

Toward Conservatism ing in State, Says Wood

Woodward toward conservatism among Oregonians, as in the southern part of the state, in the opinion of the late Senator Wood, Democratic representative from the congressional district, died in Eugene Monday morning of "stumping" Coo and Curry coun-been freely predicted following the war, there was a definite swing toward conservatism. "Dr. Wood, whatever may be the case in other states, I have no doubt that sort of thing is happening in Oregon," said the late Senator. "The voters on certain is-

ns for Promoting Cultural tions Granted by House

INGTON — (AP) — The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing the Department of Education to spend $12,000 during the next 12 months for the promotion of cultural relations and other nations with in-both Houses had approved the funds after months of delay. The legislation passed the State Department on the program was held up by the State Department really as a propaganda service for the information job done by private information bill authorizes the Department to prepare and disseminate through press agency and other means, students, scientists and cultural leaders between the United States and other nations.

ool Lunch May End

LAND — (AP) — The Department of Agriculture Production Administration Monday that Oregon's school lunch program will not be continued next year unless the federal government contributes a new law federal funds for school lunches which will cover 50,000 Oregon children a year will be granted a state agency matches on a 50-50 basis, and the program.

the federal government contributed about a half of the funds in Oregon, with local sponsoring making up the other two thirds of the federal contribution in 1933-34.

SDA said Oregon must agree with it soon if the program is to be set up for the coming school year. The State Department of Education does not assume operation of the program, only par-

et Russia Uphold Veto

YORK — (AP) — Battle lines United Nations over the veto question are shaping up with a definite report in which the Russian government veto should remain un-circles reported that it is definite and final conclusion of the Russian government veto should remain un-

He said further that he was on the question in the Assembly or however the veto was exercised, the Soviet government would remain firm for set-up.

the first Russian reaction to the veto question last Monday by Dr. V. Evatt, Australian for-mer and United Nations in which he criticized the

al of Nazis Spring End

BERG — (AP) — The war trial near its final stages when the court took up to consider documents in defense of six Nazi leaders.

defense of the organiza-tion presented next week the final arguments of the prosecution's final

Robert H. Jackson will be delivered in the half of about two weeks for the

Grove Thankful For Good Crops

COTTAGE GROVE — A survey of farms in this district reveals that having is about finished and the crop is larger than last year. Damage from rains was not ex-ensive. Grain is awaiting harvest and the yield will be average. The cherry crop has taken much at-tention and is larger than for many years, but much of the fruit is drying or rotting on the trees owing to lack of sugar for can-

An American Legion picnic will be held Monday evening July 22, at 8:30, on the east side of the Cottage Grove dam on Wilson Creek. Bring your picnic supper.

Coffee, ice cream and cake will be furnished. Bring your own sugar. This is for all veterans and their families.

The local Eagles lodge honored five members recently by awarding charter and veteran pins to F. H. Taylor, Eugene, A. W. Ismael of Portland, Frank Miller and Richard Bushell of Cottage Grove, and a twenty-year pin to Frank McCulloch of Cottage Grove. A delegation will attend the installation of a new lodge at Sweet Home July 28.

The American Legion Auxiliary met recently with Miss Eunice VanDenburg and unanimously elected as president for the coming year Mrs. June Bird Bench.

Oakridge Rod-Gun Offers 'Fish Feed'

OAKRIDGE — The Cascade Rod and Gun Club is sponsoring a "Fish Feed" at Sheep Bridge on the Upper Deschutes River, July 21. All members and their friends are welcome. There will be a $5.00 prize for the first limit catch of fish and $5.00 for the largest fish caught.

Mrs. Walter Woodard Of Cottage Grove Mothers 'Warhans'

COTTAGE GROVE — Mrs. Walter Woodard recently was commended by the Foster Parents' Plans for War Children, because for the past two years she has generously provided for three European children. They are two English, and one Dutch girl, Lillian Smith, 15, May Allen, 11, in England, and Julia Peters, 11, in Holland. Julia is suffering from malnutrition when taken over by the Plan colony, but her health is steadily improving.

The Plan operates 56 children's projects in France, England, Holland, Belgium, Malta, Italy, and is caring for children of 14 different nations.

Noti Reminded Of Health Proviso

NOTI — Parents of all first grade pupils entering school this year are reminded of the state law requiring health examinations before the child enters school. Mrs. Belle Fisk, clerk of the Noti School District, has the necessary forms, and urges parents to pick up the blanks, and have their physician check the child early, so as to avoid a last minute rush. These health blanks must be filled in, and accompany the child the first day of school.

Mapleton Kids Must Be Prompt for Bus

MAPLETON — Children signed up for swimming lessons must be at Carvers Store at 1:30 p.m., if they plan on going on the bus. Butter costs 88c a pound in Mapleton; milk 16 1/2c, whipping cream 50c pint and 90c quart.

Governor Discounts Report on Idle Vets

SALEM — (AP) — Published reports by the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, which have told how some veterans would not take jobs so they can get federal GI benefits, might "place the big majority of veterans in a bad light," Governor Earl Snell said Monday.

The governor said he has found that most veterans want "jobs, education and opportunity—not doles."

100,000 Shriners Flock to Convention

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — San Francisco and transbay Oakland Monday were jammed with thousands of red fezzed, brightly panted Shriners determined to cut loose for five days starting Tuesday in their merriest convention since prewar days.

Arriving at a staggering rate by plane, ship, train and auto, the Shriners sorely taxed this city's accommodations, but they were making out somehow.

Monroe Tourists Return from Trio

By MYRTLE D. STONE
MONROE — "There is no land like Oregon" for Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stewart of Monroe who returned to their home here this week from a tour across country into the Midwest. They took in six states: Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa and Mis-

Burglar Loses Finger In Scrap With Woman

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A burglar who broke into the home where Mrs. Helen Andrews, 45, was caring for a patient got nothing but lost a finger.

"We tussled and he got away, but not until I had bit off one of his fingers," Mrs. Andrews told police.

Florence's Kyle Store Becomes Cooper Bros.

FLORENCE — Dr. Vern Weber and Emmy Lou Weber have sold the pioneer firm, Wm. Kyle and Sons, general merchandise to Dan W. Cooper and his brother, J. B. Cooper of Hoquiam, Wash. Dan Cooper will have active management of the concern, which will operate under the firm name of Cooper Brothers. J. B. Cooper will remain in Hoquiam.

Dan has actively engaged in the grocery store business here for the past 15 years, being employed at Cushman and Hill and the Car-rick's Grocery, as well as formerly owning and operating the Florence Market. Employed at the store will be Glen Long, Mrs. Zephia Burgess and Bill Campbell.

Co-incident with the change of ownership, W. J. (Mike) Kyle is having the office divided to supply a separate office and entrance where he will continue to conduct his insurance business.

Evidence of the community service of Western Lane County Chamber of Commerce is the announcement by Marshall Murray, president, that representatives of the Coos Bay Crab Company were in Florence this week seeking a location on the port dock for constructing a receiving station. When accommodations are obtained, this firm plans having a fleet of 20 or 30 boats operating into the Siuslaw Harbor, increasing activity in the fishing industry here three-fold.

Ninety-two young folk have registered for the Red Cross swimming campaign which starts Monday at Clewax Lake. The first bus will leave at the north end of the Siuslaw Bridge at 9:15 a.m., the second at 9:45 a.m., and the third at 10:15 a.m. If the first bus is too crowded, kids are asked to wait for the second bus, or until all are able to receive transportation. Those participating are asked to bring registration card, bathing suit, bath towel, bar of soap and swim cap or bandana for girls.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Petersen, Sr., held a dinner party at Hotel Florence, Friday night, honoring Hans Petersen, Jr., who has just arrived home following his discharge from the Navy. Also present was Lloyd Petersen, an Army veteran, who with his brother, Bruce, were here from Portland for the occasion. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Petersen and daughters, Louise and Elmore, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Yokum, Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott and Miss Mildred Loney.

Mrs. Millard Martin and Mrs. A. G. Hines entertained Thursday afternoon, honoring their niece, Mrs. Robert Hayden with a shower, which was held at the Hines' home. Sixteen guests attended, each designing an announcement, complete in every detail, with the hostesses promising to send a prize to the one most nearly correct.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin and Glen have returned from a trip to Oregon Caves and Crater Lake.

Mrs. Joan Miller, who has been visiting at Elmira has returned here.

Mapleton Kids Must Be Prompt for Bus

MAPLETON — Children signed up for swimming lessons must be at Carvers Store at 1:30 p.m., if they plan on going on the bus. Butter costs 88c a pound in Mapleton; milk 16 1/2c, whipping cream 50c pint and 90c quart.

Governor Discounts Report on Idle Vets

SALEM — (AP) — Published reports by the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, which have told how some veterans would not take jobs so they can get federal GI benefits, might "place the big majority of veterans in a bad light," Governor Earl Snell said Monday.

The governor said he has found that most veterans want "jobs, education and opportunity—not doles."

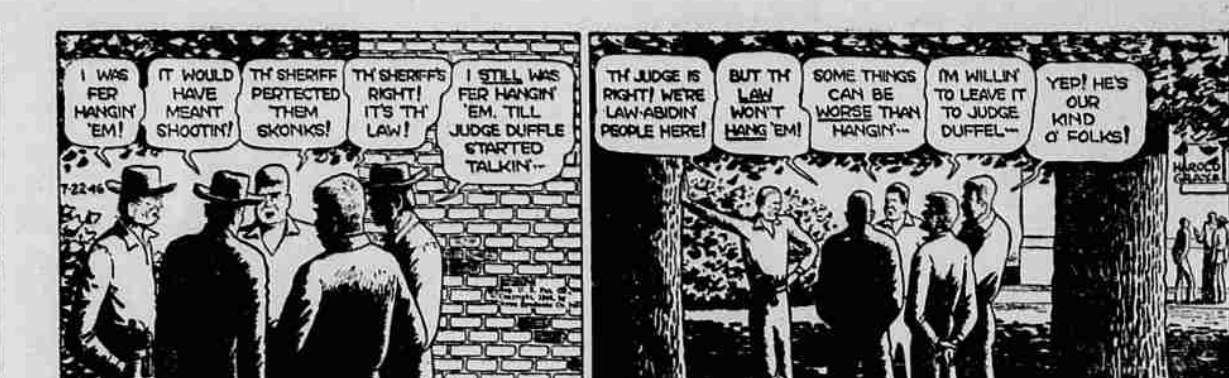

100,000 Shriners Flock to Convention

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — San Francisco and transbay Oakland Monday were jammed with thousands of red fezzed, brightly panted Shriners determined to cut loose for five days starting Tuesday in their merriest convention since prewar days.

Arriving at a staggering rate by plane, ship, train and auto, the Shriners sorely taxed this city's accommodations, but they were making out somehow.

Monroe Tourists Return from Trio

By MYRTLE D. STONE
MONROE — "There is no land like Oregon" for Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stewart of Monroe who returned to their home here this week from a tour across country into the Midwest. They took in six states: Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa and Mis-

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

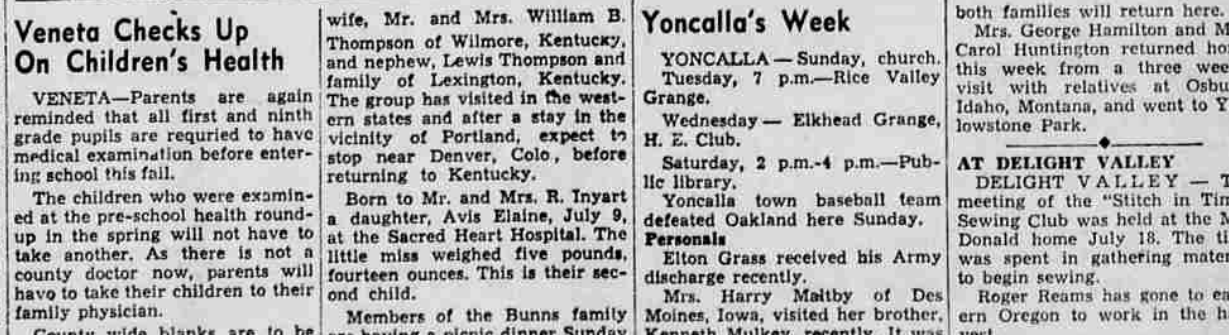

WARB TITS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Veneta Checks Up On Children's Health

VENETA — Parents are again reminded that all first and ninth grade pupils are required to have medical examination before entering school this fall.

The children who were examined at the pre-school health round-up in the spring will not have to take another. As there is not a county doctor now, parents will have to take their children to their family physician.

County wide blanks are to be used and may be obtained at the county school superintendents' office. They must be filled in and accompany the child the first day of school.

Yoncalla's Week

YONCALLA — Sunday, church, Tuesday, 7 p.m.—Rice Valley Grange.

Wednesday — Elkhead Grange, H. Z. Club.

Saturday, 2 p.m.—4 p.m.—Public library.

Yoncalla town baseball team defeated Oakland here Sunday.

Personals

Elton Grass received his Army discharge recently.

Mrs. Harry Maltby of Des Moines, Iowa, visited her brother, Kenneth Mulkey, recently. It was the first time they had seen each other for 33 years.

Twins, Donald Ray, weight 4.4 pounds, and Donna May, weight 4 pounds, were born to Mr. and Mrs. George Langdon at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, July 12.

John Cook Jr., underwent an appendectomy at Rhoades-Lambert Hospital in Eugene Wednesday.

Recent visitors at Robert Crawford home were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hopper of Jackson, Tenn., and J. E. Fleetwood of San Francisco. Crawford went to Tennessee for a month's visit with Hoppers, then

BUMPER CROP

PORTLAND — (AP) — Oregonians will harvest bumper crops of filberts and walnuts this fall, the U. S. Department of Agriculture predicted Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Halladay have bought the George Lyle property and are preparing to move there soon.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson are his brother and

Yoncalla's Week

YONCALLA — Sunday, church, Tuesday, 7 p.m.—Rice Valley Grange.

Wednesday — Elkhead Grange, H. Z. Club.

Saturday, 2 p.m.—4 p.m.—Public library.

Yoncalla town baseball team defeated Oakland here Sunday.

Personals

Elton Grass received his Army discharge recently.

Mrs. Harry Maltby of Des Moines, Iowa, visited her brother, Kenneth Mulkey, recently. It was the first time they had seen each other for 33 years.

Twins, Donald Ray, weight 4.4 pounds, and Donna May, weight 4 pounds, were born to Mr. and Mrs. George Langdon at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, July 12.

John Cook Jr., underwent an appendectomy at Rhoades-Lambert Hospital in Eugene Wednesday.

Recent visitors at Robert Crawford home were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hopper of Jackson, Tenn., and J. E. Fleetwood of San Francisco. Crawford went to Tennessee for a month's visit with Hoppers, then

AT DELIGHT VALLEY

DELIGHT VALLEY — The meeting of the "Stitch in Time" Sewing Club was held at the McDonald home July 18. The time was spent in gathering material to begin sewing.

Roger Reams has gone to eastern Oregon to work in the harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Bales and two children recently took a four-day motor trip. They visited relatives at Stanfield, then at Grand Coulee Dam in Wash. Continuing north they visited a brother of Mrs. Bales, William Riley, at Rice, whom she had not seen for 20 years.

Mrs. B. C. Stephens and children of Los Angeles are visiting at the Claude Davidson home.

House guests at the Mc-Donnell home are Mrs. Bertha Tate and Mrs. Margaret Button of Sar Diego.