PUPPY AVAILABLE
 Mrs. John Anderson, 1891 Harris St., said Saturday that she has a stray black puppy, "possibly a Labrador retriever," to give to someone in the country. There is too much traffic where she lives for her to keep him, she said. Her phone number is 5038.

Hatch Warns Against Split

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Sen. Carl
 A. Hatch (D-NM) said Saturday that even if Henry Wallace should form a third party, "it couldn't have a chance of winning" in '48,
 '52 or any other political year.

"The only possible outcome" would be the election of a Republican President, the New Mexico senator said.

"It would so divide the ranks of the Democratic Party, it would assure the election of a Republican," Hatch told reporters.

"There would be no chance for a third party to win."

Wallace suggested in Denver earlier this week that a third party might be necessary if the Democrats turn out to be a "war" party.

To this Hatch tartly replied:
 "If, as Mr. Wallace says, the promise of a third party turns upon whether the Democratic Party becomes a war party—the answer is unequivocally, 'No, there will be no third party.'"

"The Democratic Party never has been, and never will be, a war party."

The same holds true of the Republican Party, Hatch added. He said:

"The people of America are not war-minded."

Willard A. Johnson

Opening the program will be Handel's "Concerto Grosso, Opus 6, Number 12." This selection will feature William Shisler, 320 Thirteenth Ave. E., and Janet Shafer, and Helen Hoyt, Portland, string soloists.

Also on the program are Saint Saens' "Tarentelle for flute, clarinet, and orchestra," Hindemith's
 "March from the Metamorphosis of Themes by Weber," Benjamin Britten's "Soloes Musical," and Britten's "Suite of Five Movements from Rossini."

Directed by Rex Underwood, the orchestra will appear under the auspices of the school of music and the educational activities board.

John Milliorn
 Services for John Milliorn, 68, well-known McKenzie River guide who died May 28 in an auto accident, will be at Bartholomew-

Buell Mortuary Monday at 10 a.m.

Interment will be in Prineville.

A native of Lane County, he was born June 1, 1878, at Junction City, and moved to Prineville with his family at the age of two. In 1923 he returned to Lane County, living up the McKenzie River, where he was a member of the Guides Assn. and of the McKenzie River Protective and Development Assn. He married Bessie Berg at Roseburg in October, 1944.

Surviving are a brother, George, Prineville; three sisters, Mrs.
 Maude Logan, Redmond, Mrs. Eugenia Mulholland, LaGrande, and Mrs. Lucy Long, LeHarve, Calif.; and several cousins.

Eula M. Hollingsworth

Funeral services for Mrs. Eula
 M. Hollingsworth, 355 Eighth Ave.
 W., who died Thursday at her home, will be Monday at 10:30 a.m. at Veatch Hollingsworth England Mortuary. Dr. Norman K. Tully will officiate, and interment will be in Rest Haven Memorial Park, under direction of Blue River Chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Hollingsworth was born at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and was a graduate of Cedar Falls Normal School and Chicago Conservatory of Music. She was married Nov. 4, 1916, in Chicago to John L. Hollingsworth, and came to Eugene with him in 1927. He is an insurance underwriter.

She was a member of Presbyterian Church, O.E.S., Dial Club, and was active in church work.

Surviving are her widower, in Eugene; children, Guilford L. and Jean Randolph Hollingsworth, both of Seattle; and two granddaughters.

The family has requested that no flowers be sent to the funeral, but that persons interested in establishing a memorial contact Dr.
 Tully.

Alice Emily Camp
 Alice Emily Camp, 65, for many years pastor of the Methodist Church in Creswell, died at her home in Seattle Friday. She was born Sept. 16, 1881, in Iowa, and married the Rev. Cecil Camp.
 After their marriage they spent 25 years in India as missionaries for the church, and in 1938 returned to the United States where Mr. Camp was pastor of the Creswell Methodist Church until his death in 1938. Mrs. Camp took over the church until June, 1946, when ill health forced her retirement.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. E.
 F. Nuttall, Seattle; a brother, Guy R. Hubbard, Sycamore, Ill., and two children, Mrs. Robert R.
 Wright, Creswell, and John E.
 Camp, Seattle.

Services will be at Creswell Methodist Church Monday at 2:30 p.m., with Scherwing England Mortuary in charge.

Van Heusen Shirts

On
FATHER'S DAY

with the Van Heusen Collar attached

Take our tip when you buy shirts for your men. More and more men are switching to this famous shirt with the one and only Van Heusen collar attached. They like the perfect fit of the collar that's actually woven to fit the neck. They like the way this collar can take a beating all day and still retain early morning unwilted freshness. They like the generous fullness and the fine workmanship. They'll like your judgment when you give them Van Heusens!

Van Heusen Neckwear

The old "I hope he likes them" feeling doesn't hold when the gift ties you select are by Van Heusen. The colors and patterns in this collection were made up expressly for Van Heusen neckwear stylists. There are ties in this group to suit every taste.
