

Grove Lions Club 'Kicks Off' for Chest

COTTAGE GROVE—Lions Club Thursday heard Bob Hutchinson of Eugene and Marvin Sanders of Springfield give information and pointers on the Community Chest drive. Sanders told of difficulties met in Springfield and how they were overcome. The Thursday meeting served as the "kick-off" luncheon here and Warren Hansen, chairman of the business district concerns having less than five employees, appointed Floyd Githens to head the soliciting group east of Sixth St. with Art Weinkauf as captain of the team soliciting west of Sixth St. Each captain selected teams of six men to assist. They are to solicit seven business houses each, and the round will be made immediately.

Mrs. Kenneth Hickok is the new pianist for the Lions Club, having started last week. The club made tentative plans for having the annual banquet for the football squad at the high school cafeteria the week after Thanksgiving. Business and Professional Women's Club meets next Monday at Landon's for a 7 p. m. dinner. A short business session will precede the dinner. Program is in charge of Miss Eleanor Scott, chairman of the education committee. Speakers will include Kenneth Hickok, general chairman of the Community Chest drive here, Art Weinkauf for the Boy Scout council, Mrs. G. S. Davies for the Girl Scouts and Damon Scott for the summer recreation program.

If transportation is desired, call Mrs. Adella Hatch, 125-R or Mrs. Grace Cowan 273-L. Cars will leave the entrance to Omer Apartments, North 6th St. at 6:30 p. m. Reservations for the dinner should be made in advance, call either of the above telephones.

The National Honor Society at the union high school, through a committee composed of Jane Beldier, Beverly Whitlock, Herald Witherspoon, with Miss Joyce Smith, adviser, has drawn up an

Cheshire Employees Turn Down Union

CHESHIRE—Employees of the Van Dyne and Johnson Lumber Co. here voted in favor of no union at an NLRB election held last week. Of the 32 employees there were 16 votes cast for no union, eight for AFL, and four for CIO. Four employees did not vote.

Huge truck loads of turkeys are seen daily from this and nearby communities headed out to the various poultry dressing plants for the holiday market.

Leslie Cheshire went to Portland Monday to take a four weeks special training in the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph mechanical division.

Frankie Jackson is on a business trip to Seattle and other Washington cities, this week.

Donald Hise recently has taken delivery on a new 1946 Chevrolet coupe.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy gave a birthday dinner Wednesday evening at their home in Junction City for Rupert Parks and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parks.

assembly schedule for the school year. The Girls' League and Boys' Federation will have monthly assemblies on the last Friday of each month. On the other Fridays special assemblies are planned for the various organizations, classes and clubs. A definite schedule will be published soon.

Several men of the local faculty, both grade and high school, are planning to attend the meeting of the Lane County Schoolmaster's Club at Roosevelt Junior High in Eugene next Monday evening.

Members of the First Methodist Church assembled Tuesday evening in the church dining hall for a Thanksgiving dinner prepared and planned for by the Men's Brotherhood. Rev. Frank Brown entertained the youngsters with projector and slides showing Bible pictures, while the adults heard a talk given by Lloyd C. Parsons of Yoncalla. A feature of the evening was a ladies sextet composed of Mrs. Jane Harris, Mrs. Mildred Saffley, Mrs. Elsie Brown, Mrs. Wynne Monroe, Mrs. George Gamet, and Mrs. England, accompanied by Walter Kendall at the piano.

Research Club enjoyed an unusual program Tuesday evening when they met at the home of Mrs. H. A. Hagen and the hostess gave a review of Edwin Stringham's "Listening to Music Creatively," giving demonstration with records. Mrs. Edwin Rickard and Mrs. Parrott, of Latham, were welcomed as new members. The club will meet next, Dec. 3 in the library.

Degage Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Littleton Leaster and cards were the entertainment. Names were drawn for Christmas gift exchange. Next meeting is with Mrs. Charles Young, Dec. 3. The Christmas party is Dec. 17.

Miss Marion Hess, assistant state vocational home economics supervisor, of Salem, spent Tuesday visiting the department in the local high school. Making her first visit here, she expressed a good deal of pleasure in the home economics set-up here.

Junction Firemen Battle Flax Fire

JUNCTION CITY—The Junction City firemen answered a call to Irving Wednesday afternoon where a fire was raging in the flax plant. The building was saved but the baled flax burned. Irving and Bethel firemen also answered the call.

Thanksgiving Day union services will be held this year in the Christian Church. The speaker will be Rev. Carl B. Mason of the Methodist Church. Date and time, Thursday, Nov. 28 at 10 a. m.

New VFW Auxiliary
Women interested in becoming charter members of the Auxiliary to Junction City Post No. 4304, "Veterans of Foreign Wars," should contact Mrs. J. J. Ray at De's Radio Shop as soon as possible. The auxiliary will be instituted Wednesday, Dec. 4, 8 p. m. at a stated meeting with the Post. Preliminary meeting for the purpose of conducting necessary pre-institution business will be held at Mrs. J. J. Ray's home, 621 Catherine, at 8 p. m., Monday Dec. 2. All women eligible by reason of having paid their charter fees are earnestly requested to be present both Monday, Dec. 2 and Wednesday, Dec. 4, by the following committee: Ruth Ray, Edna Sherman, Ellen Karch and Lois Rogers.

Legion Cafe Re-opens
Completely renovated and redecorated, the Legion Cafe will have its grand re-opening Saturday, Nov. 23, under the management of Addie Bogan. Mrs. Bogan was formerly the manager of the dining room for the Henry Thiele Restaurant in Portland, and served in an executive capacity for a number of years at the Mona Lisa Cafe in Los Angeles as well as a long tour of duty at the Timberline Lodge and the Columbia Gorge Hotel.

Monday, 3 p. m. Brownie Scouts at Grade School.
After school, practice for Rainbow initiation, Masonic Hall.
7:30 p. m.—Boy Scouts, Christian Church Hall.
8—American Legion.
8—American Legion Auxiliary, initiation.

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Vets Farm Training program high school agriculture department.
8—OES.
Wednesday, 3:45 p. m. Junior chair, grade school.
7:30—Adult gym class, grade school.

8—Film at Methodist Church. Luther League.
IOOF, Masonic Hall.
The bazaar of the Lutheran Ladies Aid was well attended Wednesday with a substantial amount being earned. General chairman was Mrs. Hubert Beck. More than 225 dinners were served during the evening.

The Silver Tea and bazaar of the Methodist WSCS was very successful last Wednesday, Nov. 13, with a large attendance at the Silver Tea in the afternoon and a capacity crowd for the chicken-noodle dinner in the evening.

Masonic Groups
Rainbow for girls met Monday, Nov. 18, at the Masonic Hall. Plans were made for a Christmas party. Next meeting will be Dec. 2, 7:20 p. m., with initiation.

Daughters of the Nile met Tuesday evening, Nov. 19 at the Masonic Hall and worked on quilts for the Shrine Hospital which is their project at the present time. A Christmas party preceded by a 6:30 p. m. potluck dinner to which husbands will be guests, was planned for the next meeting. Junction City Home Extension Unit met recently with Mrs. Wm. King. Mrs. Wilfred Swenson, assistant hostess. Mrs. Ira Peterson gave a demonstration on making swags. Maxine Pettitjohn, assistant Home Extension Agent, led discussion in the topic "Developing Charm of Manner." Next meeting is Dec. 11 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Crenshaw. Topic will be "Poultry Cooking."

Youth Singers
A Junior Choir has been started

BURGESS
HEARING AID
BATTERIES
LIGHTNING'S
1151 Willamette Phone 1316

Floor Lamps
Garrett Appliance Co.
Miner Bldg. Phone 2708

Zemaco!
Guaranteed Relief
From Poison Oak
Penny Wise Drug
40 E. Broadway 759 W. 8th

KUPPENHEIMER
CLOTHES
Byrom & Kneeland
THE MAN'S SHOP
32 East 10th

Turvey's Paint
Shop
Specializing in . . .
Complete Paint Jobs
for All Cars

Day & Nite Garage
Cliff Turvey, Sr. — Paint Shop
645 Olive Phone 206

buy that
HOUSE
We like to see "Yes" to loans of $25 to $2500 or more.

NU-ENAMEL
Looks Best—Stays Best
SIGWART'S

Worship God
In His appointed way at
Townsend Hall Basement
8th & Lincoln, Eugene
Every Saturday
2 P. M.

at the grade school for children of the sixth, seventh, or eighth grades. Practicing is each Wednesday evening in the Music Room following school. Mrs. S. G. Staal is pianist and the choir is directed by Rev. Carl Mason. Plans are for the choir to take part with the senior and adult choirs of the Methodist Church in a choral program for Christmas at the church.

A nursery has been started at the Methodist Church where mothers may leave small children during church hours. Nursery is in charge of the Susanna Society with members in attendance each Sunday.

Friendship Club met Tuesday with Mrs. Mable Lorang. Mrs. Carl Mason was assistant hostess. Work was done on scrapbooks for children in the hospitals at Christmas. Next will be the Christmas party and gift exchange at the home of Mrs. Soren Madson, Dec. 17. A potluck lunch will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cuendet announce their purchase of the interest in the Pine Grill Cafe held by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Monroe and now have complete ownership and operation of the cafe. The Monroes left Tuesday for Duluth, Minn., where they are seeking a new location.

Warne Empey, grade school principal, was appointed chairman of the Boy Scout Lane district nominating committee at the district meeting in Eugene Tuesday evening. Empey's committee is to select candidates for district officers who will be elected at the annual meeting of the district Dec. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rehart of Van Nuys, Calif., announce the birth of a daughter. The mother was Jean Mohler before her marriage and a niece of H. L. Mohler. She graduated from Junction City High School with the class of 1944.

Capt. L. W. Siegman is at home on terminal leave. He has been stationed at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas.

Mrs. Downs of Portland, wife of the late Rev. Downs, a former pastor of the Junction City and Riverview Churches, is a house guest of Mrs. Anna Moore in the Riverview District. She is also visiting at the Annie Edwards home.

Creswell Civic Club Has Special Program

CRESWELL—Miss Pettitjohn, assistant county agent, will speak on "Charm of Manner" at Civic Club Tuesday, November 28 with the Home Economics committee consisting of Mrs. C. H. Harrold, Mrs. F. P. Clack and Mrs. V. E. Grousbek as hostesses. A cordial invitation is extended to anyone interested. The roll call is "Thanks." Officers will be elected and a shower of vegetable dishes, tea towels and table spoons for the club house will be held.

Mrs. Maurice Lower is helping with work in the postoffice. R. Kennedy of Eugene has bought the mill west of town operated by the West Willamette Lumber company and has taken possession. Clyde Taylor, formerly of Creswell, son-in-law of Kennedy is in charge. Marion Miller of the former mill company has bought a house and half acre tract in the Holbrook addition of Byron Breathers, who has moved with his family to Klamath Falls.

Calendar
Tuesday, 2 p. m.—Civic Club.
Wednesday, 8 p. m.—Honor Rebekah Lodge.
Thursday, 4 p. m.—Cub Scouts at Grange Hall.

Masons and Eastern Star and families numbering 50 enjoyed a social evening Saturday at the grange hall. Several were present from Oakridge.

A company of 54 was present at the potluck supper of the Cub Scouts at the grange hall Tuesday evening. They plan a father and son banquet early in the year.

The VFW and Auxiliary enjoyed a social time and an oyster feed following the business meeting of the VFW at the IOOF Hall Monday evening. Guests were present from Springfield.

Officers were elected at WSCS of the Methodist church at the church annex Wednesday. Mrs. J. E. Smith who has served as president for several terms will take over the duties of recording and corresponding secretary. Mrs. E. W. Rand will succeed her as president. Mrs. Frank Sly was re-elected vice-president and Mrs. J. M. Walkup as treasurer. The following secretaries will serve: missionary, Mrs. Charles Wetzell and Mrs. John Bonnett; social relations and local church activities, Mrs. L. A. Whitte; student and youth work, Miss Helen Vick; children's work, Mrs.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

THE BEAUTY HUNT

OUT OUR WAY

C. W. Groth; literature and publications, Mrs. H. A. Howe; supplies, Mrs. C. H. Atwood; spiritual life, Mrs. W. C. Adams; membership, Mrs. Dale Pitcher, Mrs. C. Scarborough, Mrs. Leonard Young, Mrs. John Westlake; fellowship, Mrs. F. W. Ogram, Miss Myrtle Smith, Mrs. C. I. Kent, Mrs. Ted Green; status of women and publicity, Mrs. Kent. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Tendick will serve as the church greeting committee for December.

Presbyterian Aid Society met at the church Wednesday. Final arrangements were announced for the annual dinner and bazaar, Dec. 6. Next meeting is with Mrs. A. J. Gabriel with Mrs. A. W. Scherwing assisting hostess. An exchange of gifts will be held with price not to exceed 50c.

Work on one quilt was completed and another one started at the recent meeting of the Cloverdale Ladies Club. Committees for the Dec. 5 Christmas program were appointed: decorations, Mrs. Russell Tendick, Mrs. Oliver James; program, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Leonard Tendick; refreshments, Mrs. Helen Hemmelgarn and Mrs. W. L. Scott.

Mrs. Dale Pitcher entertained FL Club Tuesday evening. Plans were made for the Christmas pupils sang. Mrs. Kaldahl's pupils played a flute number, and banjo solos were played by a former student, Douglas Wilson. The next meeting is Jan. 21, 1947.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

This week the Danebo girls of Eugene High played volleyball against the girls of Danebo. Danebo winning by a score of 28 to 21. The Danebo boys of Colin Kelly school basketball team played against the Danebo boys, the score was Danebo 19, Colin Kelly 16.

Persons
Mrs. Alvin Bertelsen is recuperating at the Sacred Heart Hospital from a recent major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fish and daughter Christina have returned home after visiting Mrs. Fish's mother in Boston, Mass.

OUT OUR WAY

Danebo's Oldest Resident Honored
DANEBO—Mrs. Karen Lassen was entertained on her 96th birthday Monday at the home of her daughter-in-law Mrs. Marie Lassen, with 15 of her oldest friends present. Among her many gifts was a big birthday cake decorated with pink and white rosebuds. Her favorite Danish hymns were sung. Rev. Olsen spoke.

Mrs. Lassen held open house on Sunday afternoon and Monday evening for all of the many relatives and friends, including four of her children, ten grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

The 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bertelsen and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jensen will be observed in the church parlors Sunday evening 8 p. m.

P-TA met Tuesday with six new members added. A play, "Buying Eggs" was presented by Hadsells' room. Mrs. Chapman's meeting, with Mrs. Kenneth McCoy, Dec. 17, when an exchange of gifts will be held. A number for the IOOF-Rebekah Christmas program was also planned.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Wendling Carnival
WENDLING—The Union High School will hold annual carnival Monday, Nov. 23, at 7:30 p. m. in the gym.

The Methodist Church held a "Fun Night" Saturday, Nov. 23, at 7:30 p. m. There were games, entertainment, movies. Everyone of the community is invited.

At the Sunday morning service November 24, Rev. Hambleton show the religious film "A Faith." Everyone invited.

The Mohawk Grade School the Wendling Grade School teachers were honored at a reception at the Wendling Grade School recently. On the program: Mrs. John Swofford, Mrs. John Van Cleave, Evelyn Fisher, Mabel Steinberger, Mrs. Cofer, Ann Downing, Gladys son, Anna Gardiner and Coferman.

Sheppard's
Ranch Cottages
Vida, Oregon
On the McKenzie
Open All Winter
Ph.—Long Dist. thru Eugene

GRAY'S REMEDY
Relief from Rheumatism,
Aches and Pains, Lumbago,
Lame Back.
Tiffany-Davis Drug Co.

Kem-Tone
Miracle One-Coat
Wall Finish

Johnson Furniture Co.
646 Willamette Ph. 1693

buy that
CASH
We like to see "Yes" to loans of $25 to $2500 or more.

"BETTER!"
KORN'S BREAD

SELBY
ARCH PRESERVER SHOES
Exclusively at BURCH'S
1047 Willamette

STYLE
NOTES
from
MORRISON-HENNING
Store for Men

RIPON LOAFER SOX... hand embroidered all wool with leather sole... for lounging, traveling, etc. A perfect gift!

OSBURN HOTEL
DINING ROOM
Open for
THANKSGIVING DAY
DINNER
11:30 a.m. 7:30 p.m.
RESERVATIONS ACCEPTED PHONE 891

DON'T STOP NOW—READ ON

Remember the name—WREN OF EUGENE Portraiture at its finest—Nowhere else will you find portraits of such outstanding quality as those created by Wren of Eugene. Such delicacy of light, line and shadow, sincere and unaffected modeling, truly admirable portraits of culture and refinement forcibly presented. Visit the Salon of WREN OF EUGENE.

EUGENE'S UNEQUALLED PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHER
Wren of Eugene
39 W. 11th
Ph. 6077-W

City Hall is Just Across the Street