

IN FORMAL ATTIRE with the traditional green ribbon across their gleaming shirt-fronts, the Eugene Gleemen made their first public appearance of the year at the recent state convention of Odd Fellows held in Eugene. The annual spring concert of the Gleemen will be held Feb. 11 at McArthur Court, a benefit for the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children, in Portland. The group also will give two concerts outside the city, one in Medford Feb. 7 and one in Salem, Feb. 13. Associate memberships now are offered for sale.

City's Unique Men's Singing Organization Plans Big Year

Letters went out in the last week to the 500 or more associate members of Eugene Gleemen, inviting them to renew their memberships for 1947. George H. Miller, "personal ticket chairman," is assisted in his task by A. C. Stockstad, who served last year also as co-chairman.

Associate memberships are the sustaining memberships which keep the Eugene Gleemen in existence. It is pointed out. Their cost is five dollars, which entitles the purchaser to two tickets to each of the Gleemen's concerts, and reservations in advance of public sale.

Appearances of the Gleemen are made at public functions throughout the year upon request, usually when there is a state convalescence of some sort and the singing group serves to advertise the community. Their appearance is made without charge as a good

New Business Agent Named by Teamsters

Leslie Williams, formerly business representative for Teamsters Local 952 in Medford, has been appointed business agent for Teamsters Local 87, including Eugene, Harrisburg, Drain, Cottage Grove, Junction City, and Crescent Lake, according to D. B. McFadyen, secretary-treasurer. McFadyen has been acting in the business agent's capacity for several months.

A general meeting of Local 87 members Friday evening voted favorably on the executive committee's recommendation of Williams for the business agent spot. Williams also has served as business agent for the Lumber and Sawmill Workers, Willamette Valley District Council, and as assistant business agent for Local 87 in Roseburg.

Social Event Billed By Women's Legion

Willamette Women's American Legion post is planning a social time for their next meeting, Jan. 28, at Mrs. Leora McMurphy's home, 693 Tenth Ave. W. On the committee are Virginia Gilmore, Mrs. Janet White, and Mrs. Frank Yok. The next business meeting is Feb. 11 at the Del Rey. Initiation will be given for a class of approximately 25 candidates.

The women veterans also report progress in plans for a Brownie Girl Scout troop at Dunn School which they are sponsoring.

Ex-University Man On Atomic Energy Staff

Word has been received on the University of Oregon campus that Paul Ager, former comptroller of the university and graduate with the class of 1926, has been appointed comptroller and budget officer of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Drunk Driving Charges Faced

Charges of drunken driving were faced by three Lane county men Saturday after their arrests Friday evening.

Nyle Sankey, Dexter, and Albert Anderson, 2474 Willamette St., were jailed on charges of driving under the influence of alcohol in two separate arrests by city police Friday night.

Sankey was arrested at Seventh and Willamette, and slated to appear in municipal court Monday. Anderson was arrested at Eleventh and Lawrence Sts., to appear in court Wednesday, Jan. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Willard,

Diaston Rt., Cottage Grove, also were held in Lane County jail after their arrest on charges involving intoxicating liquor and an automobile.

The Willards were arrested on Highway 99 south of Eugene at 10:45 p.m. Friday. The husband was held for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. His wife was charged with being drunk on a public highway.

Also in jail Saturday was Bert Matt Smith, 66, Spokane, Wash., who was arrested by state police in Mapleton and sentenced by Florence justice court to serve 60 days and pay a $10 fine on charges of vagrancy.
