AFL Conclave Nears Finish

BEND — (AP) — The State Federation of Labor went into its final session Friday minus its traditional policy of endorsements for political candidates. Delegates wiped out the policy with a 148-102 vote Thursday to make only individual records of candidates known to union members, without recommendation. They also protested government expenditures on vocational schools, passing a resolution that declared "implicit belief in the superiority of apprenticeship training over the so-called vocational education available in industrial schools."

Ku Klux Klan Dissolved By Court at Own Request

ATLANTA, Ga. — (AP) — The hooded order of the Ku Klux Klan, born during turbulent reconstruction days and revived on a high tide of anti-Negro feeling after World War II, was dissolved by court order Friday. Superior Court Judge Bond Almand granted without fanfare a surprise Klan request that its charter be dissolved. The move came as the state of Georgia moved into the courts with a suit instigated by former Gov. Ellis Arnall to wipe out the secret order.

It was a bitter Friday, the 13th, for Klan Grand Dragon Samuel Green who witnessed the end of the order. But he had already conferred with his attorney, Morgan Belser, and agreed to drop the fight to stay in business. Green has directed the resurgence of the Klan which was climaxed with an elaborate initiation ceremony on Stone Mountain near Atlanta on April 9, 1946. After that initiation, Green was swamped with applications for charters and for memberships from numerous states. After the charter was granted by Fulton Superior Court last week, Belser said the public erroneously believed the Klan was embarking on a resurgent drive.

Overell Trial Jury Not Yet Selected

SANTA ANA, Cal. — (AP) — The timebomb murder trial of Beulah Louise Overell, 18, and George R. (Bud) Gollum, 21, was recessed Friday to give time for rounding up another 50 prospective jurors. Constable George Bartley was ordered by Judge Kenneth E. Morrison to round up the talemens and have them in court Monday morning. Prosecutor Eugene D. Williams and Defense Counsel Otto Jacobs have gone through more than 300 prospective talemens without agreeing on a jury to try the young couple for the murder of her wealthy parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Overell.
