PLEASANT HILL SCANS CROWDED SCHOOL PROBLEM
PLEASANT HILL—A potluck supper and card party were held at L. D. Garmire's home last Saturday.

The Pleasant Hill Grade School students donated 100 per cent to the Junior Red Cross fund.

A meeting was held last week at the grade school to decide what to do with so many students in the lower grades. A large number of parents were present and it was decided nothing can be done as far as more room is concerned for this year, but after lengthy discussion it was decided that some of the older students will help the lower grades as much as possible and that a high school girl will be hired to watch first and second graders outside from 2:30 until bus time in the afternoon.

Miss Estella Hann of the State Division of Vocational Education started her meetings at Yoncalla Wednesday at Red Cross rooms. The first five lessons will be devoted to making gifts, the last three lessons to remodeling clothes. Next Wednesday the lesson will be on stuffed toys. Each member is to bring own material. This lesson was articles made from felt. Mrs. Hood was elected chairman, and Mrs. Jean Cowan secretary-treasurer.

Wards I, II and III held meetings Monday afternoon at different times. Ward I met with Mrs. Lillie Brown, Ward II with Mrs. Vern Williams, and Ward III at the home of Mrs. Lee Bickens.

Personals
Word was received from Salem of the marriage of Miss Delight Heath to Lieut. Henry Frye, U.S.N., of Washington, D. C., on Sept. 27 at beautiful Grace Cathedral of San Francisco. Mrs. Frye is a former teacher in the Yoncalla High School.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, Oct. 18. The baby has been named Carlene Ann. Mrs. Meyers was Miss Charmaine Sefton.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bowman at their home last week.

An eight-and-a-half-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Knopp at the Booker Maternity Home Oct. 14. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hanan celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary Oct. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith's 27th wedding anniversary was Oct. 18, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee's 30th wedding anniversary was Oct. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and family of Los Angeles bought the Roe Service Station. Mr. and Mrs. Roe kept a small house and one-half acre of ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prater of Springfield, Mo., visited this week at the home of Mrs. Minnie Anderson. Paul is the son of a former Presbyterian pastor of Creswell and left here in 1916. He is planning to locate in the west.

Alvadore Report

ALVADORE—Friends wish to express sympathy to the family of Charles A. Vaughan, who died in his sleep with a heart attack at his home Tuesday. Vaughan was a resident of Alvadore three months.

Play equipment has been allowed by the school board to fulfill the requirements of a Standard Grade School.

Den Mother for the "Brownie Scouts" is Mrs. Walter Drews. Girls Scouts have as their new leader, Mrs. C. E. Manning, with Mrs. Emil M. Hansen, assistant leader. Boy Scoutmaster C. E. Manning and the newly appointed assistant master, Art Lauden, will announce fall meeting dates soon.

A multigraph was purchased by funds from the Community Club at its special meeting Oct. 21. Newly appointed committee chairman are: Mrs. Lewis Ranney, sick; Mrs. D. C. Ballard, program; Mrs. C. E. Manning, hospitality; Mrs. Fred Percell, membership, and Mrs. Roy Chambers, refreshment.

Creswell's News Week

CRESWELL—Sunday—Usual morning services in three churches.
7:30 p.m.—Sacred musical reading, Methodist Church.
Monday, 7:30 p.m.—Boy Scouts grade school.
Tuesday, 2 p.m.—Civic Club.
Wednesday, 2:30 p.m.—Self denial hour, Methodist Church.
Thursday, 4 p.m.—Girl Scouts, Methodist annex.
Friday, 2:30 p.m.—Mothers Club, grade school.

The first nomination of officers for the new year was held at the meeting of Honor Rebekah Lodge Wednesday evening. Mrs. Louise Reynolds and Mrs. Nyla Whitney were initiated into the order. Reports were given by Mrs. Norman Skaggs, Miss Lola Ringsdorf and Mrs. Dale Pitcher, who attended the recent state meeting of the F. L. Club at Ocean Park and the same group announced a food sale to be held at the IOOF clubrooms Saturday, October 26. Miss Ringsdorf, Mrs. Sidney Cooke, Mrs. Kenneth McCoy and Mrs. Louise Finch were appointed on the serving committee for the next meeting, November 13. Mrs. V. E. Groubeck and Mrs. Frank Sly will supply entertainment.

Mrs. Ben Miller has bought the lease of the Creswell Cafe on Oregon Avenue in the Red and White building of Mrs. Carl Brownell and has taken possession. As soon as equipment can be installed hot dinner sandwiches, chili and stews will be served with the present short orders and fountain supplies.

The Miller family comes from Junction City where they operated the same business. They are building a home in the Bohmstedt addition but until it is ready for use they are living in a cabin at the Shell Auto Court.

Chicken Pie!
Plans were made at the meeting of the Methodist Aid Society Wednesday afternoon at the church annex for the annual chicken pie supper and bazaar, at the annex Friday, Nov. 22, with the ways and means committee consisting of Mrs. E. W. Rand, Mrs. Charles Wetzel, Mrs. M. C. Redding, Mrs. L. A. Whitney, Mrs. John Westlake, Mrs. Carroll Bush, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. W. C. Adams, Mrs. Ted Green and Mrs. C. H. Atwood, under the direction of Mrs. Dale Pitcher, newly elected chairman of the social relations and local church activities.

Mrs. Atwood was welcomed as a new member. All members were urged to have their articles ready for the bazaar at an early date. Mrs. L. A. Whitney was elected corresponding secretary to fill a vacancy. Reports were given by Mrs. W. C. Adams and Mrs. J. E. Smith, who attended the recent state meeting of the WSCS in Portland. A self denial program will be observed at the annex Wednesday, Oct. 30 at 2:30 p.m. A silver offering will be received. The organizing of a junior church was announced, to be held each Sunday morning during the worship hour, led by Mrs. C. W. Groth in the annex of the church. Mrs. Whitney will have charge of the devotion at the next meeting and Mrs. J. M. Walkup will lead the program service.

Robert C. Ross, father of Mrs. W. B. Gillespie of Creswell, died at Sheridan Monday, with the funeral to be held in Eugene Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ross made their home in Creswell for many years, leaving only a few months ago to make their home near other children at Sheridan. Mrs. George Gwyther is a granddaughter of Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prater of Springfield, Mo., visited this week at the home of Mrs. Minnie Anderson. Paul is the son of a former Presbyterian pastor of Creswell and left here in 1916. He is planning to locate in the west.

Triangle P-TA Gives Teachers' Reception

BLACHLY-HORTON—A reception for the teachers of the Triangle School featured P-TA Wednesday evening at the school auditorium. Grove Lions Hear Need for Music Help

COTTAGE GROVE—F. D. Hollister, band director in the local public schools, spoke before the Lions Club at their meeting Thursday noon, presenting the urgent need for band instruments in the schools. Read and wind instruments are available, he stated, but in most instances are too high priced for the average family to buy. Several business representatives volunteered to help and the club decided to make this one of its major projects for the winter. Norman Richards, Kenneth Hickok, Joe Bricher, and Damon Scott were named a committee to push the matter. Angus Gibson, of Junction City, was a guest as were also Elmo Chase and Alton Baker of Eugene who met with the club directors in the interest of the forthcoming Community Chest drive. Vice-President Richards presided in the absence of Weinlauf, who is this week moving the Cottage Grove Cleaners to a new location. The club plans a Halloween "hard times" party for next Saturday night, in the Masonic Hall. This will be a combination party and dance, with the wives as invited guests.

The South Lane Easter Lily Growers will meet next Monday evening in the east room of the Armory. Important business is to be considered.

Mrs. Palmer Johnson was hostess Tuesday afternoon for a 1:30 dessert at the clubhouse on the golf course. Mrs. Brighton Leonard held high score at bridge during the afternoon. Next meeting is with Mrs. Larry Levens Nov. 5.

The Women's Missionary group of the Methodist Church met all day Wednesday with Mrs. Andrew Brund, observing self-denial week that more may be given to the needy. A large offering was received.
