Bridal Gown

The wedding of Miss Bernice Cheney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Cheney, and John P. Taylor, son of Harry Taylor, all of Eugene, were married at First Baptist Church, June 29, at three o'clock, with Dr. Vance H. Webster officiating.

Miss Cheney wore a suit of white gabardine, with white accessories. Her bridal bouquet was of pink rosebuds and stephanotis and she carried an heirloom handkerchief made by her father's great-aunt. Her sister, Miss Gwendolyn Cheney, was her only attendant, and wore a suit of blue gabardine with white accessories, with a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Don Taylor served as best man. Ushers were Dale Beamer, Robert Gray, Robert Murdock and Kenneth Pickett. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladiolus. Tapers were lighted by Mrs. Eugene Brewer and Miss Betty Coe. Nell Murphy Dickson played the wedding music and accompanied Robert King, who sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

Mrs. Victor Blunt cut the wedding cake at the reception which was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Glen Beamer poured. Miss Adele Hastings had charge of arrangements for the reception. Misses Shirley Beamer, Helen Pickett and Lucille Bryant helped to serve. Miss Lois Campbell had charge of the guest book and gifts. Miss Virginia Burt, accompanied by Miss Kay Osterholm sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" at the reception.

The young couple went for a trip to California. They will live at Eugene. The bride was graduated from the university this year and is a member of Omicron. The bridegroom spent three years in the Army Air Corps and now is engaged in lumbering.

TRAVELERS RETURN

Mrs. Alfreda Bowman and her sisters, Mrs. Stella Kendall and Miss Jessie Bowman returned this week from Hood River, Wash., where they attended the reunion of the Bowman family of North Dakota. They reported that forty-nine of the family's fifty-three members were present at the reunion.

Late June Wedding
At Baptist Church

Miss Maxine Hammock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hammock of Route Three was married to Robert W. Mart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mart of Eugene, at First Baptist Church, June 28 at eight o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Edward Marvin of the Willagillespie Baptist Church performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of pale pink gabardine with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias and pink roses. Her sister, Miss Shirley Hammock, was maid of honor, wearing a suit of light blue gabardine with white accessories, and carrying a pink nosegay bouquet.

James Cox acted as best man. Ushers were George Hammock and Bill Hammock. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Norton Pengra sang, "At Dawning" and "I Love Thee."

An informal reception was given in the parlor of the church after which the young couple left on wedding trip to Washington. They have returned and are now living at Eugene.

satin made with fitted bodice, long sleeves and bustle effect in back. The skirt had a long train and the full-length veil was edged with lace, and held by a beaded crown. She carried a double heart-shaped bouquet of roses and stephanotis with orchid in center. She was escorted to the altar by her brother, Daniel Fix.

Miss Lillian Selle, of Oakland, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She was gown in blue and carried a single heart-shaped bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. Miss Lorayne Fix, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and wore a yellow gown and carried matching bouquet.

The wedding march was led by a junior bride, two-and-a-half year old, Linda Diane Peek, niece of the bride, whose dress and flowers were miniature copies of the bride's. Marie and Alice Pfaff were flower girls, and the bride's veil was carried by Beverly Duvall and Peggy Atkins. Danny Fix was ring bearer.

Harry V. Peek served as best man. Robert Selle, Peter Fix and Lloyd Selle were ushers.

"Ave Maria" was sung by Dale Cooley, with Mrs. Cooley at the organ. A reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peek. Mrs. Joe Koffler and Mrs. Joe Sorenson assisted in serving. Mr. and Mrs. Selle left on a trip to Spokane, Wash., and California. They will live at 1048 Lincoln Street.
