

5-Bout Pro Boxing Card At Armory Friday Night

DUANE HOAG, sensational Portland featherweight, will meet Johnny Archuletti in the headline 10-rounder of a fight card at the Armory Friday night.

Hoag-Archuletti, Fox-Daniels Matches to Feature Fistic Show

COMPLETE PROGRAM

Main Event—Duane Hoag, 125, Portland, vs. Johnny Archuletti, 128, Denver, Ten rounds. Semi-Final—Bomber Daniels, 182, Los Angeles, vs. Billy Fox, 185, Cleveland, Ten rounds. Special—Davey Arndt, 159, Portland, vs. Kelly Jackson, 158, Seattle, Four rounds. Special—Sunny Jackson, 158, Oakland, vs. Johnny O'Dea, 160, Klamath Falls, Four rounds. Opener—Spider Archer, 116, Portland, vs. Jimmy Ortiz, 118, Salem, Four rounds.

expected to attract a near-capacity crowd for Eugene's first leather-pushing show since last December. Three Negroes and a pair of Mexicans are included in the field of ten mittmen.

Headlining the show will be a ten-round slugfest between dynamic Duane Hoag, the "Durable Dane" from Portland, and Johnny Archuletti, a two-fisted Mexican from Denver. Another ten-rounder will be served for the semi-final, matching Bomber Daniels, talented Los Angeles Negro, against Billy Fox, a revamped 185-pound wrestler from Cleveland.

The six boxers appearing in the three four-round preliminaries are rated as the best "club" fighters. The opener sends Spider Archer, Portland bantamweight, against Jimmy Ortiz, Mexican from Salem. Sunny Jackson, middleweight from Oakland, Cal., meets Johnny O'Dea, young Irishman from Klamath Falls, in the second prelim. Davey Arndt, 159-pound Portlander, tackles Kelly Jackson, Seattle Negro, in the third supporting bout.

Local sports followers won't be gambling on the main event. Hoag, who knocked Babe Fenton in two heats at McArthur Court last December, is a punch tosser like Henry Armstrong and his aggressiveness has earned for him the title of Buzz-Saw Hoag. Archuletti, the former stablemate of World Champ Manuel Ortiz, is no stranger to Hoag. The two featherweights battled to a draw about a year ago and this will mark their second meeting—and Hoag is pointing for a knockout.

The fireworks are certain to be set off in the other ten-rounder. Daniels carries dynamite in both fists, as his Bomber moniker indicates. For that reason Owen had difficulty matching him—until Wrestler Fox volunteered. The popular Cleveland grappler, who is an ex-Golden Gloves and Marine mittman, isn't certain he can go the route and will be shooting for an early knockout.

The steady demand for ringside seats indicates an excellent crowd, but the Club cigar store agency reports good seats still on sale. The program will get under way promptly at 8:30 p.m.

Hoop Exam Set Monday

The annual Oregon High School Activities Assn. examination for basketball referees will be held at Eugene High School at 8 p.m. Monday, according to Lyle Small, president of the Lane County Referees' Assn. Hoop officials must take the examinations to qualify as accredited prep school officials.

Kilgore vs. Compton

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 21—(AP)—Texas' undefeated, untied Kilgore Junior College today was named to play Compton, Cal., Junior College in the inaugural "Little Rose Bowl" football game here Dec. 7.

JENKINS SCORES KO

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 21—(AP)—Jew Jenkins, 138, Sweetwater, Tex., knocked out Ted Garcia, 134, Las Vegas, N.M., in the ninth round here Wednesday night.

UBC WINS OPENER

BELLINGHAM, Nov. 21—(AP)—The University of British Columbia, Northwestern champions of last year, defeated Western Washington College 59-53 in the opening basketball game here Wednesday night.

HIGHCLIMBER

By DICK STRITE

'Twas the week before the opening of the intercollegiate basketball season and what should appear but the slickest basketball booklet for press and radio we've ever seen come out of the Pacific Northwest—compiled and edited by Don H. Carlson of the University of Idaho athletic news bureau.

Although the pocket-sized booklet, printed and not mimeographed, is only 16 pages, it's chock full of vital information regarding the Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference—but mostly about Idaho's Vandals.

First thing a reader gathers is that Guy Wicks, prewar Idaho coach, faces virtually the same situation that Howard Hobson faced when he returned as head man of the Webfoots last year—the season after John Warren had taken a wartime Oregon quintet to the NCAA in Kansas City. Wicks takes up where Babe Brown left off—with the Vandals holding their first Northern Division gonfalon in 23 years and ten lettermen of an 18-man squad returning.

Leading the parade of lettermen is Fred Quinn, who gained All-American as well as Pacific Coast and Northern Division honors. Others well-known to local hoop followers are dynamic little Billy Carbaugh, gigantic John Phoenix, who stands at 6-feet, 9-inches, and deadeye Grant Mortensen.

Most interesting to us, however, was the discovery of the names of three newcomers, namely: Gerald F. Bourland, 6-foot, 3-inch, 145-pounder from West Frankfort, Ill.

Dick G. Hoffman, 5-foot, 9-inch, 170-pounder from Mankota, Minn. Don G. Robbins, 6-foot, 170-pounder from Indianapolis, Ind. This triple center trio played for the Walla Walla air base quintet last season, and according to report, wanted to come to Oregon—after registering at Moscow. Without these three newcomers, who are believed to be terrific, we'd predict the Idaho quintet would find the same rough going in the cascade circuit as Washington State's 1945 Northern Division football championship team found on the gridiron during the current season.

But with these three new men, Idaho may repeat—or at least make things interesting for Washington, Oregon and Oregon State. . . . We can't picture Dick Strite's WSC Column as anything but a "darkhorse."

From all indications, Eugene's new 1946-47 basketball league at McArthur Court is going to be positive with local hoop fans. But the league management will have to make some improvements—and will because of the difficulty in securing uniforms, several quintets will not have their regular suits for a week or two. . . . The "hump" in the ticket selling-during and the scoreboard keeping will be worked out soon. . . . The Associated Press club will be brought up from Hayward Field any day now . . . and the league is planning a P.A. system within the next few games.

Oregon J-V's, Firs Lead City Loop

Oilers Defeat Coos Bay Quint

CITY LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct.
Oregon Jayvees	2	0	1.000
Oregon Lumber Sales	2	0	1.000
Richfield Oilers	1	1	.500
Eagles Lodge	0	2	.000
Coos Bay Pirates	0	2	.000

City League basketball games at McArthur Court Wednesday night found the Oregon Lumber Sales "Firs" and the Oregon junior varsity tied for first place in the league race with two wins apiece. The Firs edged the Outdoor Store 42-36 and the Jayvees rallied in the second half to overcome the Eugene Eagles 37-32. In the nighttime, the Richfield Oilers broke into the win column by beating the winless Coos Bay Pirates 46-24.

The next tripleheader will be Monday night. Bobby Anet's Firs finished the game with only four men on the floor after Archie Marshik followed Anet and Frank Marshik to showers for too many fouls—with three minutes remaining in the second half. When Archie left the game the Firs were ahead 39-30, and the inspired Outdoormen flipped in three field goals during the last three minutes. Jack Burris and Ted Sarpola both connected with buckets that kept the Lumbermen in the lead, however.

The proposal to bring Army and Oregon State together was announced by a group of prominent Portland sportsmen. Aaron Frank, Portland merchant and sports enthusiast, said Wednesday night that Army had been invited for a New Year's Day game.

A local sports writer, after a discussion with Frank, said that a shift of the game date and a fade-out of the Portland backers after preliminary plans were laid, would meet conference objections.

Coach Lon Stiner at Oregon State said "I am not informed about it and I have no comment to make." Frank said that "everyone wants to see Army, and Oregon State, after a slow start, has developed into one of the strongest teams on the coast."

OSC-Army Grid Clash Talked

Portland Plans Game

PORTLAND, Nov. 21—(AP)—Oregon State College officials said today the proposal for a New Year's Day game between Army and Oregon State was highly infeasible because of Pacific Coast Conference rules. C. V. Ruzek, Oregon State faculty representative and former president of the conference, said the rules specifically forbid any conference team playing in a bowl game the same day that the Rose Bowl contest is staged. Ruzek added the rules also forbid a PCC school participating in a game in which a third party is involved, such as the Portland group who made the proposal.

President A. L. Strand of Oregon State said such a game would be interesting, but had no comment. OSC's coach, Lon Stiner, could not be reached.

Saint Sextet In Title Tilt

The Jacksonville Indians, perennial Southern Oregon six-man football champions, will invade Civic Stadium Friday night to meet St. Mary's Catholic High of Eugene for the Western Oregon "B" championship. Game time will be 8 p.m.

Little is known about the southerners, the Indians keeping the Saints in the dark regarding their team personnel and season's record.

The Galloping Gaels of Eugene, Lane County titlists, boast a record of ten straight victories and no defeats this season. Averaging more than 40 points per game, the Saints attack has been mostly aerial—with little Bob Batholomew completing 58 of his 84 attempts. On the receiving end of these passes have been Center Bob Kransneski, 12 for touchdowns, and End Don Dendauw, who has caught six six-pointers.

Leading the ground attack has been Fullback Jack Greig, who has averaged 160 yards gained per game.

St. Mary's uses a spectacular style of attack with many laterals and both completed forward passes and running gains.

Other leading members of the Gaels sextet are End Don Furrer, Halfback Ted Brandt, a deadly blocker, and Ted Pcpinski, a triple-threat who can play any three of the backfield positions. The St. Mary's team is extremely light, averaging less than 150 pounds.

Should St. Mary's win its game Friday night a challenge will be issued Pilot Rock, Eastern Oregon champions, for a state title tilt either here or at Pilot Rock.

Webfoot Trio Played In 20-0 OSC Defeat

Oregon State's Beavers will not have the "Indian sign" on three of the Oregon Webfoots who invade Corvallis Saturday for the 50th meeting between the two intrastate rivals in the traditional "Civil War" grid battle.

Quarterback Duke Iversen and Ends Hymie Harris and Tony Cish were members of Tex Oliver's 1940 aggregation that invaded Corvallis as underdogs and came out of the mud with a 20-0 upset victory. But that has been the only Oregon football victory over O.S.C. since 1935—and the Beavers have won four straight, including last year's twin bill by 19-6 and 13-12 counts.

Another wet, soggy grid appears inevitable for Oregon State's "Reunion after Tokyo" Homecoming. Both squads have had sufficient opportunity to prepare for the "Mud Bowl" contest in which the Beavers rule 2-to-1 and a three-touchdown favorite.

Coach Lon Stiner's Beavers have come far since an opening defeat, climaxing the comeback with a 28-7 victory over California last week—while Oregon was suffering its third straight whitewashing, 16-0 to Washington.

Oregon, never at full strength during the season, will come closer to that status this week—in the Webfoots final game of the season. Although there are still numerous cripples, every member of the squad is expected to be sufficiently recovered from injuries to see some action.

Over at Corvallis, the Beavers will be even stronger than in recent weeks, with Halfback Lee Gustafson and several others returning to service for the first time in several weeks.

The Webfoots, although handicapped by weather conditions, have gone through a week of intensive training for this finale, and a final scrimmage session was on deck for Thursday. A light workout will be held Friday.

JCC Boxers Training At Armory Quarters

Five local amateur boxers are working out regularly at the Eugene Junior Chamber of Commerce training quarters at the Armory. The quintet includes Denny Quinn, Dean McCall, Dewey Bolderjack, Chuck Squires and Rusty Wilder. A group of University of Oregon students, including Heavyweight Jim Shephard, are expected to join the training sessions on Monday, Tuesday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. The mittmen are planning an inter-club match against the Chemawa Indians here Dec. 13.

Team Match Tops Saturday Mat Card

The weekly Saturday night wrestling show at the armory, which will be headlined by an outstanding team match between the Frankie Hart-Billy Goeltz duo and the Tony Ross-Jack Lipscomb team, was completed today when Matchmaker Don Owen announced that Karl Gray and Sammy Cohen would meet in the opener.

The semi-final match had already been announced, featuring the Gray Mask against Tex Porter. The opener will get underway at 8:30 p.m. and the entire show promises to be one of the best offered at the armory in recent months.

The Goeltz-Hart team will probably be the fastest pair of grapplers ever to get together. Goeltz, the Atomic Blond from Chicago, is being hailed as the fastest man in the ring today, and Hart has exhibited first-rate speed and agility in his appearances here.

An extra $300 purse will go to the winning team and the meanie pair of Lipscomb and Ross will probably spare no effort to walk off with the money and a victory over the highly-touted team of speed merchants.

Considerable interest will be shown in the supporting program. The Mask will be making his first appearance here in a regular match in several months. He appeared in last week's battle royal and appeared to have lost none of the villainous effectiveness which made him one of the most hated men ever to step into the armory ring.

Seattle Sextet Wins 13th Hockey Victory

The San Diego Skyhawks' plans to gain on leading Hollywood in the Pacific Coast Hockey League, southern division, were thwarted Wednesday night by a 1-0 setback at the hands of Fresno. Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 4-1, and in the northern division, the leading Seattle Ironmen rolled up their 13th victory in 19 games by stopping New Westminster 6-2.

Six Quintets to Vie In Springfield League

SPRINGFIELD—Six local basketball teams have entered the Industrial Basketball League here, according to Ray Stratton, president of the league.

League practice will be held on Wednesday in the junior high gym, E. and Mill Sts. The league is sponsored by Willamalane Park and Recreation District.

Coast-Western Deal Blasted

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21—(AP)—Pacific Coast Conference officials here today privately expressed disappointment over the Berkeley Rose Bowl decision, but the public at large was not so discreet.

Interested observers, alumni spokesmen, sports experts, and literally hundreds of gus fans didn't wait to be asked for an opinion on the Pacific Coast-Big Nine bowl pact which slammed the gate on Army.

There was a healthy minority who didn't like the agreement in any form. They opposed the closed-door policy against other teams, principally from the South and Southwest which have provided the bowl history with many a colorful chapter—win or lose.

Particularly painful was the suggestion as reported from the East that the conference was afraid to meet the great Army outfit. That one hurt, for it was UCLA and USC, who meet Saturday for the right to represent the Far West in the Rose Bowl, which led the losing battle at Berkeley to bring the Cadets to the bowl.

There were other phases in the agreement that many could not understand, especially the one which seemingly gives the Big-Nine authority to designate, if not name, the Eastern opponent for the last two years of the five-year contract.

One football writer headed his column as an obituary, leading off with, "In memoriam J. L. Rose Bowl, 20, 1946."

In the Southeastern Conference the coaches who have sent 11 teams to Pasadena since 1911 weren't shedding many tears, but they were critical, nonetheless.

Coach Bernie Moore of Louisiana State said the lock-out "is the biggest mistake the Rose Bowl ever made. The Sugar, Orange and Cotton bowls certainly have an opportunity now to take the traditional National championship away from the Rose Bowl."

Army Cadets Bid to Sugar Bowl

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 21—(AP)—U. S. Military Academy officials said they might have an announcement soon on Army's position on bowl football games, with possible confirmation or denial of a reported invitation of Army to the Sugar Bowl.

The United Press at Atlanta was told by a reliable authority that Army's great team, unbeaten in three years, already has been officially asked to play the New Orleans New Year's game.

The Army forces obviously were disappointed at failure to get the Rose Bowl bid, and no comment on other bowl games.

The Army Engineers have perfected a four-pound water rationing unit capable of producing a half gallon a minute.
