Nominations of officers will be continued at the next meeting and elections will be held, the first meeting in March.

Regular hours for receiving payment for both telephone and electric service at the local telephone office are week days, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Long distance service has been expanded by one more line to Eugene making three and there will be two to Cottage Grove instead of the former one line.

Miss Ruby Goldsworthy, Mrs. Ruth Tipton, Miss Alleyne Spencer and Mrs. Oris Steele, teachers in the Creswell Grade School, are attending classes in Audio Visual Aids at the University of Oregon each Thursday evening.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson of Creswell at the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene Tuesday, Feb. 18. The baby is the first grandchild of Mrs. A. W. Mourer of Creswell.

'Loggers in Town'

BLUE RIVER—Considerable excitement was created around here recently when logging operations were brought right into Blue River. The grove of trees on Don Meyer's lot across from the post office was removed preparatory to the construction of a building. Doing the logging were Clark Wiley and Ivan Fricke with Guy Huanicut assisting with his power saw.

A Register-Guard news box has been placed in Don Meyer's store for the convenience of those who have news to report. Or bring news items to Ely's Fly Shop, or mail to Stella Ely, Blue River. Let's send in the news. Introduce your visitors while they are still here, don't wait until they have gone.

Entertaining recently with a stork shower in honor of Mrs. Earl Payne were Mrs. Alex Lilia, Mrs. Clark Wiltsey, and Mrs. Maple Stoble at the home of Mrs. Lilia. About 40 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson and young son Bobby, recently returned from Portland where they spent several days. They were accompanied home by Henderson's father, C. B. Henderson.

Lowell Visited By Petty Thieves

LOWELL—A wave of petty thievery has struck Lowell, coincident, local people think, with frequent appearance at Lowell of juveniles from some other locality. A week ago some March of Dimes money amounting to $1.85 was stolen from the high school. About the same time a car belonging to Doug Williams was stripped, and Ray Cogan's car was stolen but recovered when the thieves failed to start the motor in time.

A local store lost two valuable fountain pens to a shoplifter. Money is missing from private homes; the electric light bulbs and all keys and bolts, and some grange regalia were stolen from the grange hall; a high school girl lost a wrist watch to a thief; boys have been missing money from their clothes while playing basketball; logging companies have been missing tools. The thefts started about a month ago and have been continuing since. Lowell previously has had little or no juvenile delinquency. Citizens are planning additional vigilance.

North Lane H E

JUNCTION CITY—North Lane Home Extension Unit met with Mrs. Howard Gibson, Feb. 11. Members have contributed $3.50 for the March of Dimes, it was announced.

Each member was asked to bring to the March meeting an idea for a project for next year to be forwarded to the next year's program planning committee. Each member is reminded to bring her own dishes, for luncheon. If she fails to do this she will be fined 10 cents. This money goes into a fund to buy trays. The unit is raising money for the Cooperative House, known as the "Azalea House," which will be erected on the campus at Oregon State College. All counties with home demonstration agents are cooperating to collect money with the hope of raising $15,000 a year for three years, a total of $45,000. This house will be turned over to the college when erected and will house 50 or 60 girls.

Party planning was the project presented by Mrs. C. C. Glenn and Mrs. William N. Jensen. They ably demonstrated with many planned games. As an outcome of this project, plans were formulated to hold a party for extension members and their families at the grange hall Friday, Feb. 21. Arrangement committee: Mrs. J. Lorang, Mrs. A. G. Johnson, and Mrs. Ralph Wither. Mrs. Charles Jensen, Mrs. Ross Calvert and Mrs. Ed C. Jensen will comprise the refreshments committee. Each family was asked to bring one game in which the group can participate.

Next meeting is March 11 from 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., at Mrs. Warne Empeys. The subject, "Furniture Arrangement," will be presented by Mrs. Beth Wiley, home demonstration agent, Eugene.

Masons and their wives and Eastern Star and their husbands have been invited by the OES to attend a 7 p. m. potluck dinner next Tuesday at the Masonic Hall. Cards will be played. Mrs. Glenn Ditto and Mrs. Ed Jensen will be in charge of tables, Mrs. Ed Jensen in charge of entertainment.

Jeanette Star Club will meet for a 1:30 potluck luncheon at the Glen Strome home, Friday, Feb. 21. Anyone desiring transportation call Mrs. Glenn Ditto.

Junction Lions Look Over Plans

JUNCTION CITY—W. J. Cloyes, County Sanitarian, spoke at the Monday's Lions Club meeting on "Sanitation Problems of Cities."

A committee was appointed by president Virgil Kingsley to investigate the advisability of a Fat Lamb Show which was an annual event sponsored by the local Lions Club, prior to the war and since discontinued. Appointed were: Carey Strome, Hans Rasmussen, Harold Jensen and Joe McClure.

A civic improvement committee has been appointed to meet and plan with the city planning committee: Keith Sherman, chairman, Homer Dixon, Carey Strome, C. L. Carpenter and Milt Boring.

Max Nielsen, local chairman for the Red Cross drive, Mrs. Lee Murphy and Max Strauss co-chairman are appointed their helpers and making plans for the coming drive. Mrs. Murphy will have charge of the residential area and that part just out of the city limits including Dane Lane. Max Strauss will be in charge of the business houses.

The Red Cross has been very active in our community. A complete system of rescue and relief in time of flood has been organized and those in flood areas are grateful for its protection. Several families have been aided in the past year in this community who have been temporarily in want due to loss of homes by fire. Home nursing and first aid classes have been taught here for adults and high school students. In the Red Cross learn to swim program last year 140 children were enrolled for a three weeks period with Max Strauss as instructor. Emergency Highway Stations are another service of the Red Cross which is a benefit to all.
