Eugene to Entertain State Convention Of BPW Next Year

Eugene will entertain the Business and Professional Women's clubs of Oregon in 1948, the invitation of the local club having been accepted at the board meeting following the state convention at Albany. The first board meeting of the year of new officers, headed by Mrs. Harold B. Jensen, president, also will be held at Eugene July 27. This date was chosen to permit members of the board to attend the Eugene Centennial Pageant.

Highlight of this year's sessions was the presence of the national president, Miss Sally Butler of Indianapolis, Ind., who was the speaker at the dinner Friday evening, attended by four hundred women. "Woman and World Affairs" was her topic. "The women of America now have a second chance to work against the forces of war, by supporting the action to implement the United Nations. We cannot face another war in the atomic age. In Europe, I was warned repeatedly that we must expect to be the first nation attacked, in case of another war, because we were the one to loose the atom bomb. Women make up more than half the population of the world, and they must learn to coordinate, educate and agitate for peace in the world."
 Officers were elected at Saturday sessions, at which Mrs. Kathleen Miller of Albany, member of the hostess club, presided as state president. Officers named are as follows: President, Mrs. Harold B. Jensen, Eugene; first vice-president, Mrs. Carmalite Weddie, Salem; second vice president, Mrs. Charline Edwards, Corvallis; recording secretary, Mrs. Charlotte Donovan, Eugene; recording secretary, Miss Elizabeth Richard, Eugene; treasurer, Miss Georgia Kaylor, McMinnville.

Chairmen are: Education, Mrs. Irene Taylor, Portland; finance, Mrs. Natalie Burns, Toledo;

MRS. HUTCHINSON
 Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson, Seattle, international vice president for Alpha Phi.

MRS. WOODS
 Mrs. Harold E. Woods, Missoula, Mont., district governor.

who participated here Saturday in installing Beta Upsilon chapter of the international fraternity for women on the Oregon State college campus. Twenty-six founding members of the chapter also were initiated here. The officers went to Corvallis Sunday to attend a formal reception given by Corvallis alumnae to honor the founding group.

Flowers Asked For Float

Eugene Garden Club met at the clubhouse Tuesday evening. A communication from the Portland Rose Show was read, asking the club to enter a table decoration in the rose show competition for a silver trophy. Mrs. L. M. Watson, new president of the club, and Mrs. Ernest Brunton, retiring president were named delegates to the state convention of Garden Clubs, to be held at Bend, June 18 and 19.

Announcement was made of the coming appearance of Mrs. Dorothy Biddle, Garden Club editor of Flower Grower, who will give two lectures at First Baptist Church, June 6. She will talk in the morning, of Color Theory and in the afternoon of Flower Arrangements.
 A silver tea given by the Herb Group will be at the clubhouse this Thursday at two o'clock. The Lebanon club will present the program. There will be an exchange of herbs.

Committee in charge of the pioneer float to be entered in the Portland Rose Show parade, asked that the garden club contact different organizations in Eugene and secure donations of flowers. A large number of those present agreed to help with the project.
 Dr. A. H. Norton showed a display of pollen and floribunda roses and gave an interesting account of their development.
 H. E. Jorgensen showed roses such as would be suitable for display in the rose show, slated for May 31. He explained rules for the show and possible grooming, urging everyone to enter their best blossoms, and so help to make the show a success. He told that a garden tour is being planned for the Sunday following the show, with the end to be at the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Andersen, where tea will be served. Pictures of roses in color were shown.

Mrs. G. D. Graves conducted a ceremony installing the new officers of the club, and a corsage was given each one.
