MAYOR EARL McNUTT (right) here presents a safe-driving award to A. C. Goettsche of Eugene who has driven 47 years without an accident or traffic citation. (Wiltshire photo and engraving).

Reedsport Legion Elects Robert Sund

REEDSPORT — Robert Sund, recent University of California graduate, was elected commander of Reedsport Post No. 62 Wednesday evening. Walter Murphey, first vice commander; Martin Brandon, second vice-commander; Jack Everett, adjutant; Gordon Talley, finance officer; Glenn Shirtcliff, sergeant at arms; Charles Howitt, chaplain; J. C. Mohler, historian; and Roy Cairns, Loren Gerhart, Lester Thompson, Edgar B. Stevens and Berge Borrevik members of the executive committee. Principal matters of business, opening of the Legion Club and installation of new officers to be held with Auxiliary June 18.

Two sisters of the Holy Names from St. Monica's School, Coos Bay, are conducting summer catechism classes each day at St. Ann's Catholic Church, Reedsport. The summer school began June 2, and will continue to June 14, with a picnic at Lake Cleawox.

McKenzie Folks Dance Saturday for Queen

BLUE RIVER—A free benefit dance after the show Saturday evening is offered at Blue River Theater, to further the campaign of Marilyn Byerlin, McKenzie River's candidate for pageant queen. Women please bring sandwiches.

Boy Found on Street

A thirteen-year-old boy who said he had run away from his home at Dorris, Calif., was turned over to county juvenile officers Friday by Eugene police. The youth, James Johnson, was picked up by police early Friday at Sixth and Washington. He had a cap pistol, firecrackers and $2.70 in his possesion when taken to the police station.

Warm-blooded animals in cool regions usually are larger than corresponding species in warmer climates.

LOAM, FILL DIRT
Bar Run Gravel
Prompt Delivery
T. C. WILDISH
Phone 4671 or 2645-W

HOUSE MOVING & RAISING
AHRE & RICHMOND
540 Van Buren St. Ph. 3719-J

Lawn Rollers
Equipment Rental Co.
1901½ W. 6th Ph. 4026-J

TEBSIN TABLETS
Absorbent Antacid
Does not contain harmful or habit-forming ingredients.
PENNY WISE DRUG
40 E. Broadway 769 W. 6th

HESS & DEVEREAUX
CEMENT CONTRACTING
Phone 32-F-11 — 5568-M
209 ELKAY DRIVE

Kem-Tone
Miracle One-Coat Wall Finish
Johnson Furniture Co.
649 Willamette Ph. 2693

RADIO DEAD? CALL Modern PHONE 4507

DAYS CAFE
Open Under
NEW MANAGEMENT
Stop in on Your Weekend Trip
COAST HIGHWAY
2 Miles North of Florence

Leaburg Pledges Votes For McKenzie Queen

LEABURG—Miss Marilyn Beyerlin of Vida is in the contest to represent all the McKenzie area, for a princess for the pageant, and will be called Miss McKenzie. Dan Nee is her business manager. The amount of advertising material sold, determines who will be chosen princess. The contest closes June 10, so let's everyone support Marilyn.

Creswell Cuts School To Voters' Orders

CRESWELL — At a "call meeting" of the board of directors of district No. 40 this week the budget that was turned down at the recent meeting was amended:

Eliminating one teacher at $2400, also the purchase of huts for class rooms at $3500.

The amount of $200 was added for the purchase of text books as the price of the books has gone up since the previous election. This budget will be voted on at the grade school building Thursday, June 26, polls open from 7 to 8 p.m. The annual school meeting is Monday, June 16.

Odd Fellows draped their charter Wednesday evening in memory of the late George M. Hawley, charter member. V. W. Johnston gave his report from the recent meeting of the Grand Lodge at The Dalles. L. J. Quigley was appointed reporter.

The group planned to arrange a lodge sign on the highway entering Creswell, and will contact other groups in doing the same.

The annual strawberry feed of Moss Circle NOW is Saturday, June 14 with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sears in charge. Miss Myrtle Smith, Mrs. Ed Bates, Mrs. J. P. Walker and Mrs. Elsie Regis will be in charge of the potluck dinner at Camas Swale Club Tuesday, June 9. J. R. Miller and L. J. Quigley are in charge of the lunch at Honor Rebekah Lodge Wednesday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Hoagland and Mrs. Richard Campbell entertained the Presbyterian Aid Society at the Hoagland home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. B. Gillespie was appointed to make the birthday corsages. Mrs. James D. Moberg reported that 170 pounds of relief clothing has been collected and sent and more is needed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Barney Doyle with Mrs. William Thomson assisting.

Mrs. A. A. DeMeyer and daughter, Joan, left this week for their home in Boise, Ida., after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Stone. They also came to attend the funeral of their uncle, George M. Hawley at Cottage Grove.

A son was born Tuesday, June 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller of Portland. Mrs. Miller was formerly Barbara Dorris and the baby is the first grandchild of Mrs. Catherine Dorris of Creswell.

Men wore long hair until the fifth century. One masculine style in long hair was braiding two plaits and winding them around the head.

FILL and BAR DIRT and RUN
Eugene or Springfield
INTER-CITY
SAND & GRAVEL
Phone Eugene 958 or Spfld. 535

KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES
Byrom & Kneeland
THE MAN'S SHOP
32 East 10th

Jarman SHOES FOR MEN
MORRISON-HENNING
McDonald Theater Bldg.

LANDSCAPING
DESIGN • CONSTRUCTION
FAIRWIN
Landscape Construction Corp.
Phone 5143-W

COMBINATION
RADIOS & PHONOGRAPHS
LYONS FURNITURE CO.

Princess McKenzie Bids for Followers

McKENZIE BRIDGE—Merylin Beyerlin has been entered in the princess contest for the forthcoming Oregon Trail Pageant. She will represent the entire McKenzie and will be backed by the business people on the river. Votes are determined by the amount of advertising material sold by each girl. All who have not as yet been contacted are urged to support our "Miss McKenzie." The contest closes June 10.

The R. B. Jacks's announce the opening of their beautiful new general merchandise store, featuring sporting goods.

Personals

The Bob Kennedy's are proud parents of a little girl, Sandra Anne. Mrs. Susan B. Lewis, Harrisburg, is visiting Mrs. Grace Harbick. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wells, Los Angeles, are visiting his mother, Mrs. Cross, and brother, Don Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lambert, an ex-navy man, have purchased the Brukie place on King Road.

Noti Couples Married In Reno Ceremonies

NOTI — Mr. and Mrs. George Drury and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beebe, married in Reno last Sunday, were here Thursday visiting relatives of both brides. Mrs. Drury was Miss Joan Drinkwater and Mrs. Beebe was Miss Doris Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Helge Swanson.

Lois Berens is reported recovering from a bad attack of diphtheria. Mrs. Hilbert Adanks and little daughter, Joy, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth VanDevender and children, will leave in a few days for a visit in Wisconsin, their former home.

Parents of pre-school and grade school children are urged to keep in mind the Daily Vacation Bible School, to be held for two weeks at the Church of Christ beginning June 16. The teachers, Miss Ella and Miss Edna Hadley will occupy the Earl Hazel home. The Hazel family are on a trip which will take them to Massachusetts and to Nova Scotia, to visit his folks whom he has not seen for 20 years, when he came to Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stone and Mrs. C. D. Mathews are expected home Saturday from a pleasure trip to Victoria, B. C.

Deerhorn Family News

DEERHORN — Mr. and Mrs Rennie Koozer entertained Sunday for a group of 30. The honored guests were two young couples, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Todd of Corvallis, who were recently married; and Miss Hazel Beuchner and Lester Wheeler whose approaching marriage has been announced. Mrs. Todd, a niece of Mrs. Koozer, will be remembered as Miss Hasle Ogden, formerly a resident of this community. Miss Beuchner is also a niece of Mrs. Koozer, coming to Deerhorn about a year ago from her home in California. Before the picnic supper, bridal shower gifts were presented to the couples. Miss Beuchner graduates from Springfield Union High this year and Wheeler is in the public school system at Junction City. He was a teacher in Deerhorn before his Army service.

Dorothy Deckert is the only graduate of Springfield Union High School from this immediate community this year.

Mrs. Anita Maple Benson Jones will receive her degree at Oregon State College at the commencement ceremonies. Her family, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Benson and relatives plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Farnham and Miss Grace Farnham of Campbell, Calif., have been visiting relatives, including the E. E. Potter family and the Emmerichs. They will also visit with other relatives in Oregon before returning to their home. Miss Farnham has been home three and one-half years from Japan where she had served about 15 years as a missionary before her interment by the Japanese for about two years. She plans to return to her missionary school work in the fall, when arrangements are completed for her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schluckebier and family have purchased the buildings and leased some property from Marion Bigelow. They plan to make their home in Deerhorn, where they lived before going to Walterville. Melvin, the youngest son, will be enrolled in the Deerhorn School and Shirley, the youngest daughter, will enter Springfield Union High School in the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Hi Winnop and their three little girls have moved back to their own home after spending the winter at the Bigelow place. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marquardt are announcing the birth of a son on May 30. Another new arrival is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bigelow, who has been named Donald, Junior.

The hard rains of the past week have been destructive to the cherries and strawberries, but have been a life-saver for the grain and hay crops that are still immature.

ELMIRA PERSONALS

ELMIRA — Mr. and Mrs. John Bown entertained with a family dinner party recently, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Phillips and Mrs. Ruth Gilmore and son of Peoria, Illinois, cousins of Tom Bown, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bown and other relatives here.

David Harrington of Austa, is spending the week with his grandmother, Mrs. Ben Harrington, who has resigned from her job with the Walton Lumber Co.

have been manufactured. The American Magazine reports, which slip over stockinged toes and offer protection against rain to women wearing open-toed shoes.

Lumberman Offers Aid To Fall Creek's Church

FALL CREEK — A delegation from the Women's Missionary Circle of Fall Creek Church visited L. S. Anderson of Fall Creek Sawmill yesterday.

He wished to confer with us in regard to offering financial help to the church here. His offer of kind co-operation is greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Callison are away on a trip to California. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Callison, of Bend, formerly residents here, are staying in their home during their absence. Mr. and Mrs. Joe England have as visitors their son Dick and wife and grandson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Krisp of Modesto, Calif.

Grove Logger Hurt

COTTAGE GROVE—Don Owen was hurt Wednesday morning in the woods northeast of the city while bucking with a power saw on a steep incline near the Doc Sears place. Pinned underneath a log, it took workers some time to get him out and to a hospital in Eugene. He was badly bruised but no bones were broken.

The liquor store will no longer be located in the Kelly Drug Store but on north Eighth Street, near the bus depot. Jack Kelly is to be in charge of the new set-up.

Among the graduates receiving degrees at Oregon State College this year will be Richard Knox Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Smith and C. Stewart Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts, both of this city.

Smith is receiving a bachelor of science, and Roberts is from the department of engineering. Both are returned veterans.

The American Legion will show two films Monday evening in the dining room on the third floor of the Oddfellows building, public welcome, no admission. One film will be colored pictures of the 1946 national Legion convention in San Francisco, the other will be on universal military training.

Rev. D. Hugh Peniston of the First Presbyterain Church officiated at the graveside services Thursday morning at the Walker Cemetery for John F. Simmons, of Portland, a brother-in-law of Dr. W. E. Lebow of this city. His widow is the former Nora Lebow.

Roy S. Heck, manager of the J. C. Penney store in Rifle, Colo., is spending his vacation in Lane County. Heck, whose parents formerly owned and operated a store on west Main Street here, has lived in Colorado the past 15 years. He will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heck, at their home in Springfield, as well as other relatives there and come to Cottage Grove later to renew acquaintances here. Mrs. Heck, a niece of Mrs. Velma Harrell, did not accompany her husband on this trip, but visited here a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard are receiving congratulations on the birth of their daughter, Tahni Sue, born Saturday, May 31 at the Smith Maternity Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Diamond are also being felicitated on the arrival of their daughter, Marcia Louise, Tuesday, June 3, 1947 at the same hospital. Mrs. Lester Coiner and daughter, Marjory, left Monday of this week for Los Angeles where they will visit Mrs. Coiner's parents. Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter, Victoria Irene, to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Young (Fay Young), in Astoria where Mrs. Young is living at present, though she hopes in a few months to join her husband who is now living in Guam.

Oakland's Graduates

OAKLAND — Graduation for both the seniors and eighth grade students, at the high school, was Friday evening. Charles Stanton, editor of the Roseburg News Review, spoke. There are nine seniors and 24 eighth graders.

Seniors: Patricia Powell, Patricia Henry, Shirley Fickes, Dixie Emerson, Dorothy Snyder, Elsie Miller, Joanne Bovingdon, Donna Miller and Ralf Hakanson.

Marie Jane (Bovingdon) Reese is receiving her master's degree at University of Oregon. Ruth Bovingdon is graduating from the U. of O. school of nursing at Multnomah County Hospital. James Edwin Stearns received his degree from Oregon State College.

Willard L. Gilbreath of Camas, Wash., has been hired as superintendent of Oakland schools for next year.

Pfc. John D. Applebee has gone to Camp Cook, Calif., after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Applebee. He wan formerly stationed at Ft. Lewis.

AT THORNTON CORNERS

THORNTON CORNERS — Miss Joanne Premazzi, who is attending Monmouth Normal, is home on vacation.. S. P. Shortridge, who recently underwent a major operation in a Eugene hospital is reported as convalescing satisfactorily. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crouch, who have been living in one of the George Foster houses, have moved this week to Gerberville, Calif.

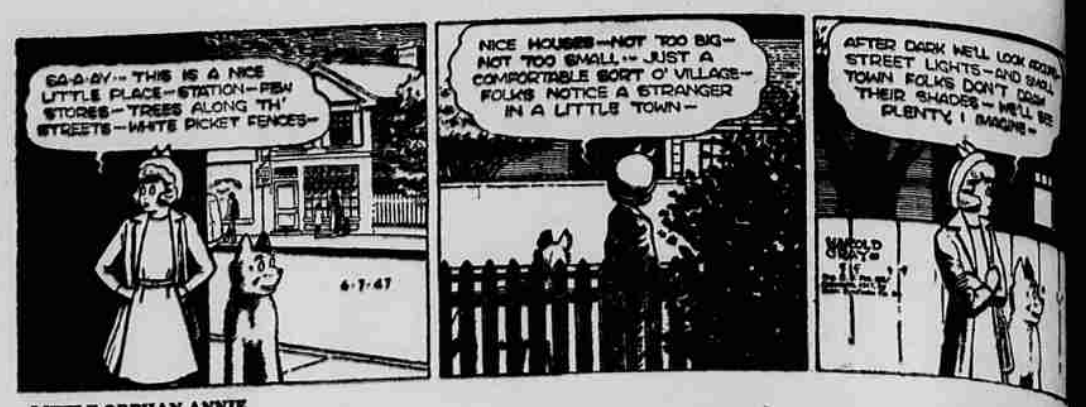
CENTRAL NEWS

CENTRAL—J. C. Williams left Wednesday for his recently purchased ranch near Bend. He has it rented until fall and does not plan on moving until then.

The Grange women of Central entertained the H. E. C. Club of Crow Grange at the Central Grange Hall.

REVIVAL SERVICES

LOST CREEK — A revival meeting is in progress at the Zion Church of Christ and will continue nightly except Saturday through June 15 at 7:45 p. m. Arlo Bristow, who was raised in this area, is the evangelist. Everyone is invited.



LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Walton Logger Hurt

WALTON—Earl Surcamp, Superintendent of Globe Lumber Co. was hit on the back of the head with a log, while helping out at the cold deck Tuesday. He was unconscious for some time before an ambulance arrived to take him to the Eugene Hospital. He was discharged from the hospital Thursday.

Vandals, hardly waiting for school to close, are destroying school property, already. Glass has been broken out of a great many windows and doors, the floors being littered with rocks and broken glass. Who ever is doing this thing, surely does not realize they are putting the whole community out a great deal of money which will come out of taxes.

Last summer the lower panels were broken from the doors. These things are hard to replace.

Annual budget school meeting will be held at the schoolhouse June 16. Election of one new director to be held.

Next meeting of Ladies Club will be June 18, roll call, everyone to take a recipe.

Quite a large group gathered at the cemetery with a picnic on Memorial Day, spending the day, falling large fir trees. Roots were pulled out and heavy work done with a Globe Lumber Co. truck. Mrs. Emma Surcamp and Mrs. Maggie Cunningham, did, the annual cleaning job. Funds for this are donated by interested persons each year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen, sons, Darrell and Melvin have left for Utah and Kansas City, Missouri, for a month visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vaughn of Dorena were weekend guests at the George Vaughn home, all attending the festival at Florence Sunday. Others going from here were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Deedon, Mr. and Mrs. Max Bishop and Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vaughn and children.

DEXTER PERSONALS

DEXTER—Mrs. Vera Dotter and son Clayton of Hollywood, Calif. are visiting Mrs. Dotter and son Lary.

Mrs. Regan and daughter of Albany have been visiting her brother Rufus Castleman. Four-H Sewing Girls met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Charles Pettis. The name "Dexter Scissor Snappers" was adopted. Two new members, Adell Hughes and Joan Parker joined, making a total of 18 members.

Miss Ina Pettis is the leader for the 1-A girls who are making needle cases. The next meeting is Tuesday, June 10 at the home of Diane Manwaring.

SAGINAW NEWS

SAGINAW—A large crowd attended the school picnic Tuesday; owing to the rain the dinner was served at the Saginaw-Walker Community Hall at Walker. The grade school children and the community women played softball, the women winning 12 to 9. Graduating exercises were held that evening for the five graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers of Richmond, Calif. spent several days recently with Mrs. Rogers cousin, Mrs. Jim Abbott. Quannis Abbott returned home with them to spend several weeks.

Several of the Teen Agers gave Leonora Johnston a surprise party on her birthday Thursday evening. Mrs. Howard Keene entertained 12 children recently in honor of her daughter Anna Louise's 11th birthday.

Frank Clark who had been staying at the Abbott home and teaching school, left Wednesday for his home at Milton, where he will spend the summer. He has been elected to teach school again this fall.

LONE PINE GRADUATION

LONE PINE — Graduating exercises for the eighth grade will be held in the school house Tuesday, June 10, at 7:30 p.m. with Rev. Norman Byers, pastor of River Road Chapel, speaker.

Lewis Hill, Fay Love and D. Appleby are the graduates.

All parents and friends of the school are invited to attend the school picnic Wednesday, June 11. A short program will be given by the teacher and pupils at 10:30 a.m., followed by a potluck dinner at noon. As usual the Creamery Club will furnish ice cream for the occasion. The picnic will be held on the school grounds.

Mrs. W. A. Piquet received word recently that her nephew, Willard Troxel, was critically injured in a motorcycle accident near Pendleton, Ore., June 1. He is in a very serious condition according to latest reports.

The Mormon Church is a stockholder in the Union Pacific. Translucent plastic ice