Some of the world's most famous performers are featured in the 25 acts of the Pollack show—the remarkable Powers elephants, the Randow Brothers clowns, Sonny More's dogs and ponies, Miss Concha and Miss Cyse Odell on "the Spanish web"; Simonta La Terisinta, said to be the only aerialist in the world who can make the leap from trapeze to trapeze catching by the heels; the Flying Esquedas — and many others.

"Intimate circus" means circus so close to the audience that every act can be closely observed, and the Pollack show has played under roof in every city of the country from New York's Madison Square Garden to small, improvised halls, and the policy of splitting profits with some local benefit is long established.

"If we could have had the use of McArthur Court, it would have been better," says Roy Farrell, who will represent the show in Eugene. "Our biggest problem will probably be turning away many who will want to see the circus. But the Armory will do; we hope to come back year after year because Eugene has a remarkable record as an amusement town, and we hope that someday Eugene will have an auditorium."

The Business and Professional Women's Club adopted the enterprise only after a meeting at which the Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Eagles, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Central Labor Council, the Eugene Realty Board, the Lions Club, the Young Business Women, and Epsilon Sigma Alpha pledged support.

George H. Pratt, of the American Legion, agreed to act as general chairman of the undertaking and he has named the following committees:

Finances — W. A. Stevenson; Under-privileges children — Rev. McCallum; Ushers — Hazel Conaway; Ticket Sales — Elizabeth J. Richard; Publicity — newspaper and radio staffs. Ticket sales

Vocational Training For Retailing Offered

Eugene Vocational School announced Saturday that a new class in retail selling will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. daily Monday through Friday.

The class will include basic training in retail selling, package wrapping, store mathematics, merchandise information, cash register and display work. It is offered as an aid to retail merchants who would like to enroll their employees for additional training on a cooperative basis which would enable employees to work half time.

Additional information may be obtained from Eugene Vocational School at Fourth and Madison Sts.

will begin next Thursday at Miller's. Prices will range from $1 for general admission to $1.65 and $2.25 for reserved seats. School tickets will have a base price of 50 cents with a 40-cent price by groups.

Miss Elizabeth Richard, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club made this statement:

"We feel that this circus is an opportunity to see a very fine circus and at the same time make a substantial amount of money for the park and playground fund. But we do not want people to feel that this is the main campaign to build up the park and playground fund, because that city-wide campaign will still be held next spring as planned.

"That is why we asked all the other organizations to participate in our decision, and we are deeply grateful for the interest and cooperation they have shown. We hope to net at least $2500 for park and playgrounds from this circus, but we shall need a great deal more to complete the purchase of the Amazon tract and other park and playground improvements which are planned.

"We are offering a fine show, one that is quite different in many ways from the conventional tent shows. In many cities it is identified with the Shrine and the hospitals for crippled children. This is not the main effort for parks and playgrounds, but it seems like a grand opportunity to combine a substantial addition to our funds with a good time."

SPRINGFIELD City Planners Hold Rezoning Decision

SPRINGFIELD—The proposed rezoning of A, B and East Main Sts. to business classifications and the site for a new city hall were discussed by the City Planning Commission Friday night but no definite recommendations were made.

Planners said the rezoning proposal would require additional study before recommendations could be made. They indicated, however, that a definite set-back from the highway for new structures should be maintained to allow for possible future highway expansion.

The commission rejected a request from Roland Neidheiser to operate a karmelcorn stand on Sixth St. Spot rezoning of Seventh St. property to business classification also was rejected. R. E. Moody applied for the Seventh St. zone change to allow operation of a retail lumber yard.

Disaster Committee Meeting Announced

SPRINGFIELD—Walt Hansen, chairman of the Springfield Disaster Committee, has announced an organization meeting for Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Union High School.

The meeting will be public, Hansen said, and representatives of the county group will be present to review plans for the year. It is hoped to have a smoothly functioning group in the Springfield and Glenwood areas before flood season.

Hansen was appointed chairman of the Springfield group last week by Herb Armstrong, general chairman of the county committee. At the same time the appointment of Don Lane, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, as deputy chairman was announced.

Chairmen of Springfield area sub-committees appointed by Hansen are: Marvin Sanders, survey; Sheriff C. A. Swarts, rescue; Dr. Melville S. Jones, medical aid; Mrs. Spencer Alexander, clothing; American Legion Post 40, transportation; William Cyphert, housing; Allen Craig, registration; H. E. Maxey, public information. Chairman of the food committee had not been appointed Saturday.

Postal Receipts Show First Quarter Increase

SPRINGFIELD — An estimate that postal receipts for this final year will surpass the 1945 total was made Saturday by Postmaster Harry Stewart. He reported an increase of $929.28 for the first quarter, ending Sept. 30. Total receipts for the quarter were $10,255.98. Last year postal receipts exceeded $43,000.

The postmaster also estimated 275 letters have been posted nightly since mailing deadlines were advanced to 8:30 p.m. last week. The late mail dispatch is at 9 p.m., Stewart said, and cuts delivery time for most mail by about 12 hours.
