

Polio Foundation Set-up Explained

The question of just what the national foundation of infantile paralysis is has remained vague in the minds of many people in spite of the fact that they have continued to contribute year after year, it was stated here Saturday as Eugene prepared for the March of Dimes campaign, set for Jan. 21 to 31.

As explained by Marvin T. Warlick, chairman of the Lane county chapter, the national foundation is a non-profit organization, incorporated under the laws of the state of New York, the sole purpose of which is to find a method of preventing and curing infantile paralysis. While it is conducting this search it also aids in a financial way any community in the United States where an epidemic of paralysis is so severe that local funds are not sufficient to properly treat and hospitalize the victims.

The national foundation has as its officers many of the nation's outstanding business men, scientists and doctors. Active officers include such prominent persons as Basil O'Connor, James V.

Forrestal, Frank E. Murphy and Marshall Field.

Its medical committees are headed by many of the nation's outstanding doctors, including such men as Melvin S. Henderson of the Mayo clinic; Frank R. Ober, Harvard university medical school; Morris Fishbein of the American Medical Association and Thomas Parran, surgeon general, U. S. public health service.

Lane County Officers

The Lane county chapter is the local unit of the national foundation. Its active officers include William A. Ayres, Loy Rowling, Dr. James Stewart, Frank L. Armitage, Mrs. W. W. Hicks, Mrs. Ray Glass, Mrs. Frank Scobert and others.

One-half of all the money contributed during the drive remains in the hands of the local group. They administer it in providing hospitalization, treatments and braces for local victims of infantile paralysis.

The other half goes to the national foundation and is used by it to supplement local funds in any community where expenses exceed that community's funds. Thousands of dollars are also granted by the national foundation to medical schools, scientists and universities to carry on

FSA Committee Will Pass On GI Loans

Lane county's farm security administration committee will be responsible for certifying eligibility of World War II veterans applying for farm credit assistance under the GI program, Mrs. Genevieve Nettleton, FSA supervisor in the Eugene office, announced Saturday.

Designated by the secretary of agriculture and the administrator of the veterans administration for this responsibility, the committee also will determine that loans made to the veterans conform to the policies used in administering the GI program, she said, pointing out that FSA committees have had considerable experience in this type of work under the Bankhead-Jones act.

The FSA agency itself will make available its regular credit facilities to any World War II veterans who wish to avail themselves of the service. Loans are of two types: short-term, for operating purposes (buying seed, feed, machinery and livestock—maximum is $1500 in most cases); and 40-year loans for the purpose of family-type farms. The requirement of being a tenant for the latter type will be waived in the case of all veterans, but any applicant must have a farm background and farming experience. The amount of the farm-purchase loan is limited to the average value of all farms of 30 acres or more in the county and cannot exceed $12,000. Interest is at the rate of three per cent.

Every consideration is given to problems of the veterans who meet basic requirements for FSA help and have no other source of credit on reasonable terms to make a start in agriculture, Mrs. Nettleton said. The program also includes those applicants who, in the judgment of a committee of experienced local farmers, would require FSA supervision and credit in order to be successful in farming operations.

Within the limits of its loan funds and its lending and servicing authorizations, FSA will make loans to eligible veterans and provide all possible aid in helping them get soundly established on the land, she declared.

New Type Money Orders Out Feb. 1

The Eugene post office will be among 1800 in the U.S. to receive new type money orders Feb. 1, an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, D. C. stated today.

The new notes will be in dollar denominations and can be used for any sum not exceeding $10. Postal note stamps will be attached to take care of odd cents, the dispatch said.

For instance, to buy a money order for $2.93 a person would apply at the money order window for a $2 postal note to which the clerk would attach one 90-cent and one three-cent postal note stamp.

The purchaser writes the name of the payee on the note, detaches the stub and mails it. The recipient can collect it at any post office upon proper identification. All first class post offices will receive the notes by Feb. 1, while the other 43,000 will receive them as soon as they can be printed.

The Ladies Aid
OUT ON ROUTE X was in last week. He told us the farmers in that section were going to irrigate with vinegar and raise their own pickles this year. That, coupled with Dig Barnacle's new soap mine, will put Route X on the map in a big way during 1945. And, speaking of industry, you've noticed this city of Eugene is fast becoming an industrial center? Wise is that man who can visualize the future of this part of the Willamette Valley and act accordingly. Just as a suggestion we offer the following properties.

APARTMENTS: Two of them — one 5-room down and a 4-room up, completely furnished with almost new furniture, and located on one of the East Side's best streets, within walking distance of the University, on a high, large lot for $7900 with $3000 down. This is one good rental property.

ANOTHER two-apartment house is this West Side, corner lot offering with one 5-room apartment down and a 4-up, for $4800 with $1000 cash. This is a double roomed house in very good condition and should sell immediately at this figure.

FOUR ACRES over in the Sunshine Acres district with a dandy 7-room modern house, triple plumbing, basement, oil heat, big double garage with play, at $5250 with $3000 cash. Ladies and Gentlemen, is one that many of you have been wishing for but could not find. Here it is and the price is $10,500 and we are the exclusive selling agents.

AND THEN we have a mighty good restaurant on the highway, doing a good business, that we can sell you for $5000 with $3000 cash. We think this is one of the best businesses of its kind on the market today. See Mr. Davenport.

YES MA'AM, we have a swell suburban setup in this 4.68 acres over in the Willaglespie District with a dandy 2-bedroom, modern home, fully and nicely furnished, garage, small barn and chicken house, 3 cows, 1 pig, cream separator, wood and play, at $5250 with $3000 cash. This place is priced right, if you want a good suburban, look it over.

RIGHT HERE on the edge of Eugene we have a 5.5 acres with a nice, almost new, 2-bedroom modern home, fully and nicely furnished, for $4750 on good terms. Immediate possession.

A LITTLE BEAUTY is this 29-acre Pleasant Hill farm with a modern, 2-bedroom house, small barn, chicken house and brooder house at $5500 with about $3000 cash.

ARE we still searching for that 2 or 3-bedroom house for a patient client. He will pay you spot cash and full value for it.

endless experiments that seek to find the cause and prevention of infantile paralysis.

The University of Minnesota medical school was granted $175,000; the Georgia Warm Springs foundation was granted $225,000 for research work alone; $35,000 went to Tuskegee Institute of Alabama for after-care of Negro cases and $301,000 was spent for training of nurses and doctors in the Kenney treatment.

Money Spent Here

Thus the money kept in Lane county is spent directly in helping unfortunate neighbors here while the money sent to the national foundation is spent searching for a cure. Lane county's half of the funds help only after the damage is done. The other half is constantly searching day and night for the cause and cure of infantile paralysis.

Oregon was second only to the District of Columbia in last year's March of Dimes. Checks should be made out to the Polio Fund and mailed to Chairman Warlick at the Eugene hospital, 1162 Willamette street, or to the First National bank of Eugene or the Eugene branch of the U. S.
