

Goshen To Discuss School Conditions

GOSHEN—There will be a district school meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 14, at the schoolhouse at 8 p. m., to discuss the overcrowded condition of the school, and how to relieve the situation. All people in the community interested in the school are asked to attend.

Due to the resignation of the janitor last week, Mrs. Levi Russell and Mrs. Lee Delp have taken over the duties for the balance of the school year.

Ray McGaffey of Pomona, Calif., is visiting at the George Fisher home, and with friends of the community. He attended Pleasant Hill high school last year, and was a member of the high school orchestra.

The Boy Scouts met with their leader, Mr. Sullivan, at the Grange hall Thursday evening. Ray Winter, assistant leader, and Harold Mathers, junior leader, also were present and assisted Sullivan in teaching the boys knot tying and other feats necessary for the tenderfoot test, which will be given at the next regular meeting. There were 18 boys present.

Intermediate Girl Scouts met with Mrs. Margaret Stafford on Friday afternoon at the Grange hall. Mrs. Lindley, chairman of the counselor committee, also was present. A valentine party was planned for Saturday, and names for an exchange of valentines. Members of the troop include Patty Smith, Sigurd Skiridoff, Martha Haley, Peggy Westfall, Geraldine Partridge, Lois Danner, Mary Lee Beagle, Janice Shaw and Verna Lou Winter. A carnival is being planned for some time in April to raise money for the activities of the group.

Mrs. Ollie Lindley reports having heard from her son, Dale, who is serving with a medical unit, stationed on a hospital ship in the Philippines area. He has been in the navy for three years, and has not been home for over a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton, recently of California, are spending a week at Kitson springs. The Fultons purchased a farm east of Goshen last summer, and a fire destroyed their house last November. They plan to re-build as soon as priority ratings are established.

Irving Grangers Report Meeting

IRVING—The regular meeting of Irving grange was held Friday with approximately 40 members present. A collection was taken for the polo fund and $7.60 received. The lecturer's program presented by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson consisted of the following: Song, by the grange; two skits, "At the Ticket Office," by Mrs. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, and Raymond Johnson, and "On a Busy Street Corner," by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harbour; readings by Mrs. Paul Plank and Mrs. Bert Flanigan; game, "Cupid's Darts," by a team of men versus a team of women, the men being the winners.

The Home Economics club will hold a work meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 14. Ladies are to bring a sack lunch.

The next regular meeting of the grange will be Friday, Feb. 23, with Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Beeler and Mrs. DeYoung serving, and selling pie.

Reedsport Plans For Small Hospital

REEDSPORT, Feb. 12—(AP)—Plans for a hospital here are going ahead—even though the town is without a single physician.

A chamber of commerce committee met Saturday with an architect to discuss plans for a small hospital building on a city site acquired by the chamber.

AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA—The Friendly Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Fischer last week. Desert was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. O'Farrell on Feb. 14.

Adelbert Troxel, who was ill and in a hospital at the time his unit left for overseas duty, is now back to the Pacific coast and is at Ft. Ord, Calif. LaVern Troxel is still in Texas. His wife and daughter just recently went back to Texas to be with him there.

Dale Wright arrived home recently on a 10-day furlough. He has been at Camp Roberts, Calif., and will report at Ft. Meade, Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blum were called to Portland by the death of a sister of Mr. Blum.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jacques and daughter of Springfield visited friends in Marcola. Mrs. Deoras Pratt returned home with them to stay a week or more.

The gate in the dam at the Mabel pond washed out early Thursday morning letting all the water out which caused the Mohawk river to rise quite rapidly along with the heavy rain which fell during the night.

Kenneth Werner recently left for San Francisco to join the merchant marines.

The grade school ball team went to Wendling Friday afternoon where both the girls and boys teams played. The games were won by the Marcola teams.

Mrs. Mary Hill recently received a letter from her son, Virgil. He also sent her some souvenir Chinese money.

AT CROW

CROW—Mr. Book and son have purchased the Delmer Gates timber and they and Mr. Hargan will begin taking the timber off soon. Mr. Book is a brother-in-law of Mr. Hargan.

Lee Swafford arrived recently from San Diego for a visit at the

Girl Scouts At Elmira Are Active

ELMIRA—The Girl Scouts troop held a potluck supper last week at the home of their leader Mrs. Ivan Parke, after which was the business meeting. Following are the patrol leaders and the girls in each patrol: Eagle patrol, leader, Loreeta Mullien; girls in the patrol, Anne Eppier, Charlotte Sellers, Stella Andrew, Violet Woodward, and Pearl Fields; Blue Bird patrol leader, Kaye Kayser; girls in patrol, Jeanne Gibson, Virginia Daw, June Milburn, Ar-dith Barnes, Parakee patrol leader, Goldie Sellers; girls in this patrol, Kathrine Andrew, Ruth Woodward, Annette Barnes, Leasia Doolin. After the business meeting games were played, songs sung and yells given. Next meeting to be at the high school where they will have more uniforms.

Mrs. Madge Guide is the 4-H sewing club leader. There are 18 girls in her club, part are second year sewing and the others first year. They have named their club the Sew and Sew club. The officers are: president, Jo Anne Rath; vice-president, Lois Jean Gibson; secretary-treasurer, Imo Gene Thomas; yell leaders, Kaye Kayser, and Lois Jean Gibson. They are to meet the last period each Friday.

The Parent-Teacher club is to have a membership drive. The leaders are Earline Hammer, and Marian Denton, on one side and Don Hanson on the other side. The losing side is to entertain the winning one. The next meeting of the Parent-Teacher club is to be Tuesday evening. Mrs. Kathlyn Knight has charge of the program.

For this meeting the refreshments committee includes Mrs. LeRoy Scott, Mrs. Garner, and Mrs. Brooks.

Scout Anniversary Observed With Court

REEDSPORT—A court of honor, in observance of the 35th anniversary of the founding of Boy Scouts of America, was held by troop No. 10, of Reedsport, troop 31, of Gardiner, last week in the Reedsport American Legion hall. Boys receiving the tenderfoot award were: Bobby Hull, Kenneth Brookhart, Jerry Drewry and Ferdinand Bathke. Second Class Scout awards: Dick Kelly, Bill Morey, Peter Fredrickson, Lloyd Archer, Elwin Price, Don Banta, Keith Johnson, Don Boisvert and Ed Seabloom, Jr. First class awards were presented Mickey Bates, Jack Pinlon, Robin Gay and Donald Abbott. The Star award: Steven Nicholls, Bill Bond and Willard Raymond, and the Life award: Jerry Clark and Jimmie Smith.

Merit badges were presented the following: Jack Pinlon, public health and safety; Claude Kerr, home repair; Bill Bond, physical development, cooking and plumbing; Jim Smith, pathfinding, physical development and bird study; Willard Raymond, printing, cooking and woodworking; Jerry Clark, cooking, civics, and physical development; Claude Hathaway, carpentering, and woodworking; Tom McAllister, reading; Don Bolsvert, safety and pathfinding; Mickey Bates, reading and woodworking; Steven Nicholls, electricity, art and safety; Lawrence Bell, safety, art and pathfinding; Robin Gay, wood carving, pathfinding and safety, and Nelson Durbin, cooking.

A demonstration of first aid was given by Robin Gay, Tom McAllister, Keith Johnson, Steven Nicholls, and Lloyd Archer, and a farewell gift of a fitted toilet case was presented Mr. Kalaher of Marshfield, assistant scout executive of Oregon Trail council of Southwestern Oregon, who was recently promoted to the office of scout executive and will be stationed at Moscow, Idaho.

In honor of Boy Scout week a display window has been arranged in the window of the Dunn Outfitting store. Charters of the local organizations are featured, as are flags, charts, knots, ropes, and banners.

AT DELIGHT VALLEY
DELIGHT VALLEY—Recent house guests at the Oscar Flaten home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gould of Canada. Other visitors at the Flaten home were Gerald Clark of Portland and Miss Marie Rogndahl of the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon and baby of Eugene have moved into the tenant house on the Malcolm Horn ranch.

Max Sears has been in Bradwood the past week on business. House guests the past week at the Dane Hite home were the Ray Hites of Portland.

home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swafford.

John Canaday is also home on a furlough visiting his relatives here and his wife, baby, and parents in Eugene.

Mr. Murphy, janitor of the high school has resigned on account of his health and some of the students are doing the work until a new janitor can be found.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Deedon have a baby boy born Feb. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Doane have a baby boy born Feb. 4. This is the first boy. They have three little girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Liles are again staying with Mr. Liles' brother, Oren, and will help on the farm this spring and summer.

Santa Clara Groups Announce Meetings

SANTA CLARA—The Santa Clara Ladies' Aid society will meet, all day, Wednesday with a covered dish luncheon at 12:00 o'clock. Also the Woman's Missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the church parlor.

Mrs. Alma Rowling, 2042 Onyx street, Eugene, will be hostess to the Santa Clara Home Economics club Feb. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weddle have taken possession of their new home at Carlton, Ore.

Mrs. Arthur Shaffner and daughter, Barbara, are visiting with relatives at Baker, Ore., and at Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. E. L. Greenwood and daughter are visiting in Los Angeles.

Bernard V. Aderson of the merchant marine is spending his leave with his family at Santa Clara.

Two Resolutions Pass At Creswell Grange

CRESWELL—At the regular meeting of Creswell grange last week two resolutions were presented by the resolution committee and adopted by the order. The first favored the primary blanket vote and the second protesting against the action of private power groups trying to restrict the rights of the people promoting their own power set-up.

Richard W. Reed was elected to membership and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Powell were welcomed to membership by transfer from the Dorena grange. Two applications for membership were presented.

Mrs. F. L. DeBerry, staff captain, announced that the first and second degrees will be conferred on all who have received the obligation only at the next regular meeting, Feb. 21, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beards were obligated in the first and second degrees.

Mrs. Ed Graham of the home economics committee announced that the regular meeting of the club will be held Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 20 at the home of Mrs. C. I. Kent with Mrs. G. R. Miller and Mrs. R. F. Scott assisting hostesses. E. F. Roberts reported for the agricultural committee. Charles Wetzel gave a report of the recent farmers conference in Eugene.

Bonnie Miller of the legislative committee read an article regarding the proposed primary blanket ballot. At 9 p. m. the usual prayer was offered by the chaplain, Mrs. E. F. Roberts, for those in army service. Mrs. Mabel Sly told of word she had received about a prison camp in the Philippines.

The work program for the year was read, George Hayes, Roy St. Clair, Mrs. Ralph Rogers, J. P. Walker, Mrs. Graham, and F. L. DeBerry were appointed on the annual grange day committee. Mr. Hayes, master for the past year, was presented with a past master's pin, the presiding master, Donald Kabler, making the presentation. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, Mrs. Halderson, Mrs. Sanders of Willakenzie, and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Patton of the Hebron grange were visitors and all gave short talks. The next Pomona grange meeting was announced for Feb. 24 at Junction City.

For the program Mrs. Hayes presented the following numbers: song by the grange; accordion solos, Warren De La Vergne; games with prizes. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Binns, Mr. and Mrs. W. De La Vergne, Warren De La Vergne and Mrs. A. A. Blickenstaff.

Decorations were in keeping with the Valentine theme. Those to serve at the next meeting are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elmendorf, Mr. and Mrs. David Francis, E. L. Clark and Morris Culver, Mrs. J. C. Partney decorated the hall.

All mothers having boys interested in cub scouting are to bring the boys and meet with the grange sponsoring committee at the grange hall Friday evening, Feb. 16 at 8 o'clock. H. W. Taylor will serve as cub scout master.

Fifteen members were present at the regular meeting of the Service club last week at the Civic clubhouse. Mrs. William Taylor presided at the business meeting. Viola Arnold told of the project of filling boxes for the refugee children overseas to be sent by the Junior Red Cross and the group voted to assist with the work by sending needed articles to the high school for the Girls League to place in the boxes. For the roll call the members told of their families in the service.

Games were played following the business meeting and refreshments were served by Mrs. A. L. Hazard and Mrs. Wesley Chapman. A potluck dinner will be served at 1 o'clock at the next meeting. Souvenirs sent to members by relatives in service will be on display.

WENDLING ITEMS
WENDLING—Mrs. Eleanor Keep of Seal Rock, Ore., was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Ryan.

Pvt. Ed Geiger of Hobbs, N. M., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Minnie Geiger, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Mrs. Harvey Geiger.

The senior class of the Mohawk high school gave a dinner at the IOOF hall, at Marcola, recently in honor of Gib Wilson, who has enlisted in the navy and will leave in about 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wellman and family of Madoc Point, Ore., have moved into a company house on B-row. Two of the children have enrolled in the grade school and one has enrolled in high school.

The Needle club will be held at the home of Mrs. Bill Sayles, Feb. 13.

Consolidation For Schools Up For Vote

DEERHORN—Notices have been posted telling of the special meeting which is to be held Monday, Feb. 19 at Deerhorn schoolhouse at 8 p. m. for the following object: To vote on the proposition of consolidating school districts Nos. 3, 37, 65, 70, 95, and 126, for grade school purposes. All legal voters of school district No. 85 are asked to be present.

The Deerhorn home extension unit met last week. This meeting date was set ahead a week so that the subject, landscaping, which was the topic of the day, could be snared with the Leaburg unit. The business meeting was held in the morning at the home of Mrs. Dick Hart. Plans were made to collect clothes which are warm and usable to leave them at Otto Marquardt. Miss Connie Solberg, Mrs. Emmett Rauch, and Mrs. George Momb were in charge of the lunch. The club is sponsoring the Red Cross nursing classes which will begin Friday, Feb. 16 at the home of Mrs. Harry Tanner under the direction of Miss Grace Robertson who is a registered nurse. There will be six meetings all held at Tanners beginning at 1:30 o'clock on Tuesdays and Fridays. They will be held until March 6. All who are interested in contact Mrs. Tanner by calling 8209. The spring festival which is held every spring, in Eugene, was discussed, however no committees were appointed. In the afternoon the group gathered at the Barfoot home in Leaburg. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Otto Marquardt on March 16. Miss Nellie Lyle and Miss Lois Lutz will be the project leaders, the subject being "Simple Home Carpentry." The luncheon committee for that day will be Mrs. Bob Marquardt and Mrs. Frank Mecum.

Recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tanner were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mackin of New Richmond, Wis. The Tanners and the Mackins were former neighbors before Tanners moved to Oregon.

Don Benson was guest of honor recently at a birthday party which was held at this home. Guests included Clyde Meyer and Don's eighth grade companions who are Duane Scroggins, Robert Chapman, Corkey Deckart and Bert Schluckebier.

Joint Event For Granges At Coburg
COBURG—West Point grange entertained guests from Willakenzie, Santa Clara, Mohawk and Charly granges with a dinner last week in the grange hall, preceding initiation of new members. One hundred seventy five persons were served.

Following the dinner, the first and second degrees were conferred on ten candidates from Mohawk, six from Willakenzie and twenty two from West Point. The degree team from Willakenzie presided at the work. Mr. McKay of Willakenzie, exemplified the first and second degrees. Special music was furnished by a ladies' quartet, which was composed of Mrs. Harold Woodruff, Mrs. Don Kingsley, Mrs. R. L. Stoneberg of West Point; and Mrs. John Walls of Willakenzie.

On Saturday evening, Feb. 17, the candidates will receive the third and fourth degrees at Willakenzie.

Mrs. Ben Adair and Mrs. Harold Hurd are leaving for an extended trip of one month in the middle west and central portion of the United States. Mrs. Adair will be at Neoho, Missouri, where she can visit with her husband, Ben Adair, who is stationed at Camp Crowder. Mrs. Hurd plans to visit relatives in Indiana and Illinois as well as in Missouri.

FROM MOHAWK
MOHAWK—The Girl Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. Mae Denker, were hosts to the young people of the community at a recent roller skating party in Eugene. About 50 attended the affair.

A Red Cross home nursing course is to be started this week in the Mohawk community. The first class was Monday at 7 p. m. in a room over the Quiff-Nadeau store. All mothers and especially those who have young children in the home are urged to attend.

The regular meeting of the Mothers club of the grade school was held with the mothers having charge of the program for the members and the school pupils. Numbers included several recitations commemorating Lincoln, a 4-H play "Ten Minutes to Think," with the principle character parts being taken by Mrs. Tennant Scott, Mrs. Mae Denker, Mrs. Rowena Scharr, Mrs. Doris Ohlsen, and Mrs. Flora Nadeau. Ed Scott gave harmonica and guitar selections. Scenic slides of pictures taken by her husband were then shown by Mrs. Sam Mosher of Eugene. The program was under the supervision of Gladys Scott and Ruby Hufstader. Refreshments were served by Floris Nadeau, Lela Seavey, Hattie Wallace, and Ruby Hufstader.

The ladies of the community are asked to bring a paper bag lunch and come to the church Tuesday. The church will be cleaned and mopped and plans made for the disposal of the rummage which was left from the sale last fall.

Mrs. Lela Seavey will be hostess to the Helping Hand club at its regular meeting at a potluck dinner Thursday.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

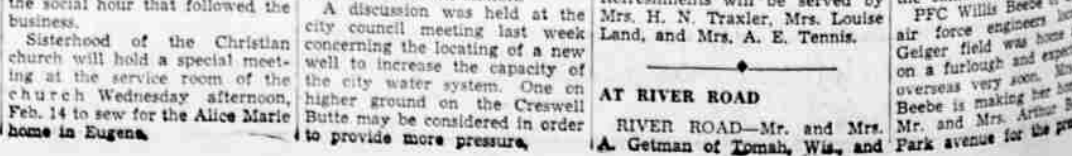

ALLEY OOP

THE ALLOWANCE

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

AT RIVER ROAD
RIVER ROAD—Mr. and Mrs. A. Getman of Tomah, Wis., and their daughter and son-in-law, Roy Forest, of Portland, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wood of River Road. Fanny Allison and Viola P. of Portland spent three days of the same home.