NOTI SCHOOL CHURCH NEWS OF WEEK
NOTI — A large and appreciative crowd at the P-TA meeting Wednesday evening enjoyed the Elmira High Band's music, under direction of Myron Blackwell. Janet Hale and Lois Berens each sang and Mrs. Blackwell played a violin solo, all accompanied by Blackwell at the piano. Leda Smith from the Lane County Health Association showed the tuberculosis movies. She urged the community to take advantage of the mobile X-ray unit which the association sends out. It will not be here until next fall, and there should be at least 300 persons signed up, adults as well as children.

Judging of the posters, which the pupils of the school have made to advertise the P-TA play, resulted in the following awards: First prize, $1 to Bob Seller; second prizes of 50 cents each to Jack Johnson and Ray Chandler, and two third prizes of 25 cents each to Danny Johnson and Alvin Shields.

Mrs. A. L. Christopher, coach, reported that March 14 has been selected as the date to present the play, "Calm Yourself."

The P-TA passed a resolution to be sent to the legislature favoring a three per cent sales tax and a 40 mill limit on property taxes to finance House Bill No. 8.

Harvey Buckridge, Jr., has made a sand table for the benefit of the children in Mrs. Noble Wheeler's Junior Church services. Mrs. Wheeler reports 29 children present last Sunday, and wishes to invite all children in the community to attend. Parents who wish to attend church at 11 a.m., bring the children to Junior Church.

Arlo Bristow, evangelist, begins a two weeks' revival meeting next Sunday, with meetings every night throughout that time, with the exception of Saturday nights. There will be a basket dinner each Sunday for three Sundays.

DELIGHT VALLEY SCANS TELEPHONE PROBLEMS
DELIGHT VALLEY — The 40-35 and 38 telephone lines subscribers held a meeting at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening. A discussion was held as to whether the farmers should rebuild and keep their own lines in repair or turn them over to the telephone company and pay a monthly rate. No decision was reached at this time.
