construction firm, called for their completion by Sept. 1.

"We learned in August," Lindstrom said, "that Dorm No. 2 definitely would not be completed in time for fall term. What were we to do? We had made reservations for that many boys."

SENSATIONAL WHEATENA OFFER IS STILL OPEN!

Every large-size Wheatena box-top is good for 15¢ off the price of any brand of coffee.

NO LETTER TO MAIL—NO COUPON TO SEND!

Just tear off the box-top and give it to your grocer. (No danger of spillage—Wheatena is doubly sealed!) You save 15¢ on your coffee!

WHAT WHEATENA IS!

Wheatena is the "different" hot cereal with the taste of toasted wheat. It's a welcome change for breakfast. It cooks quickly, tastes good and stands by you. Watch your family go for it!

So university officials started checking with a sampling of the 375 men registered first, to see if they would mind crowding up, to accommodate as many of the men scheduled to go in the second dorm as possible. The consensus was "Crowd us," so that's what they did.

We squeezed 540 men into Dorm No. 1," Lindstrom said, "with the assurance from the builders that the second dorm would be finished by Nov. 1." Lack of materials held up completion on the November date, but the new deadline for No. 2 was set as the opening date of winter term—Jan. 2.

Strike Delays
"Then came the carpenters' strike," Lindstrom said. "That's what really laid us low. If it hadn't been for the month we lost through them, we'd have had it ready for occupancy by winter term."

Dorm No. 2 is now scheduled to open Jan. 25. Furnishings already have been moved into the top floor and the rest are expected to be in this week-end.

The university, which managed to find temporary housing in Dorm No. 1, in "town" rooms, and in barracks erected in the Physical Education building for the men slated for Dorm 2, will finally have its quota of 985 men housed in the places originally designed for them last fall.

(Tomorrow: The university's method of financing its wartime housing, the system used in arriving at rentals, and plans for retiring the debts.)

be provided in the park blocks to hold county cars, which would open 31 stalls on streets to general parking.

5. That buses stop on the far side of intersections. This would require less space and open up about 15 stalls, Buford said.

Everything that can be done along these lines, said Buford, will help reduce the size of off-street parking space that must be provided.

Attending the meeting were the following from the planning commission: Chairman A. F. Richards, J. R. Bruckart and Robert Booth;

from the Realty Board, Clifton Culp, James Rodman Sr., Harvey Hilton and William Stenwick; city representatives, City Manager Deane Seeger and Police Chief L. L. Pittenger. Others attending and taking part: Herman Kehrl, of the Bureau of Municipal Research; Dr. E. L. Johnson, political science, University of Oregon; Manager Fred M. Brenne, Chamber of Commerce; Oluf Hougum of the chamber's traffic committee, and Spencer Collins, businessman.
