Dog Owners Warned

Of License Deadline

Collectors of dog licenses at the city hall and the county courthouse have reminded pooch owners they would like to have them tag their pets early and avoid the rush. Deadline for both county and city licenses is the last day of February. County dogs will find their licenses at the county recorder's office and Eugene canines may get theirs at the city hall. The cost is $1.50 for a female and $1 for males and spayed dogs.

Boughton To Play At Gleemen Concert

By ANN CONNELL

When George Boughton, violinist, was presented in concert by the school of music of the University of Oregon in the fall, the question of who should be the assisting artist at the next concert of the Eugene Gleemen was solved. Gleemen members and others who heard Boughton's playing were enthusiastic over his artistry and the brilliance of his technique. He will play a group of violin solos at the Thursday evening concert of the Gleemen, at McArthur Court, where the group will be presented under the leadership of Don Alton, acting conductor, and with Stacey Green as acting accompanist. All three musicians are on the faculty of the University of Oregon school of music.

A native of New York state, George Boughton, who came to Oregon's university this year, began the study of the violin at the age of eight. After securing a thorough foundation in violin and musical theory, he entered the Institute of Musical Art at New York city, where he was a student of Leopold Kramer and A. Madeley Richardson.

When Kramer was called to head the German Academy of Music in Prague, young Boughton was invited to accompany him to continue his studies with him there.

Following three years' intensive study in Prague and a series of concerts in Austria and Sweden, Boughton returned to this country, where he has gained increasing recognition as both a teacher and concert artist.

A. Wetherly, Eugene, and a nephew, J. A. Ross, Cottage Grove. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Simon mortuary.

George Bragg

FLORENCE—George Bragg, 78, died Monday at his home in Florence. He was born July 5, 1866 in Bell Plain, Minn., coming to Oregon in 1926 and living for the past three years at Florence. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Robert Ross, Florence, and Mrs. Perry Main, Creswell; and a son, Walter Bragg, Eugene. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Simon mortuary.
