

RADIO BROADCASTS

Table of radio broadcast schedules for Tuesday, August 13, 1946, listing various programs and their times.

Smith said they expected to finish the work in "about two weeks," and promised the board had given them permission to take the equipment.

The hearing, with the courtroom packed, was the climax to the town's greatest excitement since the famous "Scottsboro Case" involving Negroes charged with raping a white woman.

The Revenue Board, created by the 1945 legislature, said it was powerless to handle the road work because the legislative act called for a state-certified superintendent which the county had not been able to secure.

The citizens group—described as "mature, independent men, including some veterans"—seized the machinery Saturday and took it to the Sand Mountain area, where the complaining citizens live.

Smith said they expected to finish the work in "about two weeks," and promised the board had given them permission to take the equipment.
