

Reddie Miller Leads Cincinnati Win; DiMag Homers for Yanks

By JOE REICHLER
 Cincinnati Press Sports Writer
 Reddie Miller, who only a few days ago was put on display in a window for the Reds, today was the bidder without attractively priced tags definitely established today as the key to Cincinnati's chances for a first division berth.

The five-fingered shortstop, cutting the major league record with four home runs in three games, hit the Reds gain an extra run in their doubleheader with the Pirates at Pittsburgh, and Miller in the home run in the first inning to score all their runs.

With Joe DiMaggio playing his first full game of the season, the New York Yankees turned on the Athletics twice to sweep a doubleheader in Philadelphia 6-2 and 3-2. DiMag celebrated his return with a three-run homer in the first game to enable Spud Chandler to win his first victory.

The Chicago Cubs, paced by Bill Nicholson's two home runs good for six RBI, handed the world champion St. Louis Cardinals their fourth defeat in six games 7-4 and dumped them ingloriously into the National League cellar.

Ben Chapman's Philadelphia Phillies made it three in a row over the Giants by trouncing the New Yorkers 10-1 at the Polo Grounds. Ron Northey, with three hits, and Jim Labor and Andy Seminick, with four baggers, led the Philly attack on four pitchers. Schoolboy Rowe spaced six hits to gain his second win, both against the Giants.

Rain and wet grounds caused the postponement of the scheduled games between Brooklyn and Boston in the National League and Detroit-Cleveland and St. Louis-Chicago in the American.

Bridges Hurls No-Hit, No-Run Win Over Seals

Beavers Still Tied for Lead

By BILL BECKER
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 Tommy Bridges, the former great Detroit curveball artist now operating for the Portland Beavers, is the first no-run, no-hit game pitcher of 1947.

Achieving the first no-hitter of his 19-year career, the slender Tennessee, now 40, came within one batter of a perfect game Sunday when he set down the San Francisco Seals, 2-0, in the first half of a Pacific Coast League doubleheader.

The only Seal to reach base was Bones Sanders, who walked in the eighth but was quickly erased on a double play.

Bridges fanned five in hanging up his second win against no defeats. It was his third start as the Beavers' Sunday pitcher. He has tied one. In his other win, incidentally, the ex-Tiger allowed only two hits.

Only four Bridges' pitches were hit out of the infield Sunday.

West and Peis American League career. Bridges pitched three one-hit games, once in 1932 going through 8 2/3 innings before giving up a safety.

Six Straight
 The veteran's sterling performance gave the Beavers their sixth straight win over San Francisco and assured the Oregonians of a hold on first place, which they share with San Diego, as the PCL went into its fourth week.

The Seals bounced back to take the final game, 11-4, on some hot hitting and the effective pitching of Rookie Bob Cheeses.

San Diego pulled abreast of Portland by nabbing a pair from Hollywood, 7-5 and 3-1, after dropping Saturday's game. Homers by Max West and Peis American League career. Bridges pitched three one-hit games, once in 1932 going through 8 2/3 innings before giving up a safety.

Axemen, Tide Clash Tuesday

Baseball moves back into the local high school sports picture Tuesday after a weekend crowded with track activity. Top games on the docket will be the 3 p.m. game at Civic Stadium between Coach Duane Mellem's Eugene High Axemen and Coach Ray Hendrickson's University High nine.

Also on Tuesday afternoon the Springfield Millers will entertain the St. Mary's Gaels in a 3 p.m. game at Springfield and Sweet Home will be at Junction City for a non-league game with the Tigers.

Big Jim Hanns will probably be the starter on the mound for Eugene against University High. Jim Irish will probably get the call for the Tiders. Bob Bartholomew will probably be St. Mary's starting choice against Springfield. John Young may retaliate with big Alvin Cedros.

Eugene High has already won a game in District competition. The game will be the first league outing for Uni High. The Tiders lost a practice tilt last week to Corvallis.

Salem Unbeaten In WIL Play

(Associated Press)
 The ability to win the close ones had the Salem Senators atop the Western International League standings Monday as the league's two Canadian members played host to their opening games with Tacoma and Bremerton preparing inaugural ceremonies for Tuesday.

Undefeated thus far out, the Oregon nine posted three one-run verdicts over the weekend. Salem won the Sunday twin-bill 3-2 and 2-1 after taking Saturday's tilt from Vancouver by a 5-4 count. The same two clubs move to the Canadian city to open a three-game bill Monday.

Co-holding the runnerup spot after the first series are Victoria and Bremerton.

Victoria, which opens its home season Monday against Yakima, took a 3-1 series edge over the defending Wenatchee champions, squeaking out a 10-inning 4-3 win Saturday and then a 6-3 win in Sunday's opener. Wenatchee came back for a 15-2 victory in the finale.

Bremerton swept a double bill from Yakima Sunday, winning the opener 7-5 and the nightcap 6-2. The Bluejackets will make their first home stand of the year Tuesday with Spokane as the opposition.

Spokane's Indians, two-to-one series winner over Tacoma, came up with a powerhouse in outfielder George Schmees. Playing his first league game, the new gardener pounded out two four-base knocks in leading the Indians to a 9-3 win in Sunday's second game. He recently drove out three homers in a single exhibition tilt. Tacoma earlier had taken the opening game of the bill 7-3 on Morgan's five-hit pitching.

Piluso Scores Mat Win Over Weidner

By MAE BALDWIN
 Ernie Piluso shrewdly out-manuevered Bill Weidner Saturday night, gaining two straight falls. The second came in eight minutes when Referee Jack Mitchell ruled that Weidner had deliberately tossed Ernie onto the ringside floor following an airplane spin. The match was the main event at the armory.

When Piluso's strategy to puzzle, amuse and annoy began to unfold, there seemed to be no end to the confusion Weidner faced. Rarely did Bill's strength advantage prove beneficial and he tried desperately to curb his unpredictable temper. Ernie smoothly evaded the full Nelson and airplane spin to keep the pace whirling in his favor. In 16 minutes Piluso left Weidner limp on the mat, a victim of a powerful headlock clutch.

Piluso continued his matter-of-fact manner until the sudden outward-bound journey.

In an action-packed semi-final Herb Parks took a one-fall decision over Pedro Cortez. The young Brazilian relied on his nimble speed to control the efforts against him. The defenses worked well and Parks was in plenty of trouble when Pedro began matching his opponents talents. Herb worked feverishly to gain his goal in 23 minutes with a knee stomper.

The Armory arena fans were sorry to learn that Buck Weaver was still unable to return to mat action due to a back injury. Substituting in the opener was Bill Murray, a lad from Vancouver, B. C. Gorilla Poggi provided such rough and rugged opposition that

For some time now it has been a style in education to let children express their "individuality." This usually means letting them get away with murder... on the grounds that if you interfere you're going to tie them up with complexes. Now a New York expert says all this psychiatric stuff about kids is mullarkey. He says, "Stop worrying about traumas and syndromes." That should be easy for me. I can't even pronounce them. However, the New York expert apparently feels that we have gone too far... like the man who accidentally stepped over the edge of a cliff. He advises that we lay off the psychological voodoo and get back to the razor strop. Yes, padding may be old-fashioned, but it's certainly a practical application of a means to an end.

HIGHLIGHTS

By DEWEY RAY
 Spectators at the Hayward Relays Saturday saw one of the state's greatest high school athletes in action in Ashland's George Fullerton—a beautiful miler that boy is. Unofficial watches caught his anchor mile in the three-mile relay event at 4:32.4. That's quite a few seconds from his own state high school record of 4:24 and the 4:20.5 he did in Portland last year after the state meet. But his coach, Frank O'Neill, is bringing him along scientifically and his performance Saturday was better than he was doing at this stage of the game last year.

Right now O'Neill and Fullerton work for a 4:30 mile. They have precise times set for each of George's four quarter-mile laps. Saturday at the relays, Fullerton was two seconds over the time prescribed for the second lap and one second over for the third. The first and fourth laps were right on the nose. Fullerton has terrific kick coming into the home stretch, as was demonstrated Saturday. He still had plenty of strength left—more than usual, according to O'Neill, because of the slow times for the two middle laps.

By the time of the state meet May 16 and 17 at Corvallis, Fullerton will probably be shooting for a 4:20 mark. If he could do that it would not only be a new record but a new national interscholastic standard as well.

Cottage Grove's victory in the Class B division was a gratifying one for the Grovers. Bob Dusenberry has been doing an outstanding job of coaching and has been carrying most of the load at Cottage Grove single-handed. Only recently has been getting welcome and capable assistance from Joe Tomen. Those Lions would really be track whizzes if they had a good cinder track to train on.

It might not have been a Cottage Grove story Saturday, however, if Ashland hadn't bobbled the baton on the first pass in the 440-relay event. It's one of those things you can never tell about Cottage Grove might have had enough to have beaten out Ashland in the event anyway because the Grovers' winning time clipped a good chunk off the old record. But until the baton was dropped, Ashland was out in front. Dusenberry, whose squad has been weak in the sprints, frankly didn't expect to pick up 10 points in that event. But then, he didn't get the points he expected in the shot put relays so perhaps it came out even in the end.

One thing that may result from the gathering of coaches here for the relays is a big dual competition between the Portland track district and the strong Southern Oregon district, something on the order of the dual meet between the Pacific Coast Conference and the Big Nine. We heard Grant High's Joe Huston, Medford's Bill Bowerman and Klamath Falls' Bob Hendershott talking of such an event. It might not materialize this year, but if it does, it would probably be the week following the Portland city meet. Such an event would be an innovation in the track sport in Oregon. Something similar might be worked out someday between the Big-Six League and the Tri-County League. It's an idea anyway. Then there are those who say that too much interest in high school track is killing high school baseball. And then there are those who say that too much high school baseball is killing track. So what have you got?

One way to look at it is to point out that schools that have a strong track program are usually the same ones that have strong football teams. This may not hold true in the larger schools, such as in Portland. It is certainly true, however, in the case of Grant High of Portland and of Medford.

Despite the strong showing made by Eugene High in the Hayward Relays, we're picking Bend to win the Big-Six League track meet scheduled for May 2 at Bend. The Lava Bears won the meet last year when it was held in Salem and this year will have one big advantage—altitude. The thin air at Bend will slow up the lowlanders from the Willamette Valley considerably. . . . We don't know what the deal was at Grants Pass, but we know that everywhere else that Mel Johnson has coached he has molded outstanding football teams. The dope is that Mel Ingram will take over football at Grants Pass and we hope he doesn't have the same tough luck Johnson had.

Husky, Idaho Track Squads Show Power

(Associated Press)
 Coach Hec Edmundson's cinder squad stamped itself as a definite contender for Northern Division track laurels Saturday as the Washington Huskies swept first places in 12 of 15 events to outscore the Oregon State College defending champions 89 1/2 to 41 1/2.

It was the only division meet of the day, but the University of Idaho gave indications of a strong team in a non-conference trouncing of Gonzaga 110-15.

Washington State College, running its own time trials, turned in a 3:24.5 mile relay time which was nearly three seconds faster than the Cougar relay squad had in winning the 1946 division crown.

The Husky-Beaver meet turned in no new records but double winners were all around. Three Washington men—Don Wold in the mile and two-miles, Phil Brewer in the 100 and 220 dashes, and Lyle Clark in the two hurdles—deadlocked with Bob Reiman of Oregon State for high honors. Reiman won the shot and discus. OSC also won the high jump.

Gonzaga, participating in its first collegiate track meet since 1942, won only one event—Frank Duffy's first in the mile. Idaho took 13 first and swept seven events.

Visiting Lebanon Bowlers Win, Lose

The U-Bowl Men's bowling team scored a 3-1 victory over a five-man team from Lebanon Sunday at the U-Bowl alleys. A visiting women's team from Lebanon, however, evened the competition by scoring a 4-0 victory of the Johnson Furniture team of the Eugene league.

B. White of Lebanon was the leading individual performer, among the men with a 214 single game and a 603 series. J. Gilbert paced the Lebanon women with 174 and a 456.

Springfield, Albany Track Meet Scheduled

The Springfield Millers will entertain Albany in a track meet at Springfield Tuesday afternoon. Competition will be held in both varsity and junior divisions.

Springfield Coach Kernal Buhler indicated that Albany would definitely be on hand for the meet and that several other local schools may accept invitations to compete as a warmup for the Willamette Valley meet. The Valley meet is scheduled for Friday at Hayward Field. Some 19 schools have been invited to compete.

PORTLAND, April 21—(AP)—Oregon State College's 1947 football hopes dropped over the weekend with announcement by Bill Gray, veteran center, that he would turn professional this fall. Gray, who has one year of conference eligibility remaining, said he would announce his pro affiliation in the near future.

STANTON, April 21—(AP)—Tobacco enthusiasts are still fighting the winning of the Stanley Cup and the world championship by the young Montreal Maple Leafs.

Montreal, who were given only a slim chance to dethrone the Detroit Red Wings, are now leading the series in six games and are scheduled to play the Chicago Blackhawks in the final game Saturday.

Four Losses

The University of Washington football team suffered four losses in a two-game diamond Monday and Tuesday, with the schools seeking their first win of the season.

The team moves into Seattle with a losing streak, dropping to 0-4 in both Oregon and Washington. The twin wins placed the schools atop the division.
