McPherson - Brown Wedding at Home

Miss Rosalia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown of Springfield, was married to Arthur McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McPherson, also of Springfield, at the McPherson home, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. The Rev. Claude O'Brien performed the wedding rites before an improvised altar of white flowers, on which white candles burned.

Mrs. Dallas Murphy sang "I Love You Truly," playing her own accompaniment, and also played the wedding music.

Mrs. Brown wore a suit in navy blue with white hat and accessories, and a corsage of rosebuds and gardenias. She was attended by Miss Avadore Gulsig, similarly attired.

Best man was Dick McGilvery.

Guests Attend

Wedding guests, in addition to the immediate families of both young people, were Mr. and Mrs. W. Steveson of Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Deatherage and sons, Edward and Dick, Santa Rosa; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Merie Brown and son, Mickey; M. Premier, Dillard Wright and Mrs. Inman, all of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Martinson and daughter, Hilma, and Mrs. Johnson, all of Portland.

The wedding followed a noon dinner for twenty persons at the McPherson home.

Immediately after receiving the congratulations of the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McPherson left on their wedding trip to San Francisco and Santa Rosa, Calif. They will return to live at Springfield.

Mr. McPherson was discharged July 1 from the U. S. Marine Corps, having served two years on Okinawa and in China.

DELEGATES REPORT RECENT CONVENTION

At the meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps Thursday, reports on the convention held recently in Portland were heard, and it was announced that Mrs. E. J. Collins will be delegate at large to the national convention July 25 in Indianapolis. Mrs. Bertha Dunbar will be alternate. Both are from Eugene.

Members reported twenty-six calls made, sixteen floral pieces sent, and eighteen hours of relief work.

An invitation was read and accepted from the Corvallis club for a picnic July 25 at twelve-thirty o'clock at the Corvallis City Park. All national, past national, department and past department officers of the corps will be honored.

Daughters of Union Veterans also invited the Woman's Relief Corps to attend a picnic Wednesday at six o'clock. The WRC Needle Club will have a picnic at noon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Gordon, 2892 Besse Street. A meeting will follow.

The annual picnic of the corps will be held August 15 at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. M. Davenport, 212 High Street, and the Past Presidents Club of the corps will hold their picnic August 9 at noon at Skinner's Butte Park, it was announced.

MR. MRS. JOHNSTON

The golden wedding day of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Fowler, June 10, was the wedding date chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duane Johnston (Dorothy Doucett), and the elder couple attended the bride and groom.

Girl Scouts Settle In at Clearwox Camp

Cold weather greeted Eugene Girl Scouts and their twenty-four counselors at Clearwox Lake Summer Camp on the first Sunday, but failed to dampen the spirits of either campers or counselors, it is reported.

Units were organized at the camp, and counselors apportioned to each, with a life-saver to each one also. The life-saver accompanies the unit on all daily and overnight trips.

Other than counselors, the staff includes a handy man, a business manager, two cooks, a nurse and two kitchen assistants. The staff lives in large tents, while the Girl Scout units are camped in scattered shelters.

Plans include a daylight hike to the seacoast and one overnight trip during each two-week period of the summer camping period. Many short excursions will be made, as well.

WEDDING REPORTED FROM LORANE AREA

Bowers - Yates Clans Plan Annual Meeting

Announcement is made of the annual reunion of the Bowers and Yates clans, descendants of two pioneer families of this region, which will be held July 28 at Jerry Bowers' picnic grounds near Philomath. Old friends as well as members of the two families are invited to attend, bringing their basket dinners to spread at noon.

John Bowers of 812 Sixth Avenue West, is the sole remaining member of the original Bowers group which crossed the plains in 1853, and Mrs. Mary Fletcher of North Bend is the last of the Yates clan, whose original members came in 1854. Both groups settled near Irving.

Last year there were seventy-one persons at the reunion, but this year, because of the return from military service of many young men of the family groups, at least a hundred are expected.
