

Junction City Pair Married in Garden At Skovbo Home

The garden of the Peter Skovbo home at Junction City provided the setting for the wedding of Miss Marilyn Hinz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hinz to Einar Skovbo, son of the Skovbos, June 29 at four o'clock.

The Rev. Sterling H. Simonson performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Hinz wore a gown of white satin and chiffon, made with bodice of the satin with yoke and skirt of chiffon trimmed with satin applique. Her two-strand pearl necklace had belonged to her grandmother. The bridegroom's grandmother gave her a hand-made, lace-edged handkerchief. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, and her fingertip veil was held by a halo of stephanotis.

Miss Marilyn Metzger was maid of honor, wearing a gown of aqua net over taffeta, trimmed with pink Killarney roses. She wore a halo of pink rosebuds and carried a white Bible.

Ingard Skovbo brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The wedding party stood before a background of shrubs and flowers, with baskets of white gladiolus and Croft lilies. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Lee Giddings. Mrs. H. E. Aalbus sang "I Love Thee" and "Because."

A reception which followed the ceremony also was held in the garden. Mrs. Ivan Gribakov cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. W. F. Gagner poured. Assisting were Mrs. Ingard Skovbo, Miss Marilee Giddings and Miss Rita Albino. Mrs. Joe Cooley had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Skovbo attended the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta. For going away, she wore a three-piece suit of French grey with red and white accessories. The couple will live at Springfield.

MRS. HEIN

A church service in Springfield recently married Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hein (Betty L. Whitworth) whose home is on Emery Road.

Miss Whitworth Weds At Springfield Rite

Ebbett Memorial Church saw the wedding June 15 of Miss Betty L. Whitworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry C. Whitworth of Springfield, to Harry L. Hein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hein of Eugene. The Rev. Ellsworth Tilton officiated.

The bride wore a gown of sheer white celanese, trimmed with lace. Her long veil was inset and edged with matching lace, and was held by a tiara of pearls. She wore three-quarter length gloves and carried a white Bible, topped with nosegay of carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Donna Anderburg was maid of honor, wearing a gown of poudre blue lace with matching gloves, and a head-dress of shattered carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Laura Hein, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Bonnie Nicholas were bridesmaids. Miss Hein wore blue taffeta with bolero of quilted brocade. Miss Nicholas wore blue net, and both wore headbands similar to that of the bride. Flower girls were Little Dara Cooper and Bonita Whitworth, younger sister of the bride. They wore long peach gowns and carried baskets of pink rose petals.

Allan Lindley served as best man. Ushers were Sidney Peterson and Lawrence Hein. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Lilies, delphinium and pink roses were used in decoration at the church. A duet, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Misses Jacqueline Davis and Maxine Rusinko. A reception was held at the bride's home. Mrs. W. F. Schell and daughter cut the wedding cake, while Mrs. Ernest Cooper and Miss Donna Anderburg helped the bride's mother with serving.

For going away, Mrs. Hein wore a suit of poudre blue wool with pink accessories, and a corsage of roses and white stephanotis. The couple went on a trip to the coast. They are building a home off Emery Road, east of Springfield where they will live. Mr. Hein is employed at the Union High School.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL of First Christian Church will meet Wednesday for all-day sewing at the white room of the church, with potluck luncheon at noon.

Second Pryor Twin Married June 30, Both on Honeymoon

Mrs. Cora Lee Pryor of this city announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Verle Maxine "Jeri" Pryor to Wendell E. Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen McArthur of Oakridge, which was solemnized in the home of the Rev. Brewster Adams at Reno, Nev., Monday, June 30 at three o'clock. The double-ring ceremony was read in front of the fireplace which was decorated with summer flowers and lighted candles.

Attending the couple were the bride's twin sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mathers of Eugene. The bride wore a suit of white wool with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and stephanotis. For "something old" she carried a lace handkerchief which had belonged to her grandmother.

Mrs. Mathers, the former "Jimi" Pryor, wore a wool suit of palomino shade with black accessories and corsage of salmon pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Mr. and Mrs. Mathers were married a year and a half ago, when he was in the Navy and they were unable to have a wedding trip. The two couples went honeymooning together at Calvada Lodge on Lake Tahoe, later motoring to San Francisco and north along the coast highway.

Mr. Mason served four years in the Army Air Corps. He and Mrs. Mason will live at Eugene.

Summer Gowns Worn At Recent Wedding

St. Mary's Episcopal Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Joan King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl King of Cottage Grove, to Daniel J. Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dunn of Reedsport, which was solemnized at high noon, July 6. The Rev. E. S. Bartlam officiated.

Miss King wore a formal gown of white eyelet pique with full-length mitts and halo of the same material. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. The bride, was matron of honor. She wore pale pink linen with cap of the same material, with nosegays of pink carnations and stephanotis on both wrists. Misses Mary Browne and Betty Dunn, dressed in identical gowns of blue eyelet, lighted the candles.

Robert S. Bennett of Reedsport served as best man. Ushers were Paul Pearson of Prospect and Jack Brandon of Reedsport. The church was decorated with baskets of peach and white gladiolus.

Miss Phyllis Torrey was in charge of the reception which was held in the church. Those serving were Mrs. Bessie Lewis of Reedsport, Miss Mickey Collier and Mrs. John Londaahl of Cottage Grove. Miss Sara Bjorset had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn left on a trip to California. They will live at Reedsport after July 21. Mrs. Dunn wore a navy blue suit with orchid corsage for going away. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart School of Nursing. Mr. Dunn attended Oregon State College and University of Oregon and is affiliated with Sigma Chi.

SOCIETY'S MEETING TO BE LUNCHEON

Hostesses for Eugene Hearing Society's July luncheon meeting are Mrs. E. S. Fish and Mrs. J. B. Anderson. They have reserved the cottage at Skinner Butte Park for Thursday, July 10. Luncheon is to be earlier than customary, at twelve-thirty o'clock, to accommodate members who may have other engagements.

THE MONTHLY meeting of General Lawton Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, will be held at the armory Monday evening, July 14, at 7:30 o'clock.

Junior Bride Walks Among Attendants

Lighthouse Temple provided the setting for the wedding of Miss Arlene Masengil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Masengil, to Allan Wayne Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton S. Hunter, all of Eugene. The Rev. E. J. Fulton read the service July 2, at eight o'clock.

Miss Masengil wore a gown of ivory satin, made with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and medium train. The full skirt was gathered on the fitted bodice which was scalloped at the waistline. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of net with insets of lace and small pearls. She carried an orchid arranged with stephanotis on a large heart of maline.

Mrs. Mark Christianson was matron of honor, wearing blue net over taffeta. Her headpiece was of veiling with a tiara of flowers, and she carried a nosegay bouquet of white flowers. Mrs. Dell Page in pink and Miss Alberta Warnock in yellow were attendants. Their gowns were styled like that of the matron of honor and they wore similar headpieces and carried matching flowers. Little David Fulton wore a white suit and served as ring bearer. Marydel Masengil, cousin of the bride, in long white dress and veil was junior bride.

Mrs. Masengil, mother of the bride, wore a navy suit with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Hunter wore a green suit with black accessories and matching corsage. Warren Hunter, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Dell Page, Milton Nelson, Ivan Prior and Orion Reid were ushers. The bride was given away by her father.

The church was prettily decorated with baskets of daisies and roses and candelabra. Robert Fulton played the wedding music on the organ. William Stringfield sang, "Because" and "Always."

Miss Elvora Chamberlain cut the cake at the reception which was held in the church parlor. Miss Arla Witte poured. Mrs. Ivan Prior was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Hunter wore a pink suit with white accessories and orchid with stephanotis corsage when the couple left on their wedding trip to Crater Lake. They will live on East Federal Lane, Santa Clara, after July 13.
