

Tidelands Bill Sent Truman

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Saturday passed and sent to President Truman legislation for the federal government's claim to submerged tidelands within the three-mile limit.

In approving the bill, the House affirmed the federal government's claim to that part of the continental shelf extending beyond the three-mile limit or beyond a state's boundary, whichever is farther.

A federal suit asserting title to California tidelands is now pending before the Supreme Court.

Opposition to the bill came from those who charged that the measure would give to coastal states the valuable oil deposits in the tidelands.

"The government had better think twice before giving away oil needed by the Army and Navy," Rep. Andrew Blewett (D-Wis.) said.

Rep. Carl Hinshaw (R-Calif.) replied that the government had never made any claim to submerged tidelands, but that it was now being made an issue by "a group of rascals" who think the government has control of a state's lands.

OPA Doesn't Control Prices on Skunks

DALLAS — (AP) — Skunks are out of the bargain basement. Mrs. Sadie Reddekopp McNeal, who does a neat business in the deodorized variety, reported a few days ago that prices hit the skids because she had too many animals and too few buyers.

Bargain hunters took care of that and now she says the price is up again—up around $1000 for instance, for an Albino.

Heirens Plans Confessions

CHICAGO — (AP) — William Heirens, 17-year-old college sophomore who began a life of crime before he was 10 years old, will confess to state authorities three of Chicago's most brutal slayings sometime after he appears for arraignment next Tuesday, Mal Coughlan, one of his attorneys, said Saturday.

Thus the state was set for the final steps in the disposition of three slayings which had baffled police for many months, and apparently all defense legal maneuvers had been completed.

Heirens has been indicted for the murders of six-year-old Suzanne Degnan, whom he snatched from her bed, strangled and dismembered, and of ex-Wave Frances Brown, whom he shot and stabbed while looting her apartment.

He has admitted these slayings and a third, that of Mrs. Josephine Ross, attractive divorcee, but has not been indicted in that case.

He was indicted earlier on 29 counts of robbery and assault, the latest crimes in a series of offenses which sent him to a private reform school after his graduation from grammar school.

Heirens is slated to appear for arraignment at 10 a.m. next Tuesday, but his attorneys were expected to ask a 10-day continuance. With Coughlan's announcement that the youth will offer a formal confession, it appeared unlikely he would enter a plea until a later date.

It had not been determined as yet what plea would be entered by Heirens, but it was decided to submit him to a psychiatric examination before any plea is made.

Coughlan said the definite time for Heirens' confession had not been set and that it would be up to State's Attorney William Tuohy to have it copied.

TOP TOASTMASTERS

SEATTLE — (AP) — Thor Mayre of Spokane won first place in the Toastmasters International speech contest at the group's convention here. Wilbur Smith, Zanesville, O., placed second and William L. Norman, South Pasadena, Calif., third. Minneapolis-St. Paul will have the 1947 convention. The two cities submitted a joint bid.

Pickets Lured From Line by Devil's Potion

BURBANK, Calif. — (AP) — Six boys, nine to 13 years old, paraded before a maltshop with makeshift placards reading: "We want nickel cones. We want five cent milk drinks." Spokesman Richard Price, 11, explained: "We get 50 cents a week spending money. If we have to pay ten cents for a cone, our standard of living is cut in half."

What really irks them, the boys said, is no more "devil's dip" (recipe: a ten ounce glass of all flavors, topped by fizzy water).

Shop owner W. J. Reagan sold part of the problem: "Come on fellows," he called, "let's all have a devil's dip on the house."

Picketing ceased abruptly.

ACTRESS RECOVERING

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Veronica Lake, diminutive actress under oxygen treatment for two days because of threatened pneumonia, was reported considerably improved Saturday. Her physician said the oxygen and penicillin treatments apparently had prevented her illness going beyond the influenza stage.
