Eugene Hi News

The student council held a meeting Tuesday, March 6, and thanked students for their cooperation with the Red Cross drive.

Candidates for next year's student body officers were also announced at this meeting. Running for president are: Wesley Nicholson, Dick Moll, and Art Johnson; for vice-president: Gordon Diebel, and John Banks; and for secretary: Alice Kingman and Phyllis Morgan.

The junior English class of Mrs. Anita Davis has recently completed two notebooks, one on shortstories and the other on verse. The students selected the themes for their collections. These ranged from religion, war, and flowers to the sea. Norman Read's notebook on short stories was judged the best. He was awarded a novel, "Crazy Weather," as first prize. Another book will be awarded for the best poetry collection.

The meeting of the Ambassadors, March 7, in room 305, consisted of testimonies and singing. Weekly devotions were given by La Verne Caery.

The Eugene high A Cappella choir was featured in a concert at Wilson junior high Friday, March 9.

The Spanish club wishes to announce a meeting to be held Wednesday, March 14, in room 311 at 7:30. A film entitled La Vivienda en Chile will be shown to members of the club. The movie, with dialogue in Spanish, is a travelogue. There will be election of officers and group singing to conclude the program.

The Camera club planned a potluck for Tuesday, March 13, at their last meeting March 6.

On a camera hike, which will take place in the near future, the club will take a 35-millimeter type of camera. Club members will take as many pictures as they want to, since films are easy to get for this type of camera.

Jack Carlson and Dolores Miller were chosen by the news staff as the boy and girl of the week for the week of March 10. Carlson, senior, was selected for the outstanding work he did on the programs for the Eugene high-Myrtle Point game, and for his reliable services as score-keeper at the games. Miss Miller, sophomore, was chosen for the great amount of work she did on the recent sophomore dance.

The namefor the war stamp and bond dance, has been changed from "Stamp Album Stamp," to "Stamp Album Stomp." This was okayed by the student council. The queen candidates will be chosen next week.

Beginning drama students of Mrs. Roger Houglum's classes, are writing Greek plays as part of their study of the Greek theater. These plays will be presented in costume some time next week, for the drama students.

Members of the Paletteers entertained 18 art teachers from the district at a tea held in the new partially finished Paletteer room March 6, from 4 to 6.

The club will hold open house some time this week, when the Paletteers room will be completed.

Paletteers are purchasing their own art library for the room by collection of dues. In order to amplify the fund they hope to have a coke machine, with profit which will go into the library, also. They also purchased the Capehart collection of famous paintings, the Oregon Journal collection of old and new masters and the portfolio of famous American painters.

Paletteers intend to order a year's subscription to Readers Digest, Fortune, American Artist, and Design.

The room has been designed chiefly for relaxation when students can study on art work during study halls. Robert Banister, adviser, believes in the theory that art students will appreciate and can work better, in a pleasant, quiet atmosphere.

Only art students will be permitted to use this room.

Ballet Troupe Coming

Three of the world's most famous ballets will be presented here when the San Francisco Ballet company, part of the San Francisco Opera company, comes to Eugene Tuesday, April 10.

The gay, heart-catching tunes and exquisite dances of Tschaikowsk's "Nutcracker Suite;" In Old Vienna," set to the lovely, lilting waltz tunes of Johann Strauss, and the famed second act of "Swan Lake," probably Tschaikowsky's best known ballet, will be given.

School children, in two shows at the McDonald theater on the morning of April 10, will see "The Nutcracker Suite" and "In Old Vienna." Adults will have an opportunity to see all three of the ballets on the evening of April 10, in an 8:15 p. m. presentation at McArthur court.

Retail Sales Here Rise 16 Per Cent

Retail sales in Eugene jumped 16 per cent during the month of January, the Associated Press reports.

The census bureau reported that the month was swamped with shoe and clothing sales. Oregon shoppers spent $1.31 for shoes compared with every dollar marked up a year ago.

A 28 per cent boost was shown in men's clothing sales, with an equal gain in merchandise from family clothing stores. Flowers were popular—for every dollar spent a year ago, $1.20 was paid last month.

The state's independent dealers handling all types of goods reported a sales gain of 11 per cent.

Overseas Wac May Follow Hubby Home

"A woman serving overseas with the women's army corps may request return for duty in the United States when her husband is returned to this country from a permanent overseas assignment with any of the armed forces," Lt. Elsie K. Nedrow, local wac enlistment officer, announced Tuesday.

The new ruling applies to army nurses, hospital dieticians and physical therapy aides, as well as wacs, the recruiter said.

Theater commanders are authorized to return for duty in the United States any woman officer, woman warrant officer or enlisted woman, upon her request and presentation of satisfactory evidence that her husband has been returned to the states for reassignment, hospitalization or honorable discharge.

The new ruling, which applies only to women overseas, is in addition to an older policy with regard to married members of the women's army corps whose husbands have been discharged for medical reasons.

In this case, consideration is given to the circumstances arising out of the wac's husband's discharge from any of the armed forces or from the merchant marines for disability or his retention in the service for medical treatment.

If he is dependent upon her for care or support, or for a material contribution to his reconditioning, the woman soldier may ask for her own discharge, Lt. Nedrow revealed.

Lonely Girls Lower Ideals, Says Doctor

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Don't feel too flattered if the girls whistle at you, mister: it's probably because they've lowered their standards.

Whatever the reason, the fact is some girls have taken to whistling at men and you can blame it all on the manpower shortage. Dr. Henry Bowman discusses the subject in the April issue of American magazine and comes up with some startling sidelights. He is director of the division of home and family living at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo.

Bowman says many a girl has become a huntress, boldly seeking dates and even proposing marriage. They'll whistle at a passing male and try to date anything "that grows whiskers—or peach fuzz."

Navy Recruiting Record

Records for the past 11 months were shattered in February in the navy's No. 1 recruiting program—the enrolling of radio technician (radar) trainees—it was announced by W. E. Bell, chief specialist of the Eugene navy recruiting station.

Enlistments in this recruitment branch surpassed any other single month's performance back to March of last year, Bell said, and was one of the best months since R. T. procurement began nearly three years ago.

The splendid showing comes at a time when radio technician candidates are vitally needed in the navy's long-range training program, but thousands more will have to be forthcoming if the program is to continue at top speed, declared Bell.
