The Judge Says— 'Pay Up or Go to Prison'

At Hattiesburg, Mississippi a young man killed the father of ten children in a traffic accident—The family is left practically destitute.

The Judge has ordered this young man to pay $4615—$5.00 a month to each child until the 18th birthday or go to prison 2 to 20 years.

He has decided to pay. . . Payments will run until 1961

It would appear that this young man had no automobile Bodily Injury and Property Damage Insurance.

This won't happen to you, of course—Well maybe not—but it's better to be safe.

New Lane Road Wins Backing

Two county road viewers will recommend construction of a county road to connect a new airport north of Florence with the city, P. M. Morse, county engineer, said Wednesday.

Morse and the viewers inspected the site Tuesday. The engineer said that all labor on the airport so far has been voluntary on the part of private pilots and others interested in flying.

The proposed road would connect the airport with the Coast highway, which in Florence is designated as Fifteenth St. The airport is located on city of Florence property.

The viewers — disinterested freeholders who are selected to give impartial opinions on proposed county road developments — were Hans Nielsen, Danebo, and B. A. Washburn, Springfield. Their recommendation will be considered by the county court.
