Topic of Speaker
At B & P W Luncheon

A talk on world affairs was given by Mrs. Ralph Crow Thursday at the luncheon meeting of Eugene Business and Professional Women's Club at the Osburn Hotel. "The Cosmic World is as near to us as are things mundane," declared the speaker, referring to the "switch of the comet's tail" which was witnessed the previous evening.
Declaring that the "world is now so small" that things affecting one people must affect all, the speaker dwelt upon the rights of the minorities of the world, social, religious and political. She added that women were a minority group a few years ago, but they have progressed beyond that status in most countries.

Relating to the theme of world affairs, table decorations were ingenious. Strips of teletyped news copy, magazines, newspapers and the news mats and pictures which are part of their makeup, were used with lantern flowers and a centerpiece of asters.

Miss Elizabeth Richard presided, and Mrs. J. Prosser Stewart was program chairman. Roy Farrell, publicity man for the Polack Brothers Circus, was a speaker, telling of the indoor circus which will be presented at the Armory October 27-28 inclusive. The showing will be sponsored by the B&PW Club as a benefit for the park and play-
