YORK, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The football season, a cockeyed one in which surprises are a dozen and nothing seems to reach the halfway mark this week with only a handful of major teams still clutching unblemished records.

tough opponents ready, willing and able to bluish their all-victorious records.

The cadets, who blasted Columbia from the unbeaten ranks 48-14, move into New York's Polo Grounds for their annual battle with Duke. The Blue Devils, warmed up for this one with a 41-0 whitewashing of Richmond.

Irish Meet Iowa

Notre Dame, idle last week, invades Iowa, which pulled one of Saturday's many surprises by blanketing Indiana 13-0. Texas, which dumped previously unbeaten Arkansas 20-0, visits Rice, an improved team that dropped Southern Methodist 21-7 for its third triumph since losing a 7-6 opener to Louisiana State.

HERMAN WEDEMAYER, St. Mary's 1945 All-American halfback (with ball) attempts a right end run and is hit by Fordham's Halfback Joe Andrejco (42) in first period of the game in New York's Polo Grounds. St. Mary's went on to win, 33-2.

Unbeaten Bruins Still Rated as Colossus Of Coast Despite Slim Margin Over Bears

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—(AP)—After last week's rugged football sessions, involving an upset or two, the West Coast gridiron story today remains the same—the best team until beaten is the University of California at Los Angeles.

The UCLA Bruins, perched atop the Coast Conference standings and four times winners over stout opposition, improved their position in the dash to the Rose Bowl with a 13-6 win over a surprisingly strong University of California eleven. The Bruins lined up 6 to 1 favorites. They were lucky to escape win whole skins.

Defeated, the Bears outplayed their southern cousins for a goodly part of the game at Berkeley which attracted some 65,000 fans. In some respects, the Bruins lost while winning. Their leading ground gainer and ace right halfback, Cal Ross, suffered a broken right leg, above the ankle. And their clever field general, southpaw quarterback Eric Case, went out of the contest with a broken nose.

Nevertheless, U.C.L.A. is setting the championship pace, unbeaten, and may have hurdled the toughest rivals, namely Oregon State, Washington, Stanford and California. Unless University of Southern California, pre-season conference favorite, has finally hit its stride.

Southern California heartened supporters with a sizzling comeback, after losses inside and out of the conference, by overwhelming Washington, 28-0. It was a resounding reply to the general question of what was wrong with a USC eleven that had bowed to Ohio State, 21-0 and to Oregon State, 6-0, the latter a league affair.

This week's headliner may give further light on the Southern California enigma. The Trojans journey to Palo Alto to take on the fast working Stanford Indians.

Some comparison between the championship-bound UCLA Bruins and the originally title-favored USC Trojans may evolve from the meeting between the Trojans and Stanford. The latter lost to UCLA, 26-6 and the consensus is the Trojans will have to have their warhorse in real racing condition this Saturday.

Stanford outscored Santa Clara, 33-26 in a non-conference test Saturday. Santa Clara's hitherto struggling outfit being a bit of a surprise package in the free-for-all. Santa Clara seems headed for another fall in its engagement with UCLA at Los Angeles this week-end, non-league in status.

Other conference contests on the Oct. 26 calendar send the up and coming California Bears against the Washington Huskies in the homecoming game at Seattle; Oregon State against Washington State at Pullman and Oregon against Idaho at Moscow.

Barring rainy weather, California's stout defensive play coupled with an increasingly improved offense, may keep the Bears in the race with a win over Washington. Oregon State, walloped by UCLA but upset winner over Southern California, rates over Washington State, although the latter played undefeated Oregon to a 0-0 tie on a wet field last week.

Oregon, with two conference wins, a tie but undefeated, appears too fast for Idaho, which has yet to win in or out of the circuit, its latest being a 26-14 setback by San Jose State College.

Montana, playing a lighter conference schedule than the rest and lower in its only bid thus far in the standings, takes on Utah State at Missoula.

L. Omlid Wins Golf Crown

An almost steady downpour failed to halt the final matches Sunday in the city golf tournament over the Laurelwood course. Lloyd Omlid defeated Glen Spivey, 2 up for the first city crown since 1942.

The pair slipped and skidded around the drenched course with amazingly good scores considering the weather conditions. Omlid shot a 73-78-151, and Spivey turned in a 76-77-152. Puddles of water on some of the greens forced the players to use irons on the greens to chip over.

In the first flight, Roy Morgan won the title by defeating Duane Omlid, 2 up in a 18-hole match and George Spicer trimmed Chuck Eaton, 1 up, for the second flight prize. John Geertzen had already won the third flight.

The victory gave Omlid the first lap toward permanent possession of the championship trophy presented by the Outdoor Store and an attractive trophy for one-time winners, both of which will be presented when they arrive from the manufacturer.

Billy Fox Winner Of Armory Battle

By MAE BALDWIN

Billy Fox continued his reign as king of the battle royals as he came out on top again Saturday night at the Armory arena, taking the decision from Tony Ross in sensational style. The seven-man skirmish filled the arena to capacity and a wild affair it was.

Entering the all-out battle were Ernie Pluso, Ike Cazell, the Gray Mask, Pete Belcastro, Karl Gray, Ross and Fox. Belcastro and Cazell attempted to continue their long-standing feud but were interrupted repeatedly as all concerned wished a chance at the Montana Indian. As Pete held Ike with a full nelson Fox downed Cazell with a dropkick, putting Ike out after six minutes. Pluso and Fox used the same trick to put Belcastro out in one more minute. The masked matman and Ross ganged up on Pluso to down him in another two minutes. Ross and the Gray Mask were unable to team together due to their mistrust in each other and the Mask took the task in his own hand of disposing of Gray in three minutes. With the aid of Tony, the Chicago artist issued such deadly dropkicks that the Gray Mask was completely dazed and down for the count in three minutes.

Thus the stage was set for the remaining action according to the routine of elimination. Gray and the hooded villain returned for the semi-final engagement. It seemed as if Karl had solved the puzzle as to how to combat the head-butting master but his stamina could not endure the terrific punishment. The Mask took the first fall in 14 minutes with a Boston crab. Gray worked to perfection his standing full nelson, taking the second fall in 11 minutes. The deciding battle between full nelsons and head-butting ended in four minutes as the Mask applied another Boston crab.

In the main event billing Ross tried desperately in various fashions to make a definite showing against Fox, but to no avail. Straight wrestling skill was of no use and as Tony resorted to fistic action, Fox was ready for him. Fox remained cool and in command no matter what treatment Ross dealt. The dynamic dropkick technique perfected by Fox was unsurpassed and he bounced Tony into the aisle to be counted out after 27 minutes, giving Fox the only fall.

Walt Achlu in the roll of referee was extremely busy and capable.

Rams Roll Over Detroit, 35-14

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—(AP)—A Los Angeles Ram professional football machine, gaining power as the National League season moves on, sent the Detroit Lions home Sunday on the short end of a 35-14 score.

Once again Bob Waterfield, Tommy Harmon and big Ed Jim Benton performed the spectacular, but Kenny Washington moved into the spotlight as the leading ground gainer per try. Before 30,111 fans, Washington averaged 6.12 yards in eight trips with the ball.

Other National League games saw Washington's Redskins, Eastern leaders, and the Chicago Bears, Western pacemaker, both win Sunday to stay undefeated in four games although each has been tied once. Washington dropped Boston, 14-6, and the Bears topped the Philadelphia Eagles, 21-14.

The New York Giants nipped the Chicago Cardinals, 28-24, to hold second in the Eastern half. Los Angeles' victory kept the Rams within a game of the Bears. Green Bay defeated Pittsburgh, 17-7. Only Boston and Detroit, neither of which has won a game, and the Cardinals were out of the race.

Six New Trout Plants To Be Built Soon

State Commission Supervisor Frank B. Lire reported the refrigeration unit would cost $125,000 and be located in North Portland to provide storage for fish food in quantities to assure supplies for the hatcheries.

Hatcheries will be located at Wizar on the Metolius river and at Anna Springs in Lake County. Three will be located on Oregon Coast streams not yet designated and the sixth will be in Northeastern Oregon.

Halloween, which arrives with all the havoc of a Florida hurricane, is upon us again, which means that Dad will start boasting of the days when he was the village cut-up and in the next breath warn the youngsters to behave themselves. It's the time when the kiddies playing "Trick or Treat" from house to house use all the persuasion of Chinese bandits and give us the privilege of paying tribute—or else!

It also is the evening when garbage cans need protection and mysterious helpful visitors apply soap to windows. When we decide we don't know what the younger generation is coming to, we might reflect that it wasn't the kiddies of today who invented Halloween pranks. The stunts they pull are old stuff but somehow never seem to lose their nuisance value. And can you remember, one Halloween night many years ago when...?

The Southeastern Conference slate sends Kentucky to Alabama, Auburn to Georgia Tech, Louisiana State to Vanderbilt and Mississippi State to Tulane. Other top-notch contests will find Florida at North Carolina, Richmond at Washington and Lee, William and Mary at VMI and Arkansas at Mississippi.

Oregon was extremely pleased with performance against the high school WSC forward as the season to date. The Cougars netted only 34 yards on offense, mostly in the opening minutes of play when they put up two of their three first downs from rushing.

Oregon will conclude its practice Wednesday afternoon, and arrive in time for a game on the Vandal turf Friday afternoon.

Browns Draw Large Pro Football Crowd

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The All-American Football Conference's first race, with the season half over, looks like a shoo-in for the unblemished Cleveland Browns.

Having beaten everybody in the league except the San Francisco 49ers, the Browns are perched at the peak looking down on seven clubs which have lost at least two each.

The winning ways have paid huge dividends at the gate, too. Sunday as the Browns beat back the threatening western section and place Los Angeles Dons by 31-14, a crowd of 71,134 poured $156,186.32 into the cash registers. That's the biggest crowd ever to see a professional league game, and it boosted the Browns' four-game at-home attendance to 232,068. Last year, in winning the National Football League title here before moving their franchise to Los Angeles, the Cleveland Browns drew only 72,000 for their first four games.

In Saturday night's contest New York stayed atop the eastern division with a 21-10 verdict over Brooklyn, giving the Yankees four wins, two losses and a tie, while Buffalo finally got into the winning column with a 17-14 conquest of the San Francisco 49ers.

Portland, Seattle Take Ice Hockey Lead

(Associated Press)

The Seattle Ironmen and Portland Eagles sit firmly atop the Pacific Coast (northern division) ice hockey league standings today, each with two wins, with Tacoma and Vancouver, B.C., bearing up under twin losses.

Seattle Seattle travels to Tacoma Monday and plays host to the Hollywood Wolves Wednesday.

Tacoma Wins Again In Coast Pro League

U. S. Net Stars Win Mexico Titles

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21.—(AP)—United States tennis players started home from the Pan-American tournament today after scoring a near-sweep of the titles, climaxed by Frank Parker's men's singles victory over Francisco Segura of Ecuador.

Parker, from Los Angeles, was defending the crown he won last year. Segura, a hardworking player who makes an effort to return every shot, held his own with Parker until the fifth set, when his leg muscles developed a cramp and he had to stop play for 10 minutes. Parker then ran out the victory, 6-4, 6-8, 8-3, 5-7, 6-1.

Parker and Bob Falkenberg of Hollywood won the doubles, 12-10, 6-3, 7-5, over Segura and Aelio Russell of Argentina. Segura played his normal game after a rest.

The women's doubles title went to top-seeded Margaret Osborne and Louise Brough of California as they defeated Pauline Betz of Los Angeles and Doris Hart of Miami, 6-3, 9-7. Miss Betz, U.
