General to Join Freedom Move

BERNE, Switzerland — (U.P.) — Gen. Ladislas Jekely, general secretary of the Hungarian Smallholders Party, and minister to two countries, said Friday he had severed connections with the Budapest government and would leave for the United States to join former Prime Minister Ferenc Nagy.

"I am going to join Nagy in his fight for a free Hungary," Jekely said.

He said he had wired President Zoltan Tildy on Thursday resigning his official duties and that he would not return to Hugary.

(Budapest dispatches said Jekely reportedly had informed Tildy he no longer could serve the new government "because it had lost its freedom as a result of the communist maneuver.")

Trans - World Airlines said Jekely was scheduled to leave Geneva Saturday.

Jekely said in a written statement to the United Press that the conspiracy charges against Nagy were "ridiculous and not taken seriously by any part of the Hungarian people."
