Junction Starts Church Foundation

JUNCTION CITY—Ground breaking ceremonies are Sunday, June 1 for the new Methodist Church at the 10th and Laurel St. site at 3 p.m. Jerry Stone as trumpeter, and the MYF Choir singing "The Holy City," will provide the music.

The ground is to be dedicated, after which George Gilmore, trustee chairman, presents the deed to O. F. Morgan for safe keeping. The plan is to be presented to the builder, Mr. Graabe, by Architect Ralph C. Beardsworth. First earth is to be turned by Mrs. Anna Pitney, eldest member of the church. Representatives of various organizations in the congregation will also use the shovel. The 11 a. m. morning service at the church will be built around the building theme: "Ladder of Life," or counting the cost of building a church. He will be assisted by Rev. R. V. Pike of West Chester, Iowa, his father-in-law. At 1 p.m. a potluck dinner is to be held in the church parlors, with all members and friends urged to attend and remain for the 3 p.m. service. Actual construction begins as soon as detail plans are finished and materials assembled.

Daily Vacation Bible School meets at the Methodist Church June 2 to 13, 9 to 11:30 a.m. Mrs. C. A. Pitney is superintendent. Teaching staff: nursery: Grace Foote; assistant, Donna Kenyon; beginners, Shirley Rosen; assistant, Margaret Hulbert; primary, Nida Zumwalt; assistant, Bonnie Knudsen; junior, Beth Christensen; assistant, Betty Ford; intermediate, Carl Mason; juniors and intermediates will do their work. A sound film is to be shown on the final day.

Bible School for the Lutheran Church begins the same date, June 2, at 8:30 a.m. in the Lutheran Hall. The classes will include nursery age children and preschool, through the eighth grade. The Baptist and Christian Church-sponsored school will start Monday June 2, also at 9 a.m. in the Christian Church Hall. All children from pre-school age, to and including eighth grade students are invited.

Seven Junction City girls are to compete for selection of a princess to represent Post No. 61, American Legion, and Junction City in the Oregon Trail Pageant, according to Gerald Ross, local chairman.

The girls are: Christine Domaschofsky, Barbara Lemert, Phyllis McKay, Virginia Strone, Joyce Helms, Pat Murphy and Carol Vinyard.

A float is being made by the Junction City Grange.

OAKLAND NEWS
OAKLAND—Schools close June 11, on account of starting late in the fall. Two honor students have received scholarships. Joanne Bowington was awarded a scholarship from University of Oregon and Ralph N. Hakanson a scholarship from Oregon State College. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Oberman, May 27, at a Roseburg hospital. Mrs. Doyle has sold her sandwich shop on the highway, near the box factory, to Mrs. M. A. Armaby and Mrs. C. B. Turnidge. They also bought the building which was owned by A. F. Stearns. The new owners are taking possession immediately. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith of the Sanitary Market are spending several days at Odell Lake and other points in the mountains.

Deafened Now Hear With Tiny Single Unit

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music and friendly companionship. Accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine of the American Medical Association. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Beltona, Dept. 14, 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill., are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get a full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny.
