New York Markets

NEW YORK, Feb. 20—(AP)—Light selling stemmed the rise in stocks today after the market had touched another new average peak since 1937 on relatively heavy volume.

Rail and industrials leaders were out in front at the start. Prices for selected steels and motors stiffened near the close but while plus marks were plentiful, declines of fractions were well distributed. Transfers ran to 1,800,000 shares.

The great reservoir of idle cash waiting for investment opportunities still was the main bolstering trend influence.

Resistant were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, American Telephone, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, Goodrich, Woolworth, Texas Co., Du Pont, Eastman Kodak and Johns-Manville. Occasional stumbl- ers included Northern Pacific, Southern Railway, Kennecott, Standard Oil (N.J.), Sears Roebuck and American Can. Bonds were mixed.

RINGWORM and other skin irritations successfully treated with Epidermicide. Odorless, colorless, greaseless and stainless. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. Price $1 at Everybody's Drug, Eugene.
