

British Veterans in Middle East Slim Chance for Peace

By HAL BOYLE
There is widespread disillusion among veteran troops in the Middle East regarding the prospects of permanent peace.

As long as hate lives in the world what nonsense it is to talk of peace. And what did our war do to kill hate? Nothing. What lesson have we learned? None. The Jew hates the Arab and the German still hates the Jew. The Austrian hates the Italian and the Italian hates the Yugoslav. Franco hates the French and I hate Franco.

Still Hate Hatred

"Every person, every nation has its own hatreds. And what can come from hatred but war? Well, let it come. Even if I'm cracking I can still say I've had a good life, a bloody good life."

This young man is not yet 30 years old. He is unmarried. And today he feels more certain of having a second war than he does of having children. He feels he has had a full life. By most standards, quiet standards most men want to live by, his life has hardly begun.

Senate Group Bans Union Interference

WASHINGTON, March 21—(AP)— The Senate Labor Committee has approved a bill against union interference with farmers delivering perishable commodities to markets.

By a 5 to 4 vote, legislation to establish a federal mediation board which would attempt to avert strikes through mediation and conciliation was amended to include the ban.

The measure, substitute for the House-passed Case Strike Control Bill, then was ordered reported to the Senate for floor consideration.

Chairman Murray (D-Mont) said there was no formal note on approval. Senator Morse (R-Ore) was among the five supporting the amendment.

American Ship Burns In English Anchorage

LIVERPOOL—(AP)—Fire aboard the American ship Cape Douglas, anchored in the Mersey River with area of origin in the engine room, San Francisco, was brought under control after a fight of several hours today.

At midday the vessel radioed that the fire was confined to the area of origin in the engine room, and all danger to those aboard had passed.

Washington Touchy Over World Rifts

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman's efforts to discount alarm over the international situation were viewed today in the light of world events and statements of his own State Department.

There was agreement in responsible quarters, as Mr. Truman indicated, that there is no justification for alarm about the imminence of another war—that the best way of solving current problems is to keep calm and cool.

But it is well known that some of Mr. Truman's closest foreign policy advisers do not feel too optimistic about working out world problems as satisfactorily as the President's off-the-cuff news conference statement might indicate.

High congressional leaders, equally concerned, today indirectly cautioned their colleagues that the almost daily outbreak of floor speeches against Russia and other nations was further aggravating the tense state of world affairs.

They told reporters it may be necessary to make some effort to stop speeches which antagonize other countries until current tension is eased.

The President's advisers are not worried about a new war. But they are worried not only about Soviet Russia's unilateral action in Iran and its effect on the United Nations, but about wounds being inflicted by the Churchill-Stalin name calling over the Briton's proposal for an Anglo-American military alliance.

Pressed for comment on the international situation, Mr. Truman told correspondents late yesterday:

"I am not alarmed about it. I am sure we will work out of it."
Anxiety

But there was anxiety in official quarters about Winston Churchill's decision to speak over an American Radio Network (Mutual) tonight.

Last minute cancellation by Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson of his earlier plan to sit at the speaker's table with Churchill at tonight's New York City dinner for the former British prime minister. Acheson excused himself on grounds of pressing official business.

Callahan Announces Retirement From Furniture Business

After 21 years in the furniture business in Eugene, 12 of which were in the present location in the Heilig Theater Building, Robert F. Callahan has retired from the furniture business, he announced Thursday.

Although he says he never caught a fish in his life, he's going to try his luck. He plans to do some hunting, too.

Callahan announced sale of the business to M. G. Perlman of the Manor Furniture Co. of Portland.
After a closing out sale on all goods in the 30,000-square-foot establishment, the store will be closed forever on April 1, Periman said.

Boy Scout Program Director Here

William Lawrence, national director of program, Boy Scouts of America, will arrive in Eugene tonight (Thursday). A meeting of chairmen of local operating committees has been arranged for Thursday in the bamboo room of the Eugene hotel at 8 p.m. when Lawrence will orient the group in plans and developments in the scouting program.

A scoutmasters' and commissioners' meeting will be held Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Congregational Church. Lawrence will demonstrate program methods for scouting units. This scoutmaster meeting is the first of a series of training sessions which begin on March 25.

Portland Agency Will Handle War Surplus

PORTLAND—(AP)—The man in the street will be able to buy surplus goods here next Monday.
After that date, when the War Assets Administration office here takes over the disposal of surplus property, consumer goods will be sold here directly to buyers.

Previously consumer goods was handled through the Seattle office; and veterans groups and Chambers of Commerce objected

Eugene Register-Guard, Thursday, March 21, 1946 Page 13 that the system required too much traveling.
