Gustafson Chosen Toastmasters Head

Elmer Gustafson was president of the Eugene Toastmasters club today (Wednesday) following election of officers Tuesday night at a meeting in the Eugene hotel. He will succeed Dr. R. E. Walstrom, who was named deputy governor. Gustafson steps up from vice-president. He takes office April 3.
 Ross Hall was elected vice-president, Merv Dahl was re-elected treasurer, Hubert Moor was chosen as secretary and Karl Jasper sergeant at arms.
 Toastmaster on the speaking program was Bob Bertsch. Speakers were James Rodman Jr., who talked on "The Personality of San Francisco"; Walter Ransom, "Walling the Willamette," and John Snellstrom, "The Oregon Legislature."
 The table topic discussion was directed by Karl Jasper.
 Merv Dahl was general critic. Critics of individual speakers were Harold Plumb, Dr. Walstrom and Ross Hall. Fred Brenne was critic-at-large.

Willagillespie Pupils To Attend Air Program

A group of children from the Willagillespie school will be the studio audience Thursday morning of Miss Madde Garnett's KOAC program, "Let's Sing, America," over KOAC state-owned station.
 The children, representing a regular school room situation, will join with the broadcasting teacher and her University of Oregon public school music students, in singing the "Songs of Home and Loved Ones."
 Following this regular campus broadcast at 11:10 a. m., Miss Garnett, assisted by Mrs. Curtis Cole, soprano, and Miss Maxine Cady, pianist, will teach the children, over the air, the tunes from Tchaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite." This will help familiarize them with the music of one of the ballets they will see April 10 when the San Francisco ballet comes to Eugene, under the sponsorship of the Junior Program board and the Educational Activities office of the University.
 "They'll enjoy the ballet more if they know the music," is Miss Garnett's opinion.

WILL IT BE TWINS?

We run into many interesting situations in the insurance business.

Take for instance the young couple who have a suspicion that the blessed event will present them with twins!

They wanted insurance to cover the possible extra expense—Lloyds of London is supplying the policy through this Agency.

Just another example of our ability to give the public what they need in insurance protection.
