School Board Okays Stadium Building

The Eugene school board approved plans for construction of a bus garage and a caretaker's apartment, at civic stadium, during its regular meeting Monday night. Board members authorized preparation of specifications and call for bids, but decided to postpone the project of turfing the stadium field until further study.

Business of the Monday night meeting also included: approving payment to Woole-Campan company of $32,390.10 for work completed to date and materials on the ground at the site of the new Colin Kelly junior high school; and naming Percy Brown auditor for the district for the coming year.

Mixed Chorus To Give Concert On Campus

For the first time since before the war a chorus of mixed voices will be presented in concert at the University of Oregon, when Donald Allton, assistant professor in the school of music, directs the choral union in their first public appearance in McArthur court Tuesday, Feb. 19.

An All-American program will be presented by the chorus of 200 voices. The orchestra, under the direction of John Stehn, assistant professor in the music school, will also present a series of numbers.

Coburg Flood Control Group Meets Friday

COBURG — Chairman T. Q. Green has called a meeting of the Coburg Flood Control and Development association at the grange hall Friday at 8 p. m.
