

Cottage Grove's Riding Youths 'Migrate' to Eugene for Rodeo

COTTAGE GROVE — Our city will be well represented at the Junior Rodeo, Saturday and Sunday at the Lane County Fairgrounds, Eugene, by a group of young riders which includes Beth Peacock, a princess of the rodeo, Tommy Eddy and Della Mae Weldon, well-known western performers, and Gerald Mason, Gerald Miller, John Leonard, and John and Kenton Van Nortwick. Most of the youngsters are members of the Cottage Grove Riding Club, which plans to attend the rodeo "to a man."

Lions Club met Thursday noon and held their last luncheon meeting until September. Most important business was announce-

Java Dispute Flaring Again

JOGJAKARTA, Java — (AP) — Confronted by a solid front of opposition to his moderate policies, Premier Sutan Sjahrir quit as head of the Indonesian Republic's cabinet Friday and Indonesian sources said "only a miracle" could prevent renewed armed conflict with the Dutch.

A Dutch spokesman in Batavia, however, said the Netherlands East Indies government expected President Soekarno, in his first move as head of an emergency presidential cabinet, to request arbitration of the current crisis by a third power or by the United Nations.

Arbitration Request The spokesman said the NEI government had been informed unofficially that a letter from Soekarno containing such an arbitration request probably would be delivered to H. J. Van Mook, the acting governor general, some time Friday.

Sjahrir stepped out during an all-night cabinet meeting at which he found all Indonesian political parties aligned against his policy of making concessions to the Netherlands in negotiations concerning formation of an interim government for the United States of Indonesia, which is slated to attain independence on Jan. 1, 1949.

President Soekarno immediately accepted the 37-year-old premier's resignation but ordered members of Sjahrir's cabinet to retain their portfolios until a new cabinet could be formed under the president's personal leadership.

Glenwood Nearing Incorporation Vote

Glenwood has taken its first step toward becoming an incorporated community. A petition for an election on the question is being prepared by Clinton N. Anderson, Eugene attorney, and will be presented at the next meeting of the Glenwood Businessmen's Assn. July 7 at the Glenwood School.

A committee consisting of William Sly, William Cook and James Estop was named at the last meeting to study the question of boundaries and it also is slated to report July 7.

City Manager Deane Seeger of Eugene has been scheduled for a talk at this meeting, in which he will present information about municipal government. For several months the businessmen's group at Glenwood has been studying and debating the question of incorporating and the alternatives of annexation to Springfield or Eugene.

Rapid growth of the area has emphasized such problems as sewage disposal and streets, and revealed a desire for police protection and other services.
