Elizabethan Gown Worn by Bride

A stately bride in a satin gown of Elizabethan lines was Miss Eleanor Marie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Renholt Anderson, at her marriage Tuesday evening to Richard Wendell Will, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Will. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Frank S. Beistel, Lutheran minister, at First Congregational Church at seven o'clock.

Before the service, Miss Marilyn Griffith, soprano, sang "Til the End of Time" and "I Love Thee" (Grieg), with organ accompaniment by Miss Mary Grubbs. Baskets of white gladiolus decorated the church, and white tapers filled candelabra, also lighted candles, and traditional marches were played.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown had a front-buttoned bodice with Peter Pan collar, long sleeves, and a full skirt with train. Her fingertip veil, falling from a pointed crown of orange blossoms, was borrowed for the occasion from Mrs. Theodore Kleinman. Her cascade bouquet of white gladiolus florets was centered by a gardenia, arranged with net and tied with white satin ribbons.

For something old, the bride wore a small gold-and-pearl pin

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 16)

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB SENDS INVITATIONS TO CENTENNIAL TEA

Members of Fortnightly Club have extended invitations to their friends to attend a Centennial Tea to be held in the garden of the Clarence Chase home Wednesday afternoon, from two-thirty to five o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Chase as hostesses will be Mrs. F. G. Havemann, Mrs. Lester Beck, Mrs. Wilson Jewett, Mrs. Graham Smith, Mrs. Everett Harpham, Mrs. R. E. Kerr, Mrs. J. P. MacKinnon and Mrs. J. Don Smith.

The program will be given by Miss Pauline Walton, who for many years was head of the department of Oregon history at the University. Her program is titled "Scenes Highlighting Eugene's Early History." To add to the interest of the scenes portrayed, Miss Walton will wear her mother's wedding dress. There will be music during the afternoon to carry out the historical theme. One of the interesting musical features will be numbers played by Mrs. Morris Moorhead on a melodeon.

Tables for tea also will carry out the Centennial theme and the young women who assist in serving guests will wear pageant dresses. These will include Mrs. John Northam, Miss Nancy Chase, Mrs. R. E. Kerr, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Skinner.

Fehly photo, Wiltshire Engraving

MRS. WILL

The wedding march was played Tuesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Will (Eleanor Anderson) at a seven-o'clock ceremony in First Congregational Church.

Brother Escorts Bride to Altar

Miss Mildred Fix, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Fix of Fargo, N. D., and the late Mr. Fix, became the bride of Milton Selle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Selle of Halliday, N. D., June 23, at St. Mary's Catholic Church, at four o'clock. The Rev. Father Basil, O. S. B., officiated.

Miss Fix wore a gown of white

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 17)

MRS. MORSE AND DAUGHTERS ARRIVE FROM WASHINGTON

Mrs. Wayne L. Morse and daughters, Nancy, Judith and Amy, arrived at their home here Sunday, to spend the summer months. They made the trip by car from Washington, D. C. Senator Morse is expected early in August, if Congress adjourns at its appointed time, to join them.

Judith and Amy, the younger girls, have gone to Camp Cleawox, Girl Scout camp. The family will be here until September 10.

Miss Pengra Wedded at Home

White gladiolus and pink carnations formed a floral altar in the large bay window at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Norton Pengra in Garden Way, for the recent wedding of their daughter, Jane Alice, to Louis H. Metz, Jr., of Portland. The ceremony was read at eight o'clock in the evening of June 27 by Dr. O. C. Wright of First Baptist Church in Portland.

Mr. Pengra gave his daughter's hand in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white marquisette, its yoke outlined with embroidered medallions. It had a bouffant skirt and full bishop sleeves. Her three-quarter-length veil was held by a Juliet cap ornamented with pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and white sweet peas, centered by an orchid.

Mrs. Ronald Paul, sister of the bride, as matron attendant wore a pale pink marquisette gown similarly styled, and carried white sweet peas centered by pink carnations.

Judith Carol Pengra, the bride's six-year-old niece, in long white gown, was flower girl.

Thornton Lemmon of Portland was best man. Ushers were Byron Pengra and Donald Pengra, who also lighted the candles which provided illumination.

Wedding music was played by an instrumental trio, and Miss Eula Mae Eddy sang "Always" and "At Dawning."

The mother of the bride wore a gown of blue with a pink rosebud corsage, and the bridegroom's mother wore black, with corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a large reception was held at the home, other guests joining the relatives. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. O. W. Hays, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Paul McCabe relieved her in the second hour. Mrs. Stephen Katula of Pe Ell, Wash., great-aunt of the bride, served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Lester Hill poured, assisted by Mrs. Clifford Travillion. Serving were Mrs. Julia Gray, Mrs. Fred Frese, Mrs. Donald Scott, Mrs. Byron Pengra, Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. W. T. Countryman, Jr., and Miss Marguerite Ordway. Mrs. Lloyd Whitaker received guests at the door, and Mrs. Bernald Holtan and Mrs. Jerry Adams were hostesses.

For going away, the bride wore a suit of brown faille and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Metz will be at home in Portland. Mrs. Metz, a graduate of the University of Oregon, had been Christian Education director at White Temple in Portland during the past year. Mr. Metz is attending engineering school at Vanport College.

Reunion of Group Held

By ANN CONNELL

Better even than vacations are the reunions of old friends which come with summertime, and of this order was a house-party held at the L. C. Scharpf summer home on the McKenzie River Tuesday and Wednesday. It was the reunion of nine girls, the "Deta Eta" group of Eugene High School, organized in 1928. All nine members were together for the first time in eleven years, although they came from places as widely separated as Juneau, Alaska, and Honolulu, T.H.

Hostess at the gathering was Mrs. Baxter Reed of Portland (Lois Scharpf). From Honolulu came Mrs. Willis Eberhardt (Ernestine Gilstrap) who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Walker. The visitor from Juneau was Mrs. John Haymeier (Kathryn Liston), guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. A. Wintermeier. Others from out of town were Mrs. From Williams of Portland (Peggy Reynolds) and Mrs. William Barker of Medford (Sue Hurley). The Eugeneans were Mrs. Herbert Jones (Peggy Durgan), Mrs. Rex Hamaker (Lucile Skele), Mrs. Glenn Byrnes (Virginia Wheeler) and Mrs. Gordon Goodpasture (Ellene Long).

Lowry photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. METZ

A home wedding which was followed by a large reception was that of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Metz, Jr., (Jane Alice Pengra).

Hodgin-Thomas Rite Is Morning Service At Catholic Church

St. Mary's Catholic Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Ida Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas of Eugene, to Kenneth Hodgin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hodgin of Reliance, S. D., June 23 at nine o'clock in in the morning. The Very Rev. Francis P. Leipzig officiated.

The bride's gown was of white brocaded satin, made with sweetheart neckline, long full sleeves, and medium train. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of flowers fashioned from seed pearls. She wore a four-strand pearl necklace, the gift of her grandmother, Mrs. Ida Thomas of Pueblo, Colo., and carried a bridal bouquet of roses, stephanotis and gardenias.

Miss Dorothy Thomas, sister of

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 16)

Fehly photo, Wiltshire Engraving

MRS. LAWSON

Ancestral jewelry was worn at her wedding July 6 by Mrs. Donald G. Lawson (Nadine George).

Heirloom Jewelry Worn By Bride In Sunday Wedding

Miss Nadine Ann George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stillman K. George Jr. of Eugene and Donald G. Lawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lawson of Portland were married July 6 at the First Congregational Church with the Rev. Wesley G. Nicholson officiating.

Miss George wore a gown of white faille made with bateau neckline, bouffant skirt and flared peplum extending into a long train. Her long veil was trimmed with appliqued flowers and held by a braided crown of white faille. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations with white orchid in center. She wore a diamond ring which belonged to her grandmother, and black and white cameo set with pearls, which was her great-great-aunt's. Mrs. Loren J. Lawson, of Portland, was matron of honor, wearing a princess gown of white pique over yellow, with crown and arm bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Mimi de Temple was a bridesmaid, wearing a similar outfit of white eyelet over light blue with light blue carnation arm bouquet and crown. Miss Lillian Melby wore white eyelet over light rose with rose carnation arm bouquet and crown.

Mrs. George wore a grey suit

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 16)

Clark photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. THORESON

Wearing a gown made from silk sent by the bridegroom from Japan, Mrs. Vernon Thoreson (Bernice Patten) was married at College Grove.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire Engraving

MRS. SELLE

A "junior bride" of two years walked down the aisle before Mrs. Milton Selle (Mildred Fix at her wedding here in late June.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. BURTON

At a ceremony read by Dr. Victor P. Morris recently, Mrs. William H. Burton (Audrey Byers) was married.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire Engraving

MRS. HODGIN

An early morning service at St. Mary's Catholic Church wedded Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hodgin (Ida Thomas) late in June.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving.

MRS. BISHOP

Bride of June 29 in a ceremony at First Congregational Church was Mrs. Frank D. Bishop (Betty Graham).