

MRS. HEATON

Wedded last Sunday at Central Presbyterian Church was Mrs. Merris Eugene Heaton (Joyce Jordan), young Eugene singer, whose home will continue to be in the city.

Joyce Jordan is Bride in Ceremony Sunday at Central Presbyterian Church

Radiant bride of Sunday was Miss Joyce Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew James Jordan, whose marriage to Merris Eugene Heaton was solemnized at three o'clock in the afternoon at Central Presbyterian Church. Dr. Norman K. Tully read the wedding service, before assembled friends and relatives. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Maton of McCloud, Calif. The church was decorated with baskets of fall flowers in shades of salmon, gold and lavender.

Dr. E. Stevens, church pastor, who played the wedding march, also played organ duets before the ceremony. Robert D. Hays (Patricia Hays) sang "I Love Thee" as a solo, and a trio, Hays, Miss Evelyn Olson and Miss Lucile Olson, sang the "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner, just before the entrance of the bride.

Miss Jordan entered with her mother who gave her hand in marriage. She wore a gown of white satin, the richly ornamented except by a pointed yoke of tuckings, and a round neckline. The gown was fitted at the waist and had a long, full skirt. Her fingertip-length train was held in place by a narrow crown of seed pearls and tulle. She carried a white bouquet, borrowed from Mrs. A. Hope, Jr., and upon it was a white orchid with silver streamers.

Best man of honor was her brother, Mr. Kenneth Hulse, who wore a gown of broad satin with blue, with silk lace mitts matching shade, and a curved, full plume of ostrich in pink worn as head covering. She carried an orchid.

Bridal attendants, Mrs. Clarence Wilcox, another sister, and Miss Lillian Purcell of McCloud, Calif., were identically dressed in gowns of pink brocade, with matching mitts, and with blue plumes upon their hair. They also carried orchids.

Carrying the rings were young nieces of the bride, Jeannine Hulse and Joan Wilcox, identically dressed in ruffled-trimmed gowns of white taffeta.

Best man was Stanley Hitchcock of McCloud, Calif., and ushers were Charman Correa, also of McCloud, and Frederick and Kenneth Hulse of Eugene.

Reception Held Immediately following the ceremony, a reception to guests was held in Fellowship Hall, adjoining the church where masses of pastel-hued fall blooms were decoration.

Mrs. Walter Bearsto greeted guests at the door, and Mrs. Robert Pearson had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Edna Leslie Pearson cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Keith McMillan.

B.P.W. Club Today Begins National Week

By ANN CONNELL
THIS week the nation makes its bow to the business woman, in National Business Women's Week, October 13-19. In Eugene, the week will be marked by special observances, sponsored by the Eugene Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mrs. E. C. Hall has been named chairman of the week by the club president, Miss Elizabeth Richard. The theme is that adopted by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, "Let's Work Together for Better Communities."

This theme will be the topic for an address by Dr. Edna Landros at the main event of the week, a dinner Thursday evening at the Osburn Hotel, to which numerous guests have been invited. Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, a past president, has been invited to introduce the speaker, and there will be musical numbers, both solos and community singing. Radio talks will be given by club members Monday over both radio stations, dealing with various interests of the local B.P.W. Club, to introduce the week.

Bonne Heure dance club will open its winter season Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple, with a Halloween dance which is to be semi-formal. Mrs. Harry M. Schrenk is chairman of the committee, which includes Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Coombs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goettling, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fenn and Harry M. Schrenk. Dancing will be from nine to twelve o'clock.

Mu Phi Epsilon Patronesses Association will give its first fall tea event Thursday evening at eight o'clock at Gerlinger Hall, in honor of the active chapter and pledges. Mrs. Emerson Abbott is chairman, and will be assisted by Mrs. Wayne Akers. Mrs. Pierre Van Rysselberghe, program chairman, has secured George Hopkins of the school of music as guest artist for the evening. He will present a program on Latin American music.

December 10 has been set by the Eugene Women's Choral Club as date of its annual winter concert, which is to be held at McArthur Court. The chorus now boast a hundred and seven members, and among them are some of the finest voices in its history, according to Miss Maud Densmore, chairman. She adds that quality and balance of the group is especially good this year.
