Monroe Mothers Plan Hot Lunch Program

MONROE—Monroe Mothers Assn. met in the grade school kitchen recently to complete plans for the hot lunch program for the coming school year. Mrs. John Neiswanger was made head of the school kitchen with Mrs. Muriel Thorsen as helper. Both women are of the community here. Mrs. Neiswanger served as helper last year.

Serving of lunches will begin at the grade school Sept. 10. The price per lunch is the same as last year, 15c to the child. In addition to this, the Government aid is nine cents per child. This allows for a Grade A lunch value of 24c which has proven most satisfactory here in the past.

Mrs. Marguerite Stone is treasurer and is in charge of collecting. The hot lunch program has proven popular in the district. Between 80 and 90 were served daily all last year, and officers of the association say that they expect at least that many, if not more, this year.

New Coach Arrives

The new coach at the Monroe High School, John B.
