Monroe School News; Carnival Earns $300

MONROE — The Monroe High carnival netted the student body about $300 profit. This money will be used to buy new baseball uniforms and new warm-ups for the basketball team. A full set of baseball uniforms is to arrive soon from Bill Hatch Sporting Goods Co. in Spokane. At the same time the basketball team will get a few new warm-ups, but not enough for the entire team.

Basketball season opened Friday, Dec. 6, at Philomath with a jamboree involving the three Benton County teams, Monroe, Philomath and Alsea. Monroe has scheduled the following home games so far: Dec. 10, Shedd; Jan. 7, Halsey; Jan. 31, Philomath; Feb. 11, Monmouth. Monroe folks are urged to turn out in support. The basketball team will be named soon.

The seniors presented a program at assembly recently. A short play, "It Pays to Advertise," was given after which the boys' quartet sang and a movie was shown, "Jesse James."

N. L. Anderson, principal, states that the enrollment is still well over 100. The poor attendance of the past few weeks has been caused mostly by high water and general bad weather.

The seniors have sent for their play. As soon as it arrives the cast will be selected and the names published.

Students receiving honorable mention for earning grades of 2.00 or higher are: Don Barth, Viola Horning, Frank Maxwell, Marilyn Anderson, Elmer Sankey, Margaret Howard, Darwin Foster, Ramona Haight, Julian Horning, and Shirley McCallum.
