

Pink Wedding Gown Bridal Attire At Early Morning Mass

Miss Madonna Sittman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sittman of Kingsley, Iowa, and Victor Albino, son of Mrs. Catherine Albino of Beaverton, were married at St. Mary's Catholic Church June 29 at seven-forty-five o'clock. The Rev. Anthony Gerace, brother of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony and conducted the nuptial mass.

The bride wore a gown of pink satin made in colonial style with a train. Her full-length veil was edged with lace and fell from a pink crown. She carried a shower bouquet of roses, carnations and stephanotis, and was escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, Cletus Kemp. Miss Angelina Albino, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of white taffeta with pink satin bustle and mitts. Her headdress was similar to the bride's and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations and roses.

Misses Fern and Alta Marie Sittman, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids, wearing colonial gowns of white taffeta, with pink satin-finished picture hats and mitts. They carried nosegay bouquets of pink roses and gardenias. Little Diane Albino and Janice Kemp, nieces of bridegroom and bride, were flower girls. They wore pink and white dresses and carried floral nosegays.

The bride's mother was not able to be present. Mrs. Albino wore a green gabardine suit with corsage of pink roses and gardenias.

Joseph Albino, brother of the bridegroom, was his best man. Other attendants were Cletus Kemp and Quentin Lynes. Pink and white gladiolus were used in the church decorations. Special music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cooley.

The wedding breakfast was given at the home of Joseph Albino.

Later a dinner was given in the Mirror Room of Eugene Hotel, followed by an evening reception and dancing in the Persian Room. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Lake Quinalt and points on the coast. On their return they will live at 221 Thirteenth Avenue West.

with corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. Mrs. Lawson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a brown suit with matching corsage.

Best man was Francis Palanuk, while Richard Bylund and William D. Evans were ushers. Mr. George gave his daughter in marriage. White gladiolus were used in decoration. Lowell Chase sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Mary Grubbs was at the organ.

A reception followed in Wheeler Room, with Mrs. Birdie R. Rhodes, great-aunt of the bride, cutting the wedding cake, which was served by Nonda Johnson. Mrs. Orville de Temple, poured and was assisted by Gloria Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson went for a wedding trip to Seaside and Victoria, B. C. Mrs. Lawson wore a suit of aqua gabardine with grey and white accessories, and orchid corsage. They will live in Portland.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Charles Ray and Coral Sue of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lantz of Berkeley, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson of Tacoma.

which had been worn by her mother at her wedding thirty-six years before.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gordon Gullion, in blue, and bridesmaids were Miss Doris Bryson of Portland, wearing pale yellow, and Miss Caroline Snook in pink. Their gowns were identical in style, having a low round neckline and cap sleeves, draped neckline and bustle-effect bow in back, with sheer skirts. Their flowers were gladiolus and net, contrasting with their gowns, and they wore arrangements of the flowers in their hair.

Jack McMahan was best man, and ushers were Robert Wells, Edward Harms, Jr., Hubert Williamson, Duane Marshall, and Maurice Childs.

Mrs. Anderson wore for the wedding of her daughter a grey crepe dress and pink accessories, corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Willis was dressed in a dusty-rose crepe dress, with navy blue accessories, and corsage of gardenias.

The reception was held at the bride's sorority house, Alpha Omicron Pi, following the church ceremony. Gladiolus decorated the rooms, and triple arrangements of white tapers were placed on the long refreshment table. Mrs. Clarence Hansen cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Kleinman, and Mrs. Frank J. Connell dipped punch, assisted by Mrs.

Victorian Gown Worn By Miss McCready At June Wedding

Miss Frances Marie McCready, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. McCready of Sweet Home, was married to Eston Gordon Way, son of Mrs. Jewel Parr of Medford, at St. Mary's Episcopal Church June 29 at four o'clock. The Rev. E. S. Bartlam officiated.

The bride wore a gown of cream-colored satin, made in Victorian style with molded bodice and small bustle. Her veil of tulle was fingertip length and was held by a bonnet headdress. She wore heirloom pearls and carried a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds and bouvardia.

Miss Joan McCready served as maid of honor, wearing pink moire, made with fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore long lace mitts and carried a white muff. Other bridal attendants were gowned alike in pink moire, with pink muffs and mitts. They were Miss Maxine Landon, Miss Jackie McKenzie of Portland, Miss Lois Heagle of Healy, Idaho, and Mrs. Roland King of Independence. Little Barbara Kay Sprague was flower girl.

Dr. T. O. Walton, Jr., College Station, Texas, was best man. Ushers were Murray Wade, Jr. of Salem; Weldon Sloan and Mark Howard, both of Eugene; William Johnson of Corvallis; Roland King of Independence, and Dale McMullin of Cottage Grove. The bride was given away by her father.

Baskets of white gladiolus were used in decoration, while the pews were marked with bows of white ribbon and lilies. Mrs. F. H. Giesecke sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Harold Johnson of Corvallis cut the cake at the reception in the church parlor, and Mrs. W. J. Meyer of Grants Pass poured. Both are aunts of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. Marie Taylor, Misses Evelyn Jones, Ruth Hansen, Bettie Hendershott and Ginger Anawalt.

For going away Mrs. Way chose a suit of blue gabardine with black accessories. After a trip to the coast the couple will return to Eugene for the summer school at the university. After September 1 they will live at Eagle Point, where Mr. Way will teach. Mrs. Way is affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi and Mr. Way is a member of Campbell Club at the university.

Engagements Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Rexius announce the engagement of their daughter, June, to David M. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sutton, also of Eugene. No date has been set for the couple's marriage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Will were graduated in June from the University of Oregon. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Endocrine"

HELPS RESTORE SPRING FLOWER BEAUTY TO FADING SKIN

Does exposure to the hot sun cause your skin to become parched, rough, lined, old looking? If so, try ENDOCRINE. ENDOCRINE alone contains ACTIVOX which works beneath the skin's surface to help keep the skin looking fresh, firm, smooth, attractively youthful.

FOR FACE AND THROAT: Combat "sun-parched" skin by applying rich, creamy ENDOCRINE Face Cream faithfully to face and throat each day. Not only lubricates the skin externally, but acts beneath its surface to improve its outward appearance. Unequaled as a "hot weather" face cream. $3.50 (plus tax) 30 days' supply.

FOR HANDS, ARMS, LEGS: Ward off sun-damage to the skin of hands, arms, legs, with the new ENDOCRINE Hand Beauty. Containing ACTIVOX, it can do for hand, arm and leg skin what ENDOCRINE Face Cream does with such unequalled success for face and throat skin. 45 days' supply. $2.75 (plus tax).
