey cafe banquet room.

Invitation is extended to all wives of non-commissioned men of all branches of the service.

Those interested in attending are asked to call Mrs. Roy Malos, 4908-W to make reservations.

Mrs. Glenn Sweeney is serving as temporary chairman, and is being assisted by a large group volunteering to aid in organization, including Mrs. Robert Pinnick, Mrs. Delton Mann, Mrs. W. C. Koepke, Mrs. Fidelia Hansen, Mrs. Elvie Hall, Mrs. Jeff Hodges and others.

Mrs. W. J. Gilmore from the Officers Wives club is assisting the new group in organizational plans.

VISIT FROM SALEM

Visitors here over the weekend are Major and Mrs. Vern W. Miller and daughters of Salem, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller. Major Miller, a Salem doctor, recently returned from thirty-four months service in the south Pacific with the 41st division and had been orthopedic surgeon with the 42nd general hospital. He leaves January 25 for Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for re-assignment.

PARTY ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Fred Hills and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Leabo, were hostesses Thursday evening at the Hills residence near Jasper at a party and shower to honor Mrs. Hills niece, Mrs. John Clayton, Jr., (Barbara Huntington). About forty were present. During the evening, Miss Geraldine Leabo played piano numbers. When refreshments were served, Mrs. Fred Flock and Miss Eva Smith poured.

S. D. club will be entertained next Friday evening by Mrs. Roy B. Wilcox at her home in Springfield, seven-thirty o'clock.

Plummer-Tripp Wedding Sunday

At a pretty wedding Sunday evening last, Miss Virginia Ann Tripp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tripp of Minneapolis, Minn., was married to Sergeant John A. (Jack) Plummer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Plummer of Eugene, the service being a double ring and candlelight one at the Plummer home here, Rev. J. L. Sawyer of the United Lutheran church officiating. The ceremony took place at six-thirty o'clock before the fireplace in front of which stood baskets of spring flowers and ferns and on the mantel of which were other flowers and candles.

About forty-five relatives and close friends were present for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carmichel of Portland attended the couple.

The bride wore a gold colored crepe dress with matching hat, and her corsage was of white orchids with yellow throats. Mrs. Carmichel wore a brown crepe dress with matching hat and corsage of bronze flowers.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Plummer wore a black velvet dress with corsage of purple orchids.

For the music, Mrs. Gordon Tripp played the piano, the numbers including the wedding marches.

Reception Held

Following the service, an informal reception was held. Mrs. W. E. Parrish poured and Mrs. Georgiana White of Hollywood, Calif., aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake. Assisting with the serving about the room were Miss Wilda Parrish, Mrs. William Wheeler, Miss Maxine Wheeler, Miss Eileen Wheeler, Mrs. Elizabeth Hooper and Mrs. Irene Carey assisted with the reception, as did William Buell and Eugene Miller.

Mrs. Carter Wilcox, aunt of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a fuchsia costume with black accessories and corsage of orchids. The couple will be at home at 524 Boylston N, Seattle, following a trip to the coast. Sgt. Plummer is stationed at Fort Lawton, Wash. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, being a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity on the campus.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Georgiana White of Hollywood and Mrs. Bruce Martin of Corvallis.

Wiltshire engraving.

PVT. SUSANNE WORDEN

Announced recently in Ohio was the engagement of Pvt. Susanne Worden, marine corps women's reserve, to Aviation Cadet Frederick Edwin Denniston of Eugene.

Ohio Girl To Wed F. E. Denniston

Announcement has been made by Dr. and Mrs. Rollin D. Worden of Ravenna, Ohio, of the engagement of their daughter, Pvt. Susanne Worden, marine corps women's reserve, to Aviation Cadet Frederick Edwin Denniston, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Denniston of Eugene.

No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect graduated from Ravenna high school and attended Kent State university for two and one-half years, being a member of Gamma Sigma Phi sorority here. She went into the marine corps women's reserve March 3, 1944, and is now at Camp Miramar, San Diego.

Mr. Denniston graduated from Eugene high school and attended University of Oregon. He is now at flexible gunnery school, Harlingen, Texas, training as a navigator in the air forces.

ORIDES MOTHERS

Orides Mothers' club is meeting Wednesday evening of this week, seven-thirty o'clock, Gerlinger hall, Mrs. Edith Siefert and Mrs. S. T. Guard as hostesses.

FORMER EUGENEAN WED IN KANSAS

At a double-ring ceremony, December 2, in the Metropolitan Methodist church, Kansas City, Kansas, Miss Norma P. Bebbington of Kansas City and S-Sgt. George M. Keefauver, Jr., U. S. army air forces, formerly of Eugene, were married. Rev. Russell Fosmire performed the ceremony at eight in the evening, before an altar flanked by tall candelabrums of white tapers against a setting of chrysanthemums and palms.

John Bebbington of Erie, Kansas, gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's white satin gown was fashioned on princess lines and fastened at the back with tiny buttons. Its sweetheart neckline was of lace as were the inserts in the long train. Her fingertip and blush veil were held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She wore a necklace of pearls and carried a bouquet of white mums.

Mrs. Margaret Combs was matron of honor for her sister.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Heckman, Miss Lois Bristow, Miss Virginia McCauley, Miss Madge Partonnar, Miss Geraldine Hoke and Mrs. Jack Burnham. Marilyn Nelson was flower girl. Little Larry Combs, nephew of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The tapers were lighted by Misses La Verne Wilson and Barbara Jane Woods. Virgil W. Duval, cousin of the bridegroom's mother, was best man. Ensign Leland Richey, U. S. N. A. C., Major Joseph F. Giech, Louis Heckman and Melvin K. Neff were ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. R. G. Bebbington, grandmother of the bride, where the bride has made her home the past few years.

For her going away, the bride chose a Kelly green suit.

The couple are at home at 209 east El Camino, Santa Maria, Calif. The bridegroom is stationed at the army air field there. S-Sgt. Keefauver attended Eugene high school from 1937-1940, and is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Keefauver now living on route 4, Albany, and for many years Eugene residents.

Beta Sigma Phi members will meet at the home of Miss Rosemary Hobbs, Monday evening, Miss Bette Hack as assistant hostess, Mrs. R. Wilson Hutchinson to have the program on the Pacific area.

Scholarship Set Up For Nursing

A scholarship for pre-nursing students at the University of Oregon, to stimulate interest in the nursing profession, is being offered by the State Federation of Womens clubs, it is announced by Dean Karl W. Onthank, head of personnel administration. A sum of one hundred fifty dollars is made available with the promise that one hundred fifty dollars more would be given if interest warranted it.

Dean Onthank also announced that the Oregon Mothers club has established a sum to be used as scholarships for pre-nursing women students.

Both scholarships have been offered so that university women interested in nursing may have an opportunity to obtain their educational background and be able to help fill the vital shortage of nurses.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Wilma Carol Crone, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle V. Crone of Eugene, to Dr. M. Luther Vorheis of Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Vorheis of that city. No date is set for the wedding.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS JANICE LEE HANSEN

Recently installed as worthy adviser for the newly instituted assembly of Rainbow Order for Girls in Junction City Miss Janice Lee Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen of that city.

Officers Wives Arrange Party

Just about everything in the way of "special" surrounds plans and secrets for the January 24 dinner and program of the Officers Wives club. The Wednesday event will be at the Eugene hotel, six-thirty o'clock.

Notices from Mrs. DeWalt Payne, club president, speak of "special" guests, "special" program, "special" decorations, "special" entertainment.

L. Kenneth Shumaker of the University of Oregon faculty is to be guest speaker. Miss Maxine Cody is providing the entertainment, musical take-offs.

Hostesses will be Mrs. James J. Coleman, 4904-J; Mrs. Frank E. Johns, Mrs. Philip Tillman.

MISS THORSLAND NAMED BY GROUP

New president of Kwama, sophomore women's service honorary at the University of Oregon, is Miss Martha Thorsland of Eugene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Thorsland. Miss Thorsland replaces Miss Roseann Leckie, Worthington, Ohio, who was president during fall term. Miss Jean Watson, Corvallis, was elected treasurer of the group, replacing Miss Beatrice King of Portland.

PLAN TEA

Plans have been made for a rushing tea by members of Gamma Alpha Chi, national women's advertising honorary. The tea will be held at the Alpha Chi Omega house on the University of Oregon campus Thursday, January 25.

Miss Arliss Boone, San Francisco, Calif., president of the honorary, is in charge of rushing activities for the group. She presided at a luncheon meeting Wednesday at the College Side Inn at which time plans were made.

"President's Ball' Of Elks Jan. 27

Annual "president's ball" will be held by the Eugene lodge of Elks Saturday, Jan. 27, from nine-thirty until twelve-thirty o'clock, at the Elks temple. The dance will be informal, and for Elks and their families only, no guests. Music will be provided by Herschel Davis' orchestra.

Entire proceeds from the dance will be given to the fund to fight infantile paralysis.

P.E.O. CHAPTERS

All three local chapters of P.E.O. Sisterhood meet this next week.

Chapter H is meeting Monday evening, home of Mrs. Dan W. Crites, a potluck supper to be served at six-thirty oclock.

Chapter AY will be entertained Wednesday, one oclock, home of Mrs. A. C. Stockstad.

Chapter AM also meets Wednesday afternoon, one oclock, home of Mrs. Samuel H. Tyler, Mrs. J. H. Stofiel and Mrs. Thomas S. Wells assisting.

SILVER TEA DATE SET

Date for the annual silver tea given by Mu Phi Epsilon Patronesses association is announced for February 28, Delta Gamma sorority house on the University of Oregon campus. This is one of the largest benefits of each year. Mrs. B. R. Wagner is general chairman, Miss Maude Garnett is arranging for the music, and Miss Bertha Comings is in charge of invitations.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB

Shakespeare club is meeting Monday afternoon, two-thirty o'clock, home of Mrs. Virgil D. Earl. The group will begin study of Richard II, Dr. Dorothy Collier leading.

La Junta club is meeting Friday afternoon, one-thirty o'clock, home of Mrs. Frank W. Scobert.

Wiltshire engraving

MR., MRS. CALVIN A. BONNEY

A recent wedding was that of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin A. Bonney (the former Wilma Dressel of Grants Pass). Mr. Bonney is an AMM 2/c in the navy.