FOUR H
 The Civil Air Patrol will meet Monday evening at Condon School. Training in ground rescue work and briefing for summer camp cadets will be on the program.

I SAW small stones in the middle of Willamette St. being turned into whizzing projectiles by passing cars. Contractors excavating a basement under one of the local stores had permitted the dirt and rocks to spread out into the street. Passers-by were subjected to a miniature artillery barrage as automobile tires hurled the rocks across the sidewalk.—W. B.

I SAW—A couple of motor-scooters go through a stop sign at Seventh Ave. W. and Olive St. without even slowing down. It's very dangerous. Some day there will be a casualty. L. J. O.

A marriage license was issued at Portland Saturday to Wallace R. Nesmith and Willa L. Razor, both of Eugene, Associated Press reported.

Eugene Flying Service Saturday was approved by the state board of aeronautics as an accredited flight training school, the United Press reported from Salem.

James D. McCloskey of Al- is visiting his mother brother, Dr. John C. McCloskey, in Eugene.

Little Club Around the will meet Tuesday, April 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Neal, twenty-second Ave. W.

Ray F. Lee of River Ave. in Eugene has notified city police of the loss of a small Jersey cow, which he said probably is straying. Tickets for the Eugene Inernal Assn. banquet at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Kennedys Cafe are on sale at Rees Electric.

Harmony Bible Class of First Baptist Church will meet in the church parlor at 7:30 p.m. Monday to elect officers. Refreshments will be served.

Clifford Ringer of Eugene was cited by city police for failure to yield right of way, after a traffic accident at Fifth and Monroe Sts. Friday evening. Police said Ringer's coupe collided with a truck driven by Joseph R. Zimmerman, 217 Eleventh Ave. E.

I SAW—a man who might have an apartment vacant in June look up a young couple who had asked to rent one of his apartments and tell them of the possible vacancy.

G. T. Newcomb, exten- sionist of Oregon State College, is visiting six Lane farms to assist in solving irrigation and drainage problems.

Miss Helen M. Cherry of Leba- non is in Eugene visiting friends. Miss Cherry is new editor of the Sweet Home "New Era."

Circuit Judge Dal M. King announced Saturday that the court will hear motions and divorces Wednesday. Jury trials will resume April 21.
