Oregon Fox and Mink Assn. to Meet Here

The Oregon Fox and Mink Assn. has announced the program for a one-day summer school to be held for its members in Eugene Monday, Aug. 26, from 10 a. m. to 4
p. m.

Speakers who will address the fur growers at their meeting at Skinner's Butte Park will include Dr. W. E. Castle, University of California authority on genetics; Dr. O. J. Hummon, fur bearing animal veterinarian of Auburn, Wash.; Mike Boderer, manager of the Seattle fur exchange; R. F.
Gorman, associate publisher of the Fur Journal (Seattle); Floyd Marsh, delegate to the national board of fur farm organizations, Portland; and Archie Gardner, president of the Oregon Fox and Mink Assn., Salem.

Local fur breeders attending the session are asked to bring extra food for a potluck luncheon to be served out-of-town speakers and guests.

DOGWOOD BLOOMS AGAIN

Another tardy dogwood blossom was brought into The Register-Guard office Friday by Burr Fisher of Hayden Bridge Road. Dogwood, he says, normally blooms in May. This seems to uphold a long-standing claim that trees do not use the Gregorian calendar.

PLUMBERS' CASE UP

The Wage Adjustment Board in Washington, D. C., is expected to consider the wage increase of members of Eugene Plumbers Local 481 Friday, according to C.
L. Hart, business agent.

Canada is the world's greatest producer of asbestos.

Scouts Attend Midwest Meet

Four delegates from the local Tasquin Lodge of the Order of the Arrow, national Boy Scout camp honor society, have left Eugene for the national lodge convention at Chanhute Field, Ill.

Driving to the convention which will be attended by more than 2000 members, are Ernest A. Seaton, assistant scout executive of the Oregon Trail Council and camp director of Camp Lucky Boy; Allan Lindley, local lodge chief and Eagle Scout from the Sea Scout Ship Enterprise; Donovan Kimball, chairman of the lodge brotherhood honor committee and Eagle Scout from Troop 59, Trent, and Keith Anderson, member of the lodge executive committee from Troop 2.

The party will attend the convention on Aug. 27, 28, and 29 and will return to Eugene by way of Glacier National Park. While Seaton attends a regional scout executives' meeting at Glacier Park from Sept. 2 to 8, the three scouts will camp and hike in the Glacier area.

Viola B. Young

Viola B. Young, 79, who lived in Springfield from 1889 to 1939, died Thursday at the home of her daughter in Vancouver, B. C.

Eugene Register-Guard, Eugene, Ore., Friday, Aug. 25, 1946, Page 3

She was born in Missouri, living most of her life in Springfield until moving to Vancouver in 1939 after the death of her husband, Ira T. Young.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. A. L. Neyhart, Vancouver; Mrs. Myrtle M. Powers, of Walker, Ore.; and Mrs. B. M. Hencirson, California; one sister, Mrs.
Charles Hayes, Portland; a brother, Jacques, of Springfield; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Bartholomew-Buell Mortuary in Springfield Saturday at 11 a. m. with the Rev. Claude O'Brien officiating. Interment will be in Laurel Hill Cemetery.
