Marshfield Pirates Defeat Eugene's State Basketball Champions, 43 to 3

Third Loss For Axemen Quintet

COOS BAY, Dec. 21—Coach Henry Kuchera's defending state champion dropped their third basketball decision of the season here Friday night, losing 43-34 to a fast-breaking and close-checking Marshfield High quintet.

The contest started at a slow tempo and it wasn't until 3½ minutes of play that Hunt tallied for Marshfield—the first score of the game. But the Pirates rolled up a 9-0 lead in the next three minutes before Gene Miner connected for Eugene's first points.

Marshfield rolled to a commanding 17-4 lead in the second period, but the Axemen recovered slightly to close the gap to 18-12 at halftime. Eugene missed numerous attempts from the floor in the first half. The Pirates retained the advantage and were ahead 37-25 going into the final frame.

Marshfield completely controlled the backboards. Bruce paced the Marshfield scoring with 13, but Miner of Eugene took scoring honors with 18.

Summary:

Marshfield (43)		(34) Eugene
Hunt, 10	F	2, Ruth
Bruce, 13	F	8, Garrett
Modley, 4	C	1, Rider
Montgomery, 4	G	18, Miner
O'Neal, 12	G	5, Wilde

Substitutes: Eugene—Smith, Hubbard, Campbell, Wolf, Welch, Banks.
Officials: Acheson and Schellenberger.

Cottage Grove Loses To Reedsport, 21-18

REEDSPORT, Dec. 21 — Reedsport High evened the count with Cottage Grove here Friday night, defeating the Lions 21-18 in a close-checking, rugged basketball game. Cottage Grove defeated Reedsport 34-27 earlier in the season.

Both teams employed zone defensive strategy, resulting in the low score on the small local floor. The county was tied 4-4 at the end of the first quarter, but Reedsport went ahead 10-7 at halftime and held the advantage the remainder of the game. The count was 17-13 at the end of the third period. Coach Bob Dusenberry's visiting Lions rallied in the final frame, trailing by a single point.

Summary:

Reedsport (21)		(18) Cottage Grove
Collver, 3	F	4, J. Witherspoon
Hathaway 8	F	Kanel
Kennedy	C	2, H. Witherspoon
Durbin, 2	G	5, Newton
Raymond, 4	G	4, Gamble

Substitutes: Reedsport — Powell, Hendrickson 4, Pinion. Cottage Grove — Chapman 3, Campbell, Rose.

Oregon State Trims Portland Stars 80-30

CORVALLIS, Dec. 21 — (AP) — The high-scoring Oregon State basketball team raced to its eighth consecutive pre-season victory Friday night, trimming the Portland All-Stars 80-30.

Coach Slats Gill stuck to his new-found combination of Doug Martin at center, with Red Rocha moved over to forward. Martin scored 19 points to take honors for the evening. Red Rotenburg tallied 11 for the losers.

WSC Beats Montana

MISSOULA, Mont., Dec. 21—(AP)—Breaking out of a 22-22 tie late in the first half, Washington State led the rest of the way Friday night to defeat the Montana Grizzlies 60-49.

The score was knotted six times in the first half before the Cougars shot into a 34-26 halftime lead on baskets by Ray Arndt, Bob Elliott and Bob Svendsen.

Robinson Decisions Bell For World Welter Crown

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—(AP)—Sugar Roy Robinson reached the pot of gold he has been hunting for five years by coming on in the middle rounds to outpoint Tommy Bell and win the world welterweight championship in Madison Square Garden Friday night. Robinson weighed 146½; Bell 146.

The Harlem stringbean, known for five years as the uncrowned champion, finally got his shot at the title this time and hit the jackpot, but only afer the roughest, toughest going over he has ever experienced in his career, as the rugged Youngstown, O., Negro walked in and belted away from start to finish of the 15-round slugfest.

Loser of only one fight in his career of 75 trips to the post—and that one to a middleweight—the uptown thumper had to come off the floor from a second-round knockdown to finish in front.

At the wire, he drew the unanimous vote of Referee Eddie Joseph and both judges—Jack O'Sullivan and Artie Schwartz. The Associated Press score card balloted for Robinson, 8 rounds to 5, with two even.

A total of 15,670 customers, crowding the Garden in spite of daylong snow and rain, chipped in to a gross gate of $82,848 to see the Ohioan come within a few seconds and a few punches of scoring one of the great upsets of the ring against a 5-to-1 favorite—only to see the Harlem hammer come back to take the crown no champion would give him a shot at before.

Never before has a welterweight dared to take such liberties with the man who has been tabbed by many of the fight-wise as the "greatest ring machine, inch for inch and pound for pound" as the strong-shouldered Atlanta-born Ohioan did Friday night.

As a result, Bell took the play completely away from Ray through the first five rounds, not only dropping him for a seven-count in the second but making him hold on in the third, and staggering him again in the fourth.

But Ray started to come on after that, showing some of the boxing dazzle with which he has outsped most of his rivals, and turning loose his "double-left-hook" specialty and finally flooring Tommy himself, for an eight count, in the 11th.

Millers Lose Big-Six Opener

By WENDY RAY

ALBANY, Dec. 21—The hot-and-cold Springfield Millers dropped their Big Six opener here Friday night to the rough-and-tumble, hard driving Albany Bulldogs. First downs were even but the score favored Albany, 37-26.

The Millers simply couldn't hit the hoop, not only with field goals but with freethrows as well. Springfield missed a total of 17 gift tosses which had only part of them dropped through, the outcome would have been different. However, the same holds true for the Bulldogs, who failed to connect on 13 foul shots.

Albany took the lead in the first minute of play when Paul Heins, who led the scoring for both clubs with 14 counters, pushed up a layin. Kermit Chapman tied the score with a hook shot from the key. Dave Hobbs put the Bulldogs back in the lead with a layin and Albany went on to build up a 10-6 first quarter lead.

Chapman's field goal was the only one for the Millers in the first frame.

Jim Todd brought the Millers up to within two points with a push shot as the second quarter got underway. Heins and Norm Saylor dropped in gift tosses and Bo Clingman made one for Springfield to make it 12-9. Heins, Saylor, and Don Allen put in two-pointers and Muller made a free-throw to give the Bulldogs a 20-9 half-time edge.

Springfield managed to keep up their average of one field goal a quarter with Todd's two-pointer.

Hobbs connected twice for the Bulldogs in the opening minutes of the second half to lengthen the lead before Clingman made it ten for the Millers with a free toss. Chapman scored on a tip-in and Clingman netted a one-hander from the side to pull the Millers up a bit. Heins came back for the Bulldogs with a push shot from the key to give Albany a 28-15 third-quarter lead.

Clair Thomas and Art Blackmon scored from under the basket and Clingman added a free toss to bring the Millers up to within eight points of the Bulldogs, early in the final quarter. Reid made a gifter but Blackmon tipped one in to make it 29-22. Springfield's cause was strengthened as two Albany starters, Kelly and Hobbs, left the game for five fouls. However, the Millers turned cold and the Albany reserves were strong enough to pull away to the final 37-26 score.

The Albany "B" squad beat the Miller seconds in the preliminary game 47-20.

Laurelwood Winter Golf League Set

The first postwar winter golf league opens play at the Laurelwood course Sunday with ten divot tandems meeting in match play. The league, playing through a round-robin schedule, calls for one match each week.

The twosomes will play best ball and aggregate for three points in each match — one for each of the nine holes and one for the 18. The league was set up at a meeting Friday night, when trophies for the recent City golf championships were awarded.

Champion Lloyd Omlid, who had already collected the Outdoor Store rotating trophy, was presented with the permanent Joe Gordon trophy. George Spicer and John Geertsen received second and third-flight awards.

The lineup for opening league matches Sunday, starting at 9 a.m. follows:

Red Omlid-Les Omlid (Paul D. Green) vs. Phil Cannon-Lloyd Mattison (unattached).

George Spicer - Whit Spicer (Everybody's) vs. Sam Peters - Paul Wright (unattached).

Lloyd Omlid - Dwight Nesbitt (Sterling's) vs. Mike Hoyman - Del Mann (unattached).

Erling Omlid-Pete Mundle (unattached vs. Babe Carter-George Kenney (Belfour-Guthrie Co.).

Harry Stahl - Vern Allen (unattached) vs. George Lynch - Al Hall (unattached).

Redmond Coach Makes Strike Threat Over Low Salary Figure

REDMOND, Dec. 21—(AP)—Redmond High School is threatened with the loss of its coach, Gene Langley, and an instructor, Floyd L. Bond, over a salary controversy.

Each is demanding a $75 monthly increase and a $500 bonus. Langley now is getting $3000 a year and bond $2700

A group of citizens said they would finance the coach's demand themselves in order not to hurt the hoop squad's chances.

The school board said it offered the men $60 increases.

Hank Greenberg Wins American RBI Crown

CHICAGO, Dec. 21—(AP)—Detroit's Hank Greenberg captured the American Leagues' runs-batted-in championship for the fourth time in his career last season, the loop's official statistics showed today.

Greenberg drove home 127 tallies, 16 more than Nick Etten did for the New York Yankees in 1946, but his total was far below the figure he compiled in 1937 when he marked up 183 runs batted in.

The Tiger veteran closely synchronized his runs-batted-in titles with his home run crown. He led the league in four baggers with 44 last season.

Trippi No. 1 In Pro Draft

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

CLEVELAND, Dec. 21—(AP)—Charlie Trippi, Georgia's All-America halfback, was chosen by the defunct Miami club in the All-America Conference's first draft early today and immediately was swapped to the New York Yankees to touch off a battle of dollars that likely will be without a parallel in sports.

Trippi was drafted a week ago by the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League.

The draft in the two leagues gives those two club owners the right to deal for Trippi's signature on a player's contract and the bonus the "Dixie Dynamiter" will get for that bit of penmanship is expected to erase the record $30,000 offered to Whizzer White of Colorado by Pittsburgh in prewar days.

Glen Davis and Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Army's touchdown twins of the past three years, also were drafted in the session that started late last night and continued right through until early today. Davis was selected by the San Francisco 49ers and Blanchard by Brooklyn.

UHS, Ducklings Win Hoop Test

By RED Q. GATES

University High and University of Oregon Frosh came out on the long ends of a hoop doubleheader at McArthur Court Friday night. The Golden Tide, with reserves playing the majority of time, had no trouble in downing Oakridge, 55-13. The Frosh, on the other hand, were forced to the limit to defeat a rangy band of Grants Pass Cavemen 43-33 in the nightcap.

Coach Ray Hendrickson started his third-string unit against the Warriors, and immediately the superiority of the Tiders was evident, as they raced to a 10-1 first quarter lead. At that point the Tide regulars went into the lineup, and they rolled to a 26-7 halftime advantage.

The second half was merely a replica of the first, with the tight-checking Campus quintet completely outclassing the "B" leaguers.

Only Dick McGuire, who took high point honors with 10 counts, offered any offensive rebuttal to the Tiders. Jim Irish was high for Uni-High with seven.

The Grants Pass-Frosh tilt was much more even, and the Southern Oregon team nearly matched Coach Ted Schopf's yearlings basket-for-basket throughout.

It was an extremely fast game, and the smooth-working Cavemen provided the Frosh with a good running opponent. The score at the first quarter favored the Oregons 13-12, and at the half the Ducklings had increased the lead to 23-16.

However, the Cavemen came back strong in the last half, and after closing the gap to only one point midway in the third period, trailed 31-27 at the quarter mark.

In the last quarter the fast-breaking Collegians, strengthened by reserves, overcame the tiring Cavemen to coast in.

Wayne Brown of the Cavemen was high with 12 points, followed by Donovan Kimball of the Frosh with 10.

All-Star Mat Show Tonight

An all-star wrestling program with four top-flight matches is on tap tonight at the armory. The show will get underway at 8:30 p.m.

Two 45-minute, two out of three falls battles will share top billing and the show will be completed by two 20-minute affairs. In one of the main events, Frankie Hart will meet the Gray Mask and in the other, Billy Fox and Tony Ross will tangle.

A special event will mark the return of Walter Achiu to the local ring as he matches his jiu-jitsu against the villiany of Jack Lipscomb. The opener promises to be a rough and tumble bout between Buck Davidson and Billy McEuin.

Ernie Piluso, former world light-heavyweight champion, will referee the entire card.
