

Cottage Grove Man Weds Eureka Bride At Rite in Albany

The marriage of Miss Blanche Falk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Falk of Eureka, Calif., to Albert E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Cottage Grove, was a nine o'clock ceremony Saturday morning, December 21, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Albany. The Rev. Father Riley officiated.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a grey wool suit with an orchid corsage, and small hat. She carried a small black prayer-book.

Miss Jeanne Bloom of Albany, as bridesmaid, wore a purple jersey gown with harmonizing hat and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Richard Bean of Corvallis was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony at the Benton Hotel in Corvallis, for relatives and close friends. The couple left on a wedding trip to Portland. They will return to Corvallis, where both are students. Mr. Smith is affiliated with Kappa Delta Rho fraternity and his bride is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

A dinner and reception in their honor was held Christmas Day at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Cottage Grove.

DOROTHY BRUHN BRIDE TODAY AT PORTLAND

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Bruhn of Eugene, daughter of Mrs. Rosina H. Bruhn of Los Angeles, to Richard Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan H. Roberts of Portland, will occur today. The ceremony will take place at three o'clock at St. Thomas More Church in Portland, a reception to follow at the University Club.

Miss Bruhn has been honored recently at a number of showers and parties. A dinner at the Town Club in Portland was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Sinnott. A shower-luncheon was given by Miss Jean Taylor of Salem at Berg's Chalet in Portland. Dinner and a shower at the Alpha Phi sorority house recently were given by Mrs. N. H. Anderson, housemother, and a group of the upper classmen. A cocktail party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, parents of the groom.

Portland Girl Weds Edwin R. Mack at Saturday Ceremony

Miss Lois Camnitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Camnitz, Portland, was married Saturday, December 21, to Edwin R. Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mack of Eugene. The marriage was performed at Berg's Chalet, Portland, at two o'clock, before a fireplace banked with Christmas greens and white chrysanthemums. The Rev. P. O. Truland of the Lutheran Church officiated at the double-ring ceremony, in the presence of members of the two families.

Miss Fern Bruland was the bride's only attendant, and Donald L. Mack of Eugene, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride wore a beige wool suit with black hat and accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Dinner Served

After the wedding ceremony a buffet dinner was served in the dining room of the Chalet to the wedding party and a few close friends of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Mack is a student at Lewis and Clarke College, Portland. Mr. Mack is a former student at the University of Oregon. He returned in October from the Pacific theater, where he was stationed with the United States Army Air Force.

For a wedding trip, the couple went to Seattle and Victoria, B.C., and will be at home after January 6 at 1524 N.E. 6th St., Portland.

MISS WEBER

Announced recently at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Milton Silas Weber in Alhambra, Calif., was the engagement of their daughter, Madge, to Hugh Anderson Moran, III, of Palo Alto. The family formerly lived in Eugene, where Mr. Weber was pastor of Central Presbyterian Church.

Pre-Christmas Rite Is Held at Church

At a candle-lighted service, Friday, December 20, Mrs. Muriel Stevens Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barr of Pasadena, Calif., was married to Leonard A. Surles, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Surles of Seattle, at First Congregational Church of Eugene. The Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson officiated at the evening ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by W. E. Bronson. She wore a silver-blue lame gown with matching accessories and carried white camellias and stephanotis.

Miss Katherine Leonard of Portland was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gray gown and fuchsia-colored hat and carried a fuchsia-colored flower muff of camellias.

James L. Brownson of Eugene was best man; ushers were James Shephard of White Bear, Minn., and Robert Calkins of Eugene.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Osburn Hotel. Mrs. John R. Yeager poured and Mrs. W. E. Bronson served the cake. Ullric Dorais presided at the punch bowl.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Surles were graduated from the University of Oregon. Mr. Surles was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, served with the U. S. Army in the India Theater and now is coaching and teaching at Baker, Oregon. After a wedding trip to Southern California, the couple will make their home at the Nye Apartments in Baker.
