

Mooney's the Mayor in Kent And All the Kids Are Happy

KENT, Wash.—(AP)—This small valley town south of Seattle will have Dave J. Mooney, 23-year-old war veteran, for mayor in June and all the kids are happy.

Supporters think he may be the country's youngest mayor-elect, following the primary in which he polled more votes than the combined total of two opponents

Gleemen Present Concert in Salem

Eugene Gleemen Thursday were en route for Salem, where they were to sing before the state legislature at 3:30 p.m., and to give an evening concert in the auditorium of the Salem High School. The program in Salem will be the same as that presented in Eugene Tuesday evening.

Present at the Tuesday concert, which was a benefit for the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland, were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Luke of Portland. Mr. Luke, a past potentate of Al Kader temple of the Shrine, served as chairman of many concerts given in Portland by the Gleemen for the Shrine Hospital. He extended to the chorus an invitation to renew their Portland series next year, the custom having been halted during the war.
