

Portal Pay Senate Topic

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bills to pay out some $4,000,000,000 of portal-pay bills got a head start over other labor legislation Monday as a Senate Judiciary subcommittee set hearings for Wednesday.

Seven other major bills, among them more dealing with unions already introduced, are slated for attention but House and Senate Labor Committees have not yet set to work on them.

Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor who is seeking the Republican nomination for president in 1948, said Saturday there is "some danger of going too far" in labor legislation.

Three of the seven major bills are sponsored by Senator Joseph P. Kamp of Minnesota. Stassen told a news conference all three "go too far." He was talking about bills by Hall which would outlaw the closed shop and industry-wide bargaining, and the Ball-Taft-Smith Bill which is a revised version of last year's Case Bill.

Stassen's own labor program centers around amending the Wagner Act but avoiding competition as far as possible. Stassen is not a member of Congress.

Senator Homer Caphart (R-Ia.), sponsor of one bill to offset portal-pay claims, will be the first witness before the Judiciary group. Chairman Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) of the Judiciary committee has introduced another measure.

Senator Forrest Donnell (R-Ia.), subcommittee chairman, announced the hearings will be held in Washington. He told reporters that witnesses will be required "so far as practicable" to file written statements covering their proposed testimony a day in advance of their appearance.

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP)—When Graziano C. Algeri left Italy in September to see his aged mother for the first time in 36 years, he told his wife and six daughters to expect him home for Christmas, Dec. 25, 1946, almost home and went, but at 6 p.m., just when Mrs. Algeri had given up hope, her husband arrived in Boston from Rome.

'Juke Box Doctor' Hit

SACRAMENTO, Cal. (AP)—A medical "juke box" that purported to tell drug store visitors the remedy to take for various ailments has earned a San Francisco drugist a citation for violation of state health laws.

The state department of public health tells the story: "This pharmacist had constructed an electrical selector, similar to the well-known 'juke box' on which a patron selects various musical selections, and had modified the gadget to show a prospective purchaser the remedy to use for various ailments or symptoms.

"His list included, to name but a few: diabetes, failing memory, gray hair, heart trouble, peptic ulcer, sexual impotence, and tooth decay."

The same drugist also was cited for selling boric acid tablets, which cost 10 cents a bottle, as a "weight reducing preparation," for $3.59 a bottle.

Local Elks Observe 50th Anniversary

More than 2000 members of Elks Lodges from all over Oregon came to Eugene Saturday night to assist the local lodge in its Golden Anniversary celebration.

Main speaker was Robert S. Farrell, Jr., secretary of state and member of the lodge. He gave an instructive talk on the trend of current events, the responsibilities of the lodge, and place of the lodge in the community, pointing out that all members must be ever alert for subversive elements.

Farrell outlined the history of the Elks Lodge in America, and pointed out that it attracts a wide variety of members, in both skilled and unskilled occupations.

Master of ceremonies was Gerry Gaylord, of Eugene, who introduced charter members of the local group. Judge L. T. Harris, charter member, gave a short talk on the charter membership and the beginnings of the Eugene lodge.

A parade through downtown Eugene was held Sunday afternoon by members and visitors who remained in town. The Portland Elks band led the parade.
